

Chisox Hurling Staff Shapes Up As Best In American Circuit

Editor's note: This is the second outlook of each major league team for 1958, written by the managers of each club.

By AL LOPEZ
Written For The United Press
Tampa, Fla. — They say pitching wins pennants, and the way the Chicago White Sox pitching staff shapes up now, there's no question that it is the strongest one in the American league.

Early Wynn, whom we got from Cleveland, gives us another good, solid starter to go with fellows like Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan, Jim Wilson, Bill Fischer and Bob Keegan.

And Ray Moore, whom we obtained from Baltimore, represents the kind of man we were looking for to give our bullpen a big lift. Moore will handle the relief work along with Gerry Staley, Dixie Howell and Paul LaPalme.

I'm not discounting young Jim Derrington, either. He's the bonus boy we're carrying and he could turn out to be a pleasant pitching surprise for us next season.

There was some talk that we hurt ourselves on offense when we gave up Minnie Mino and Larry Doby to get Wynn and Moore. Perhaps we did sacrifice a few RBIs but I think the added pitching help we obtained more than makes up for it.

Other Good Hitters
Besides, I feel we got some pretty fair hitters in fellows such as Al Smith, Billy Goodman and Tito Francona.

Smith is no slouch at the plate and the .247 average he had at Cleveland is certainly not a true indication of his ability. We think that a change of scenery will make a big difference in his case.

We're counting on Smith as our left fielder. Jim Landis can play center field as well as anyone in the league, and we'll have both Jim Rivera and Francona available in right field.

The addition of Goodman from Baltimore frees Bubba Phillips for duty in the outfield, in the event we need him there. Phillips is a handy man to have around because he can play both third base and the outfield.

We're thinking of Goodman in terms of third base. Frankly, I'm not the least bit concerned about our situation around second base. We have the best second baseman in the league in Nellie Fox and Luis Aparicio at shortstop give our club as good a double play combination as you'll find.

Aparicio Hits and Steals
Aparicio's value doesn't end on defense alone. He's a whiz

TRIMBLE DENIES REPORT

Grid Rooters Holdup Game

McMurdo Sound, Antarctica — When the men on "Operation Deepfreeze" play football, the penguins are a problem.
"M" Division sailors from the icebreaker U.S.S. Glacier with the expedition here defeated the "S" Division team, 7-0, Monday in a pigskin game played on solid ice.
The penguins held up the game many times by strutting onto the field.

Russo Gains Win Over Tony DeCola

New York — Danny Russo, 19-year-old Brooklyn welterweight followed the old ring axiom: "Find a target you can hit, and keep hitting it," as he won an upset majority decision over Tony DeCola Monday night.
In their 10-round TV fight at St. Nicholas arena, lanky DeCola's body became the number one target for Danny's busy fists. Then DeCola, also of Brooklyn, began dropping his gloves to protect the body, and Russo found he could hit the chin with left hooks.

Seven Browns Picked On Eastern All-Stars

Los Angeles — The Cleveland Browns, Eastern Division NFL champions, Tuesday landed seven men on the Eastern team in the All-Star Pro-Bowl game to be held Jan. 12 in Memorial Coliseum here.
Selections of the eastern team players were made by NFL Commissioner Bert Bell and Pro-Bowl game general manager Paul Schissler after coaches of the teams represented nominated the men they felt were most consistent in their performances all year.
Leading the eastern offense will be Browns' quarterback Tommy O'Connell who will be backed up by Eddie LeBaron of the Redskins as reserve quarterback.
The offensive team selected ends Gene Brito, Redskins, and Andy Robustelli, Giants; tackles Bob Gain, Browns, and Ernie Stautner, Steelers; center guard, Chuck Drazenovich, Redskins; linebacksers Chuck Bednarik, Eagles, and Walt Michaels, Browns; halfbacks Jack Butler, Steelers, and Don Paul, Browns; and safeties Jerry Norton, Eagles, and Emlen Tunnell, Giants.

Pompey Picked to Beat Hinnant In Wednesday Light Heavy Bout

New York — West Indian Yolande Pompey is favored at 2-1 to beat Clarence Hinnant at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night in a light heavyweight contenders' fight that features this week's boxing schedule.
Pompey, 28, is campaigning for another shot at Archie Moore's title. Moore knocked him out in the 10th round of their London title fight, June 5, 1956. Yolande's 29-4-2 record includes 23 knockouts.
Hinnant, 24, was caught "cold" and knocked out in the first round of his last fight by top contender Harold Johnson, May 31. However, in February Hinnant stopped Canadian Yvon Durrelle, British Empire champion, in the eighth round. His 25-10-0 record includes 20 kayoes.

Young Welters
Their bout will be televised nationally by ABC.
Young welterweights will fight in the Friday night TV show. At Madison Square Garden, Friday, Jimmy Archer of New York meets Gale Kerwin of Valley Stream, N.Y. Archer is favored at 8-5 for their 10-rounder because of his aggressiveness and his 14 victories in 15 fights.
It will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.
Ex-featherweight champion Willie Pep returns to action Tuesday night after a long lay-off because of an injured hand. He meets Jimmy Connors of New Bedford, Mass., at Boston. The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday—Boston—Willie Pep vs. Jimmy Connors; Tyler, Tex.—Buddy Turman vs. Oscar Pharo; Richmond, Calif.—Bob Butcher vs. Tommy Fields; San Jose, Calif.—Willie Morton vs. Joey Abasta; Toledo, O.—Harold Johnson vs. Sib Peaks; San Antonio, Tex.—Mickey Brown vs. Rocky Cabalero; Colorado Springs, Colo.—Don Alderson vs. Rayq Terrazas.

Wednesday — Chicago Stadium—Yolande Pompey vs. Clarence Hinnant. Thursday—San Francisco—Bobby Scanlon vs. Lauro Salas; Los Angeles—Charley Sawyer vs. Ray Hernandez; Philadelphia—Jake Jasato vs. Candy McFarland.
Friday—New York Garden—Jimmy Archer vs. Gale Kerwin; New Orleans—Charley Joseph vs. Bobby Body. Saturday — Hollywood, Calif.—Frankie Belma vs. Dave Johnson.
