

Unknown sculptor carved life-size statue of founder of monastery, Alphonso VII, from single block of Spanish limestone. It stands in reassembled monastery just as it did in Spain for 800 years.

Fourteenth-century hymnarium, illuminated by hand on huge sheets of parchment, is among Medieval art treasures on display at the monastery.

Marble statue of Christ stands on altar in chapel where novices once took instructions. Four columns represent the four virtues of wisdom, courage, temperance, and justice.
