

Brown, Marchetti Head Voting For Pro Football All-Star Club

By EARL WRIGHT
New York — Jim Brown, rookie fullback for the Cleveland Browns, and Gino Marchetti, veteran Baltimore Colt, led the voting for the 1957 United Press National Football league All-Star team.

Brown, winner of the rushing title with 942 yards in 12 games, received 27 votes for fullback and two for halfback. He collected 29 of a possible 31 votes and became the first rookie ever to lead the balloting for the mythical two-platoon team.

Gino Hard Charger
Marchetti, who charged into rival backfields so savagely this year that some teams assigned as many as three men to try to block him, received 28 votes. It was just Sunday afternoon fun for Marchetti, a 240-pounder who fought in the Battle of the Bulge when he was 18.

While Brown and Marchetti earned berths by huge margins, Y. A. Tittle of the San Francisco Forty-Niners won the closest race when he edged John Unita of Baltimore by one vote for the quarterback post. Tittle received 13 votes and Unita 12.

Tittle was one of four Forty-Niners who won first team berths. End Billy Wilson made the offensive unit while tackle Leo Nomellini and linebacker Marv Matuszak made the defensive platoon.

Lions, Giants Place Three
The Detroit Lions and New York Giants each placed three players. Linebacker Joe Schmidt, halfback Yale Lary and safetyman Jack Christiansen won defensive positions. Tackle Roosevelt Brown and halfback Frank Gifford of the Giants made the offensive team while teammate Andy Robustelli won the other defensive end berth.

Cleveland, Baltimore, the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers each filled two positions. Besides Jim Brown, Lou Groza of the Browns won an offensive tackle berth, while tackle Art Donovan of the Colts joined Marchetti on the defensive platoon. Center George Strickland and linebacker Bill George of the Bears won berths along with offensive end Bill Howton and safetyman Bobby Dillon of the Packers.

Guards Dick Stenfel of the Washington Redskins and Duane Putnam of the Los Angeles Rams and halfback Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals completed the offensive unit. Jack Butler of the Pittsburgh Steelers won the other defensive halfback post.

Bob Zuppke, Famed Grid Coach, Dies

Champaign, Ill. — The body of Bob Zuppke lay in state today near the University of Illinois where the beloved little coaching genius once gave the nation "razzle-dazzle" football and the legendary Red Grange.

Robert C. Zuppke, as he was formerly named but seldom called, succumbed early Sunday at the age of 78 to a long battle against cancer along with complications of high blood pressure and a heart ailment.

Funeral services will be held in the First Presbyterian church Tuesday at 12 noon (EST) with the Rev. Malcolm Nygren officiating. Afterward the body will be cremated in accordance with Zuppke's wishes.

Illini Captains Called
Meantime the body of the witty little Dutchman who had brought seven Big Ten championships and four national crowns to Illinois, will lay in state at the Mittendorf Funeral Chapel in Champaign.

Intimate friends of the late coach will act as honorary pallbearers. They include all living former Illini football captains, along with Ray Eliot, the assistant who succeeded Zuppke as head coach and Big Ten Commissioner Kenneth L. Wilson.

North Carolina has fallen, and in an excited air of "anything goes," college basketball rushed this week into that basket-happy period known as holiday tournament time.

Crater Falls To Oakridge Again 51-39

Central Point — Crater high bowed 51 to 39 to the Oakridge basketball crew Saturday night at Oakridge after giving the Warriors a tougher skirmish than on Friday.

The Warriors outscored the Comets by six points in each of the halves. Midway score was 26 to 20. Crater made several pushes to come from behind but fouls tuted against the Comets snuffed their rally efforts.

Comet players had the advantage 31 to 18 in the scrapping under the backboards but Oakridge shot more accurately from the field and capitalized on more chances at the free heave line.

The Warriors made 16 of 42 tries for a 381 average in field goaling to Crater's 255 in 12 of 47. At the free stripe the home club made 19 for 37 for 513. The Comet average was .609 on 14 for 23.

Oakridge took the lead for good in the early moments and was sparked offensively by Willie Snyder who collected 18 points. Wayne Allen with 14 and Randy Campbell with 12 topped Crater.

The Comets will have two tough tangles this week end, facing Willamette on Friday and Coquille on Saturday. Both games will be at Central Point.

BROWN TO ENTER ARMY

Manhasset, N. Y. — Jim Brown, rookie fullback for the Cleveland Browns, will enter the Army Jan. 25 at Ft. Benning, Ga., for a special six-month training period and is scheduled to be out of service in time to train for the 1958 National Football league season.

Washington — Rio de Janeiro, like Washington, D. C., is located in a special territorial unit called the Federal District. Curiously Rio's city government includes a Department of Agriculture because many of the district's 450 square miles are given over to forest land and farms.

Paul Brown Has Eye on Wrong Club

Cleveland — Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns said today he thought the San Francisco Forty Niners would beat the Detroit Lions Sunday and "scouted the wrong team."

"I was watching it on television at home and I know I scouted the wrong team for a good part of the afternoon," Brown said.

The Lions erased a 27-7 third period deficit and won the Western division playoff game, 31-27. They'll entertain the Browns next Sunday with the National Football league championship at stake.

Brown had four of his assistants — Howard Brinker, Paul Bixler, Fritz Heisler and Dick Gallagher — at San Francisco scouting the playoff game.

Not Surprised
"They'll come back with their impressions of the game, but they probably scouted the wrong outfit too," Brown said.

"We're not surprised that the Lions won," Brown said. "They wear very well because they're seasoned to this thing."

"We know our problem. We got licked, 20-7 the last time we played them. And next Sunday they'll have the advantage of playing on their home field."

The oddsmakers rate next Sunday's game a tossup although the Browns never had won at Briggs stadium in two regular season games and one title game. The Lions are the only NFL team that holds an edge over Cleveland but Brown doesn't believe in jinxes.

Court Carnivals Spin Throughout Country

merry-go-round court carnivals will be spinning in ever section of the country and just about the only national power that won't be playing in one of them will be West Virginia, the team that wracked Carolina.

The Mountaineers won glory enough for one month when they upset Carolina's national champions Saturday night, 75-64, in the final round of the University of Kentucky Invitational tournament.

Lose Inside Track
As long as the champions kept winning, they had the inside track for the No. 1 national ranking. But the streak is dead now, and the top spot is up for grabs. Besides West Virginia, top claimants include:

Second-ranked Kansas, 58-52 winner over California although Wilt Chamberlain was held to 19 points, and third-ranked Kansas State, 70-63 winner over Washington as Bob Boozer scored 22, who are headed for a possible showdown in the Big Eight tournament starting Thursday.

Fourth-ranked San Francisco, winner of the Blue Grass tourney championship at Louisville by beating host Louisville, 62-55; fifth-ranked Michigan State, which rallied from 13 points behind to beat Notre Dame, 79-72, and seventh-ranked Cincinnati, a 70-53 victor over Houston.

Big Eight Tourney Set

The Big Eight tourney at Kansas City, matching all the members of that conference, will have to share the holiday season spotlight with such top-notch hoop fiestas as:

Dixie classic at Raleigh, N.C., starts Thursday — North Carolina tries to start a new streak in this one as four Atlantic Coast Conference powers play host to four guest teams.

All-College at Oklahoma City Thursday — San Francisco favored over seven rivals from every section of the nation.

Far West at Corvallis, starts Friday — Washington and Oregon State are hosts to Utah and Yale.

Southwest Conference at Houston Thursday — SMU and Rice are favored in this one, matching all the teams in this conference.

Queen City at Buffalo, starts Saturday — Visiting Iowa is favored over three upstate New York teams.

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, starts Saturday — Maryland looms the favorite in a four-team field.

Holiday Festival at New York, starts Thursday — Seattle, Dayton, and Temple the favorites in a top-notch eight-team field.

SF Dons Win Blue Grass Tournament

By GENE BRYANT
United Press Sports Writer

Pacific coast college basketball teams entered the final big week of intersectionals today with several squads still on the road after a generally dismal showing last week.

With the exception of the University of San Francisco Dons, who bounced back from last week's 50-49 upset to Stanford to win the Blue Grass tourney at Louisville over the week end, most West Coast squads probably wished they had never left home.

California, loser to Kansas and Kansas State over the week end, heads for New York and the Holiday Festival tournament. Keeping the Bears company will be the Seattle university Chieftains, who dropped a 60-51 decision to USF at Louisville but came back to trounce Army, 80-51.

Oregon State, which dropped a 77-67 overtime decision to Iowa Saturday, take on Indiana tonight before returning home to Corvallis for the Far West classic. The Beavers were undefeated before running up against the Hawkeys.

The UCLA Bruins also had an unhappy road trek, taking a 67-43 shellacking at the hands of Bradley and losing to little Evansville, 83-76. The Bruins were the pre-season Pacific Coast conference title favorites.

Huskies Meet St. Louis
Washington, another victim of Kansas and Kansas State over the week end, meets St. Louis tonight before heading home.

Previously undefeated Santa Clara also returns home after absorbing a pair of losses on the road. The Broncos dropped two close ones to West Texas State, 68-67 Friday and 74-72 Saturday.

On the brighter side, USF is first-seeded for the All-College tournament at Oklahoma City which gets underway Thursday. Other teams in this annual holiday get-together include Denver, Tulsa, Idaho State, Western Kentucky and Niagara.

And Oregon, with a surprising record of five wins and one loss, takes on Brigham Young again tonight at Provo. The Webfoots defeated BYU Saturday night, 63-55.

Stanford, 77-70 winner over Denver Saturday, is at Colorado tonight while St. Mary's, 68-60 victor over Washington university of St. Louis, takes on Bradley at Peoria. The Washington State Cougars, beaten 71-64 by Utah Saturday, meet the Utes again tonight.

Doubleheaders Slated
Several doubleheaders dot the schedule on the coast this week, with the Far West Classic holding the spotlight. In addition to Oregon State and Washington, Yale and Utah are entered in the two-day tourney which starts Dec. 27.

Santa Clara and San Jose State will meet Arizona and Arizona (Tempe) State in a pair of doubleheaders at the San Jose Civic auditorium Dec. 27-28.

Another set of doubleheaders is scheduled at the Pan-Pacific auditorium in Los Angeles where Southern California and UCLA take turns playing Ohio State and Michigan State this week end.

Exemption Repeal Opposed By Workers

San Francisco — The California State Association of Electrical Workers, which boasts a membership of 60,000, has issued a statement opposing the repeal of tax exemptions for non-profit private schools.

Union President John M. Carney, San Bernardino, said the repeal of non-profit tax exemption "would place an additional unnecessary tax burden upon the people of California."

Non-profit elementary and high schools not only render a genuine service in educating a portion of California's young people, he said, but in 1952 it was estimated that annual savings to taxpayers amounted to more than 41 million dollars as a result of non-profit private school operation.

"Should the proposed initiative pass on the 1958 general election ballot, some $1.8 million of present tax relief would be quickly offset by a potential $350 million for new schools and some $118 million for operating costs in order to match present non-profit facilities," he said.

Holiday Festival at New York, starts Thursday — Seattle, Dayton, and Temple the favorites in a top-notch eight-team field.

Hollingsworth Spurs Red Raider Triumph

Ashland — Southern Oregon College's Red Raiders, smarting from Friday night's loss, 62-52, to Lewis and Clark, moved out to Gresham's Union High school gymnasium Saturday night and pulled out all stops to down the Pioneers, 91-78, in the second game of the series.

Center Bill Hollingsworth burned the nets off the Gresham hoops as he fired through 45 counters to lead the SOC attack. "Holly's" 45 points tied the OCC record set in 1955 by Jack Parker of Portland State. Faking his way through Lewis and Clark defenses for all types of shots, "Wild Bill" hit 16 for 22 from the field and followed up with 13 for 20 from the free line.

The Red Raiders front line followed Hollingsworth in scoring as Dave D'Olivo dumped in 15 and Norm Oliva and Cliff Sutherland hit the double figure for 10 apiece.

Shelton Has 29
The Pioneers were never in the ball game after the Red Raiders caught them at 9-9 and pulled steadily ahead despite a 29 point effort by the Pioneers Cliff Shelton. Shelton scored 18 of his 29 in the last ten minutes after the Raiders had pulled ahead by a gap of 30 points at one time and were never threatened.

Jim McAbee and Ron Maurer turned in their usual outstanding defensive game in the forecourt as they held the Pioneers' freshman scoring aces to 14 points between them, as Royce McDaniels was only able to grab 8 and Ron Langos 6.

Southern Oregon led by 17 points at the half 49-35, as there seemed to be no doubt of the Raiders' superiority on a good court.

The Raiders dominated the encounter under both backboards with a 49 to 37 margin retrieving.

Headed by Hollingsworth's torrid gunning the Raiders fired a sizzling .567 average from the field compared to 400 for the Pioneers on 28 for 70.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—SEVEN

Pittsburgh Clubs Cards

Chicago — The dismal showing of the Chicago Cardinals in dropping their season finale by a 27-2 margin to Pittsburgh and netting an offensive total of only 96 yards in the process appeared all that team manager Walter Wolfner needed today in his plans to "shake 'em up."

Wolfner said he and Cardinal Coach Ray Richards would study movies of Sunday's game "plenty carefully" to see just "where the fuse blew."

"I know this much," Wolfner said. "We're going to shake the team up before next year."

Wolfner and Richards said it wasn't so much the score that disappointed them as the offensive showing of the Cards.

Tibbs Favored To Subdue Lulu

New York — Tommy Tibbs, slam-bang Boston lightweight, is favored at 8-3 over fleet-footed Lulu Perez of Brooklyn for their TV fight Monday night at St. Nicholas arena.

LAYNE, ROTE COMPLETE 100
Detroit — The Detroit Lions have two of the five quarterbacks in National Football league history who have completed 100 or more touchdown passes, Bobby Lane and Tobin Rote.

wasn't so much the score that disappointed them as the offensive showing of the Cards.

Passing by Crabtree Pleases Duck Mentor

Pasadena, Calif. — Ohio State's Buckeyes got down to local practice today for their New Year's Day game in the Rose Bowl with the Oregon Ducks.

Coach Woody Hayes ordered morning and afternoon drills for his team at the Buckeyes' East Los Angeles Junior college practice field. Coach Len Casanova's squad was scheduled for a morning workout and then an afternoon of sightseeing.

Both teams arrived Saturday. Oregon went to work Sunday with a light contact practice while OSU players toured Disneyland in nearby Anaheim and Marineland at Palos Verdes estates.

Quarterback Jack Crabtree pleased Casanova with his accurate passing to end Ron Stover and J. C. Wheeler. The Ducks also worked on kickoffs and put returns.

Hayes said he would drill every day except Christmas and next Sunday, unless it rains, but he didn't know for sure if he would run the squad through
