Presbyterian Service Weds Joyce Bearden, Dom Provost

An event of the holidays was the wedding of Miss Joyce Mary Bearden to Dom Sylvan Provost, held Sunday, December 22, at First Presbyterian church here. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Bearden, 25 Lozier lane, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Domina Provost, Ashland.

More than 350 guests attended the double-ring ceremony, which was read by Dr. D. Kirkland West at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Decorations were in white and green. Large baskets held white snapdragons and chrysanthemums; holly, white flowers and candles were arranged in the windows. Small chrysanthemums and sprigs of holly decorated the pew ends.

Mr. Bearden gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta fashioned with long-sleeved bodice and billowing skirt over hoops. Her veil, loaned by Mrs. Thomas Fairbairn, was held by a cap encrusted with pearls. The bride's bouquet was stephanotis and white rosebuds encircling an orchid.

Miss Shirley Brown, New York City, was maid-of-honor and Miss Deloris Metzger, Portland and Miss Meta Jean Frink, Medford, were bridesmaids. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lester Bergeron, Portland, Mrs. Thomas Fairbairn, Oakland, Calif., and John Wenker, Ashland. All the attendants, with the exception of Mrs. Wenker, were Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the bride at the University of Oregon and all members of the 1956 graduating class.

Their identical frocks were of dark green satin designed with back fullness and bows and were worn with matching satin head-dresses. The attendants carried bouquets of white carnations.

The wedding date was the first anniversary of the Thomas Fairbairn's wedding.

Louis Stafford, Portland, was best man for Mr. Provost and seating the guests were Roy Morgan, Seattle, Roger Newton, Gerlach, Nev., W. Berthold Barnum Jr., Phoenix, Ore., William Wittenberg and Verne Perry Jr. both Portland.

Mrs. Richard Hart played the wedding music.

The wedding reception was held at Rogue Valley Country club. The wedding cake was encircled with white chrysanthemums and bouquets of these blossoms and greenery decorated the serving tables. Mrs. Birdie Swearingen, Mrs. William Deatherage, Miss Jackie Pond and Mrs. Ed Singmaster, Ashland, served punch. Mrs. L. G. Frink and Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Ashland, poured coffee and tea. Mrs. W. Berthold Barnum Jr. took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Orrin L. Brown and Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Medford, Mrs. H. S. Ingle and Mrs. W. E. Bartlett, Ashland, cut the wedding cake.

Abby Green provided the reception music.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a dark green satin gown with black accessories and white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey wool dress with white accessories and white rosebud corsage.

Miss Brown Wed To Monte Ring

The bride traveled south for the wedding accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Draper and Mrs. Francis Ring. The bride is now making her home in Prospect.

Cordy-Buell Service Held

From Corvallis comes news of the wedding Sunday, December 22, of Miss Loleta May Buell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Buell of Roseburg, to Clifford B. Cordy Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cordy, Beall lane, Medford.

The ceremony took place in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ritchie, Corvallis. Poinsettias decorated the house for the double ring service read by the Rev. Robert Peters of Corvallis First Methodist church.

Given in marriage by Mr. Ritchie, the bride wore a white lace gown of ballerina length and a satin hat. She carried pink carnations.

Her attendant, Miss Carmen Cooper, Roseburg, wore a red taffeta ballerina gown and carried white blossoms.

Jack Rau, a Chi Phi fraternity brother of the bridegroom was best man.

The bride, a graduate of Roseburg high school, is a sophomore at Oregon State college. The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater high school and is a junior in the college of electrical engineering at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. Cordy were in Corvallis for the ceremony.

Home Rites In Medford Wed Couple

Miss Betty Joan Hersher became the bride of Leroy Nicholas Martin in a ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents Monday, December 23.

V. L. Hersher, an ordained minister of the First Christian church, Eugene, and uncle of the bride, officiated for the double ring ceremony held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hersher, 1255 Sweet road, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edith Martin, Portland.

The bride wore a gown of white chryseum with finger-tip veil held in place by a band of white flowers. She carried a cypridium orchid and white carnations over a white Bible. Her father gave her in marriage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marvin Martin, Portland, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Her gown was of pastel green and she wore a gardenia corsage. Marvin Martin was best man for his brother.

Baskets filled with cedar boughs and poinsettias decorated the home.

At the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. V. L. Hersher, Eugene, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Marvin Martin poured coffee and Mrs. Orpha Wendel, grandmother of the bride, was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Robert Meadows, the bride's sister, had charge of the guest book and presided at the gift table.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a golden brown tailored dress with yellow corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of navy blue and white, with a gardenia and carnation corsage.

For traveling the bride chose a dark green princess-style dress with black accessories.

Guests from out of town included J. D. Hersher, Eugene.

Following a brief honeymoon in California the young couple will be at home at 958 Polk street, Corvallis, where Mr. Martin is a freshman at Oregon State college.

The bride, a graduate of Medford high school, has been employed by the Medford Credit bureau.
