Josephine Grange Supports Hospital

Eagle Point — Grants Pass Pomona Grange members passed a resolution Wednesday to support a plan proposed by the Eagle Point Grange to activate a Veterans Administration hospital at Camp White.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bitterling and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jones, Eagle Point Grange committee members, reported that the Josephine county Grangers gave enthusiastic support to the plan they presented.

They said they plan to contact Granges in Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and northern California and seek assistance in activating a 300-bed general and 100-bed surgical and medical hospital using buildings not now in use at the camp.

Bitterling said the Josephine Pomona Grange represented 11 groups in that county.

Clackamas Must Name Republican

Salem—Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton has ruled that the Clackamas county court is required to appoint a Republican to succeed Guy Pace, a Republican, who resigned as county clerk effective Wednesday.

The Clackamas county court already had appointed a Democrat to succeed Pace before District Attorney Winston Bradshaw requested the attorney general's opinion.

Thornton said the language of the 1953 political affiliation law was "clear and unambiguous and there is no necessity to resort to rules of construction."

Thornton said the law applied to any partisan elective office in the state and concluded "it is my opinion that the appointee must be of the same political party as the predecessor was designated on the election ballot."
