Open House Observes Anniversary

Cave Junction — The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rossiter Sr. of Arcata, Calif., was celebrated at an open house Saturday afternoon at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sowell, Cave Junction.

Among the near 80 persons who attended the affair were all of the Rossiter's six children, 23 of their 27 grandchildren, and 13 of their 21 great grandchildren.

A cake designed with pale gold and white roses and topped with golden wedding bells, formed the centerpiece for the candlelight serving table. Miss Carolyn Milburn, a granddaughter from Jerome Prairie, made and decorated the anniversary cake.

The table was spread with a gold lace cloth, while golden chrysanthemums were provided by Mr. Rossiter's niece, Mrs. Beulah Soles of Eureka. Presiding at the silver services were the Mesdames Carolyn Milburn, Sowell and Edna McCall.

White and wine colored chrysanthemums decorated the room, while Mrs. Rossiter wore a corsage of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

John Rossiter and Julia E. Geiger were married December 4, 1907 at Watonga, Okla. After living for a while in Colorado, they came to the west coast in 1932, and made their home in the Illinois Valley from 1936 through 1946. After Mr. Rossiter retired from his work at Oregon Caves Lumber company, the couple moved to Arcata, their present home.

Among their many gifts was one from Mrs. Rossiter's nephew in New York, the president of Grace Shipping lines, who sent an alpaca wool rug from Lima, Peru.

Special guests included Mrs. Rossiter's brother, Ralph Geiger of Mountain Home, Ida., his wife and son Max; Mr. Rossiter's eldest sister, Mrs. Belle Boyer and her daughter, Mrs. Soles, Eureka. Their six children are the hosts. Mrs. Sowell Delbert Rossiter, Bear Creek, Ore.; Albert Rossiter, Jerome Prairie, John W. Rossiter, Holland; Marion J. Rossiter, Jerome Prairie, and Mrs. McCall, Eureka, Calif.

Four generations of "John Rossiters" were present for the occasion.

Nearly 50 immediate relatives remained for a family reunion

Victor Wigglesworth and Mrs. Ethel Hixson of Southern Oregon Society of Artists are shown here arranging an exhibit of paintings loaned by the Coos Bay Artists' league for showing here. The paintings, including works in oil, watercolor and other media, are displayed at Lusk Piano house, 333 South Riverside avenue. Mr. Wigglesworth is chairman in charge of the show, and Mrs. Hixson is secretary of the Southern Oregon society. The public is invited to view the exhibit, which will be up throughout all December.

Extension Units To Hold Sessions

Meetings for three extension units are to be held this week.

Griffin Creek Home Extension unit is scheduled to meet December 13, Friday, at 11 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Glen V. Allen, 981 South Stage road.

Members are reminded to bring something from their emergency shelves to help fill a box to be presented to some family at Christmas.

There will be an exchange of gifts not to exceed 50 cents in cash.

Eagle Point Home Extension unit will meet Thursday, December 12 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ed Chamberlain. The project will be "Consumer Buying of Foods" with Mrs. Hoyle Jordan and Mrs. David Kahl as leaders.

Members are asked to bring table service and articles for a Christmas bazaar. Food and clothing will be collected at the meeting for a needy family.

Child care will be in charge of Mrs. Ethel Coy at 301 South B street.

The Christmas meeting of Willow Springs unit will be held and dinner at the Sowell home Saturday evening.

Beverly and Norman Sowell, children of the host and hostess, entertained the young people at a separate party held in the specially decorated Sowell garage.

Out-of-town guests remained in the valley overnight, leaving for their homes Sunday.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Winter squash, now on the market, have thick skins and dark colored flesh. Butternut, table queen and hubbard varieties are good sources of vitamin A. When baking, keep moisture in the squash by turning the cut side down, or bake whole. Forty to 60 minutes is all the time it takes to bake most winter squash in a 400 degree oven. Compatible seasonings are bacon drippings, sausage, unsulphured molasses, honey or brown sugar and of course browned butter.

Dips and dunks for holiday parties are best seasoned with instant minced onion and garlic powder. Both these new moisture-free products have dependably mild, yet true, flavor. No oniony hands for the party either!

Designer Anne Fogarty recommends the mantilla, or lace chapel veil, for many occasions. Wear it at sports events to protect your hair from the breeze, as a hat for church, or as a triangle or stole for dinner, the theater or formal parties.
