Medford high's 1958 Teens Against Polio campaign is now under way. Among the projects planned is the queen's contest. Candidates, Myda McCabe, senior; Carol Leffler, junior; and Molly Barker, sophomore, each are collecting money for their respective classes. The candidate raising the most money will reign as TAP queen. More than 25 other projects are planned by the three classes.

Dr. Robert Buck, pathologist, presented a film, "Medical Technology," to the Future Nurses of America club at a meeting held Dec. 19 at 3 p.m. After the film, Dr. Buck answered questions concerning the profession of laboratory technology. He also stated that anyone with a special interest in this field could contact him at Sacred Heart hospital for an appointment to visit the hospital's laboratory.

Entries for the Saturday basketball league were placed in the coach's office recently. Interested boys grouped themselves into teams and registered their names. 3:30 p.m. Friday was the deadline for entry.

The cast for this year's senior play, "Father of the Bride" has been announced. It will be Mr. Banks, Jim Corum; Mrs. Banks, Sue Johnston; Timmy, Joe Lewis; Ben, Mike Forbes; Kay, Pam Cooksey; and Buckley, Dick Corum.

Others who have parts are Linda Smith, Carol McKown, Bob Gee, Milton Smith, Lynn Seager, Mary Pierce, Sheila Couey, and Jon Thompson. The play, a comedy, will be presented Feb. 13 and 14.

Operation Koodik is the name given the MHS track team's efforts to get in shape for the coming season. Those interested in track began preparation for the spring track competition recently. These workouts and conditioning consist of sessions of running, weight lifting and basketball.

Friday morning a pep assembly was held in the Boys' gym. The MHS rally squad led several yells and presented a short skit. The assembly ended with the fight song and Alma Mater.

"No Name Jive" was the name of the dance given at the YMCA Saturday night. The dance, a Teens Against Polio project, was presented by the sophomore class and all the money collected went to the class campaign. There was a good turnout of students.

Mission Meetings Set in Gold Hill

Gold Hill—A series of four mission meetings on Japan has been scheduled at the Gold Hill Community Methodist church for January, according to the Rev. Howard Walton, director of the commission on mission of the church.

The first session will begin with a potluck dinner in the church.

The first session will begin with a potluck dinner in the church dining room at 6:30 p.m. today. The Rev. Walton will direct the discussion of the study book at 7:30 p.m. A film strip entitled "From the Church Nishio" will also be shown at the first meeting.

A Japanese student from the Southern Oregon college will speak during the second study discussion scheduled for Sunday evening, Jan. 12, at the church. Mrs. Ogden Kellogg will be in charge of the lesson and discussion that evening.

"Fujita, orphan in Japan" is the title of the movie scheduled Jan. 19. The study and discussion that evening will be led by James Coward.

The series of meetings will conclude on Sunday, Jan. 26, with a potluck dinner featuring Japanese food, at 6:30 p.m. in the church dining room. Guest speaker that evening will be Dr. Robert Peterson of Grants Pass.

Wind Research To Aid Foresters

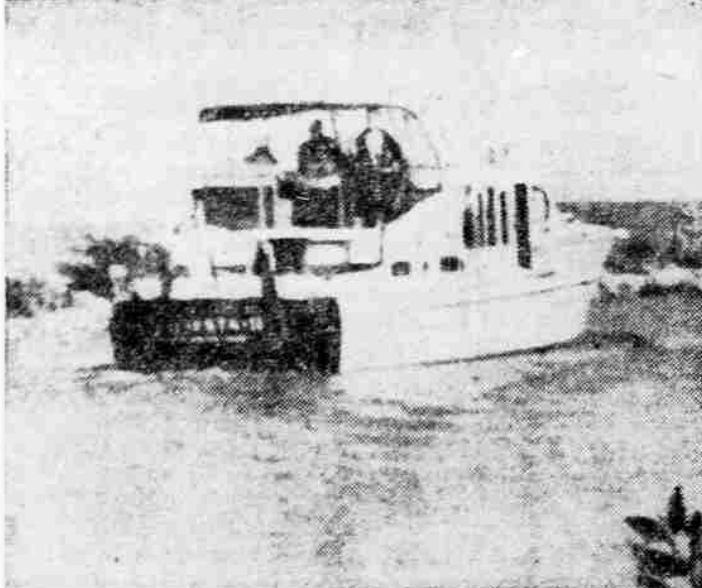

Salem — Development of a technique to predict local wind patterns was discussed by the interstate fire weather research group at a meeting here this week.

The group was formed to develop standard techniques in making fire weather surveys.

Surveys are being conducted to determine the effect of fire on local air-flow patterns so that predictions may be made toward the most effective use of fire fighting equipment.

Representatives from California and Oregon agencies attended the meeting.

PIRATED YACHT—This is the yacht Siesta II, a 40-foot boat belonging to Richard Sias of Winter Park, Fla., which was taken over by three teenage "pirates" who held Sias, his wife and four children captive. The boys boarded the yacht at Craig Key, south of Islamorada, Fla., and planned to head for Mexico. A message slipped to a fisherman alerted authorities who picked up the trio. The boys were believed to be aboard the yacht when this photo was taken.
