

Lacy Named Head For Lodge

Don Lacy, faculty member at Crater High school, was elected chancellor commander of Medford Knights of Pythias at a recent meeting.

Olaf Ohman was re-elected vice-chancellor; Daniel Kadin, prelate; James P. O'Duane, master of work; Ed Bostwick, secretary; Ora E. G. Myers, financial secretary; J. Baker Yarbrough, treasurer; LeRoy F. Cline, master at arms; Roland G. Beach, inner guard; Earl Locke, outer guard; and Joe W. Fritsch, publicity chairman.

Trustees are O'Duane, three years; Bostwick, two years; and Walter W. Ferguson of Central Point, one year.

The rank of Esquire was conferred upon a class of pages last Monday by the Knights of Pythias and the rank of Knight is scheduled for January 6. The group approved a check for membership in the Medford high band booster club.

The annual Christmas party of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters was held Dec. 23. Eighty adults and children attended the event which began with a potluck dinner followed by a program of carol singing.

Ed Mann portrayed Santa Claus and distributed candy and apples to the children, including the Pythian Sunshine Girls and Boy Scout troop 16 who were special guests. Mrs. Bostwick was in charge of the program.

Joint installation of the 1958 officers of the Knights and Pythian Sisters is tentatively set for Monday, January 13, with District Deputy Grand Chancellor Ray Newman, Grants Pass, as installing officer for the men and Past Chiefs Hazel Anderson and Isobel Thomas of Ashland for the women's group.

A meeting of the Knights of Pythias will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in the Pythian building. George Fisk and Baker Yarbrough are in charge of the coffee and social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Bigham

Bigham-Hansen Wedding Held at Church of Christ

Central Church of Christ was the setting Saturday, December 21, for the seven o'clock evening wedding of Miss Ellen Elizabeth Hansen and David W. Bigham. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen, route 3, box 86C1, Medford. Mr. Bigham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Bigham, 122 Bigham drive, Central Point.

John Bigham of the Church of Christ, Crescent City, Calif., officiated at the ceremony attended by more than 100 relatives and friends. Mr. Bigham is a brother of the bridegroom. John Hansen, brother of the bride, and George Caldwell, San Jose, were soloists. Miss Melody Pierce played the piano wedding music. Holly, greenery and candles decorated the church for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper gown with lace and her white veil fell from a beaded crown. She carried a gardenia corsage on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Albert Versic, Eureka, Calif., was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Miss Kathryn Wood and Mrs. John Bigham, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Crescent City. Mrs. Versic wore a blue frock and carried pink carnations. The attendants wore frocks of yellow and lavender and both carried white carnations. Little Lynn Versic was flower girl for her aunt and David Versic was ring bearer.

Larry Bigham, who was home on leave from the U. S. Air Force stationed in Mississippi, served as best man for his brother. Kenneth Bigham, cousin of the bridegroom, Sams Valley, and John Hansen, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Miss Beverly Beck cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Charlene Schrader presided at the punch bowl. Miss Jane Saunders was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hansen wore a grey gabardine dress with white accessories. Mrs. Bigham chose a pink knit suit with black accessories. They both had white carnation corsages.

The couple will make their home in San Jose, Calif., following a wedding trip to the coast. For her traveling attire the bride chose a peacock blue suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school.

Kaiser-Goode Ceremony Held At Eagle Point Bible Church

Eagle Point — Eagle Point Community Bible church was the setting Saturday, December 21, for the seven o'clock evening wedding of Miss Patricia Anne Goode and Michael James Kaiser. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goode, Shady Cove. Mr. Kaiser is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kaiser, Eagle Point.

The Rev. Joseph Munshaw officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony attended by 150 relatives and friends. Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and greenery decorated the church for the wedding. Yellow and white satin bows marked the pews. Decorations were by Mrs. William Shepherd and Mrs. Floyd Kelley. Mrs. Munshaw played the traditional organ wedding music and Mrs. Darwin Bevens, aunt of the bride, Prospect, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Chantilly lace over taffeta frock fashioned with tiered waltz length skirt and matching bolero. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Patti Clave was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Edna Gray and Miss Glenda Swanson. They wore nylon net frocks in pastel colors with matching bouquets of small yellow and white chrysanthemums. Little Debbie Bergren was flower girl and Michael Bevens, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Gary Kaiser served as best man for his brother while Neil Dusenberry and Monte Axtell, both Trail, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Pink and white carnations and ferns decorated the tables. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Nell Goode, Prospect, and Mrs. Zella Tullis, grandmothers of the bride, Miss Suzie Chubb, Miss Frances Johnson and Miss Linda Eccleston.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast the couple will live at Shady Cove. The bride attended Prospect elementary school and Eagle Point High school. The bridegroom attended Eagle Point High school and is employed by Steve Wilson Lumber company.

Actors Married In Arizona Rites

Phoenix, Ariz. — Movie stars Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner Jr. were married Saturday in nearby Scottsdale in ceremonies attended only by members of the couple's families and close friends. The bride wore a white lace gown with a cowl veil covering her head and shoulders.

The newlyweds left immediately to honeymoon in New York and Florida. Ceremonies were conducted by the Rev. Frank Knaus at the Scottsdale Methodist church.

The 19-year-old bride has just completed a motion picture titled "Kings Go Forth." Her maid of honor was actress Barbara Gould while the bridegroom's father was best man.

Fresh bread crumbs make a moist stuffing, day-old bread a medium-moist dressing and toasted crumbs make a dry crunchy type.
