Christmas Party Given for Unit At Auditorium

Medford Home Extension unit held the annual Christmas party Wednesday in the courthouse auditorium. Thirty-five members enjoyed a turkey dinner served at noon on tables colorful with handmade Christmas decorations. Chairmen of the dinner committee were Mrs. William Naylor and Mrs. Claude Payton, assisted by a committee.

A business meeting followed the dinner, conducted by president, Mrs. Delores Armstrong. Guests for the event were Mrs. Richard Garrett, Mrs. Edith Glour and Mrs. William G. Troup.

The health and safety chairman, Mrs. Edith Daugherty, gave "dos and don'ts" for safety measures around the home.

Mrs. Leland Knox read an informative article on the benefits of using frozen food and of their general popularity over the entire country. Mrs. D. K. Varner and several other members who had attended the recent opening of the new Medford Juvenile Detention home, gave their impressions of it. Mrs. Leitha Trefrean led further discussion on the money raising project which is being sponsored by the Community Club Awards and KWIN which is to take effect in January. A general discussion was held on the making of Christmas decorations, table centerpieces, swags and candle making. Members exchanged their favorite holiday recipes.

Hand made articles were exchanged as gifts and singing of Christmas carols rounded out the party.

The next meeting of the unit will be held Wednesday, January 8, at 10:30 a.m. in the courthouse auditorium, with Mrs. William Naylor and Mrs. C. C. Faris, project demonstrators for "Consumer Buying of Foods." The luncheon committee for the January meeting will be Mrs. Robert Hunter, Mrs. Robert Ditsworth, Mrs. Carrie Milnes and Mrs. Fred Middlebush.

Installation Held For Two Officers

Cave Junction — Two guard-an council officers were installed during the meeting of Bethel 36, International Order of Job's Daughters Monday evening at the Masonic temple in Kerby. Mrs. Fay Snider, guardian, installed Mrs. Leona Weingart as guardian of hospitality, and Mrs. Marie White as guardian of publicity.

Honored Queen Linda Deaton presided. Escorted to the east were Lester Basham, worshipful master of Belt lodge, and Henry Lloyd, past associate guardian of the Bethel.

Mrs. Edith Sowell, director of ethics, explained the point system. At the end of each term, girls who have earned the most points will receive awards. The new system will go into effect with the installation of Honored Queen Carolyn DeMerseman at the January 6 meeting.

Public installation is set for 8 p.m., January 6, at the Masonic hall.

A reading was given by Librarian Linda Hunter.

After the business meeting, girls gathered around the lighted Christmas tree for a gift exchange and social time.

Refreshments were served by Queen - Elect Carolyn, Anita White and their mothers, and Mrs. Weingart.

Tables were decorated with the Nativity scene, Christmas candles, miniature Santa Clauses, gumdrop trees, and sprigs of mistletoe.

Construction of an average home involves about 30,000 items.
