

Findleys Hosts At Dinner Party

Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley, Old Stage road, were hosts Friday evening for a dinner party at their home. This is one of a series of small parties which the Findleys are giving this season.

Last week and they honored Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keeler, Seattle, Wash., at a small dinner. The Keelers, the Findleys and a number of other Medford couples were together on a cruise to New Zealand one winter, and enjoyed being together at the Findley home.

Earlier this fall the first of the party series was given by the Findleys and Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson.

Here for the holidays will be the Findleys two daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bartz, and Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Bender Jr. Their son, Jack, is a student at Southern Oregon college. Mr. and Mrs. Bartz will return north after Christmas, and the Benders, who will also visit Mr. Benders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Bender, Westlund drive, will continue south.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Snell, whose wedding took place November 30, in Reno, Nev., are making their home at 407 Plaza apartments, Medford. Mrs. Snell is the former Mrs. Leora Robinson of this city.

Mrs. Snell is on the staff of Siskiyou National Forest service, and is assigned to the Grants Pass office.

Mrs. Aubrey M. Hill, Ashland, (at left) attended the recent Christmas charity ball of Medford Junior Service league wearing a headpiece which had originally been made by her mother as a centerpiece for the Thanksgiving dinner table. It was of brown and yellow tones and had four small artificial candles which were lighted from a battery. The headpiece matched Mrs. Hill's gown which was brown with a band of pale fur on the bodice. When Mrs. Hill greeted Dr. and Mrs. Harry Danielson, all three laughed heartily over the effect which the headpiece produced.

Littrells to Give Family Party; To Attend Game

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell are entertaining today at a family Christmas party at their home, 140 Greenway circle.

Guests will be Mr. Littrell's sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Littrell and children, Jo and David, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Littrell and children, Mickie and Mike, and Robert Littrell, and his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rice, all Medford.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell will leave for Petaluma, Calif., where they will spend Christmas with Mrs. Littrell's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Brainerd, and their two daughters. Later they will continue to Pasadena, Calif., to attend the annual Rose Bowl game. They will be joined there by other Medford couples planning to attend the football classic.

The Littrells plan to be absent for several weeks on a winter vacation, and during their absence their house will be occupied by Mrs. L. L. Sanders, formerly of this city. Mrs. Sanders is coming to Medford from Woodburn, Ore., where she has been with her son and daughter-in-law.

Hold Yule Party

Employees of Medford branch, United States National bank, held a Christmas dinner and dance at Rogue Valley Country club Wednesday evening. About 75 attended the party. Shirrell Doty was chairman.

Saturday afternoon the bank staff gave the annual party for children of staff members. This is always held in the lobby of the bank after working hours.

Four Initiated By Honor Society

Ashland — Four Medford students were recently initiated into Beta Lambda chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon at Southern Oregon college. They are Miss Yvonne Field, Herbert Colley, Keith Lockhard and Gordon Mueller.

Gamma Theta Upsilon is a national fraternity for those interested in the field of geography.

Gails to Have Holiday Guests

Here for the holidays at the Budd Gail residence, 1596 Bidle road, will be Mrs. Gail's mother, Mrs. Laurence Pennington, Redding, Calif., who will arrive Sunday, and the Gail's oldest son, Tom, a senior at Willamette university, who is expected Monday.

Sixteen persons will attend Christmas dinner at the Gail's Wednesday. In addition to the Gail family and Mrs. Pennington, guests include Charles Gail, Wimer, father of Budd Gail, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gerritsen, Jacksonville highway, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Ranny Smith, Whitman avenue.

The Gerritsen's two children will also be at the home of their aunt and uncle for Christmas and the Smiths, cousins of Mrs. Gail, will spend their first Christmas in the valley. They moved to Medford from Pendleton two weeks ago with their three children.

Tom Gail will spend nearly two weeks in Medford before returning to college.

Collins Family Gives Two Parties

Among holiday parties last week were two given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Collins and Mr. Collins' mother, Mrs. J. C. Collins.

Friday afternoon the two women invited friends to the Hugh Collins' home, 40 Glen Oak court, for a tea which honored Miss Margaret and Miss Miriam Collins and Mrs. L. P. Smith, San Diego, Calif. The Misses Collins are sisters of J. C. Collins, and Mrs. Smith is Mrs. Hugh Collins' mother. All three women are spending the holidays here.

Following the tea, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Collins were hosts for their annual eggnog party. Holiday greenery and candles made the Collins' home festive for the occasion.
