

Best-Dressed List Includes Queen Elizabeth First Time

New York — Queen Elizabeth II's whirlwind trip to the new world paid off today in fashion honors. For the first time in her life, she's "officially" a best-dressed woman.

The 32-year-old queen, who opened Canada's Parliament in her old coronation dress and then trotted out a new costume for each meal of her 10-day visit last October, was named to fourth place on the 12-place list compiled by the couture group of the New York Dress Institute.

She was still two steps behind the woman who put her in line for the throne. The Duchess of Windsor, a perennial best-dresser, tied for second this year with Mrs. Winston Guest, the former Lucy Cochrane of Boston.

But the Queen beat out for the first time both her younger sister, Princess Margaret, and her aunt, the Duchess of Kent, who have made the list in previous years, but didn't this year.

Meat, Rice, Cheese Used in Oven Dish

Frankfurters, rice and cheese combine well in Frankfurter Wishbones.

Put one cup uncooked white rice, 2 1/2 cups water, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon black pepper, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard and 1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper in a 2-quart saucepan. Mix well. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down low. Cover saucepan and leave over low heat about 14 minutes or until the water is absorbed. Remove from the heat but leave lid on 10 minutes. Stir in 4 strips of cooked bacon which have been chopped. Cut 8 frankfurters to resemble wishbones. To do this, cut lengthwise all the way through the frankfurter starting about 1 inch from one end to about 1/4 inch from the other end. If an end tears hold with a toothpick. Place frankfurters on a greased baking sheet. Place some rice mixture in each frankfurter. Sprinkle grated cheese over the rice mixture. Place in a pre-heated 350 degree Fahrenheit oven about 15 to 20 minutes or until the cheese melts and the frankfurters heat through. This recipe makes 8 servings.

Collections from 30 leading New York designers will be previewed in shows staged semi-annually by the couture group of the New York Dress Institute.
