Ashland — Southern Oregon college cagers get their first chance to see how they match up to northwest competition this week end.

They are hosts this evening and Saturday to the Linfield Wildcats in the new college gym here. Games are at 8 p.m. on both occasions.

Linfield comes here after three games with other Oregon college clubs. The 'Cats' were losers to Willamette and winners over Lewis and Clark by close scores last week end. Southern Oregon will meet Lewis and Clark next week. Linfield was a decisive victor over Oregon college, which is a co-member with SOU in the Oregon Collegiate conference.

Belgian Duo Upsets Yank Tennis Pair

Brisbane, Australia — Philippe Washer and Jacques Brichtant, playing recklessly with "nothing to lose," upset America's "old folks" doubles team of Vic Seixas and Gardner Mulloy, 7-5, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3, to keep Belgium's Davis Cup hope faintly alive.

The surprise defeat sliced the United States' lead in the interzone cup finals to 2-1 over the plucky Belgians, who would have been eliminated if they lost today.

Now the U. S. team must win one of the two singles matches that wind up the best-of-five series Saturday—Sixas vs. Brichtant and Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., vs. Washer. The Yanks will be favored, but today's loss puts the pressure back on them.
