Home Rites In Medford Wed Couple

Miss Loretta May Darby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Darby, 43 North Peach street, Medford, became the bride of Charles Louis Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houston 1014 Maple Park drive, in a ceremony held Monday, December 23, at seven o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. Glenn S. Wade of Berean Baptist church, Camp White, officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 30 relatives and friends. Mrs. Fred Phillips, aunt of the bride, played the traditional wedding music. Evergreen trees and boughs and holly decorated the home for the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a white two piece frock with short veil held by a small lace head piece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Karen Houston, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride. She wore a turquoise colored dress with pink carnations.

Donald Raymond Kezer served as best man.

Following the wedding a reception was held. Mrs. Louise Corwin, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake baked by Miss June Phillips, aunt of the bride. Miss Dorothy Lemings poured the punch and Miss Edith Clark was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Darby wore a two-piece gray dress. Mrs. Houston chose a navy blue suit. They both had pink carnation corsages.

Following the wedding the couple left for a short trip to the coast. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and is serving with the United States Air Force in San Antonio, Texas. The bride is currently making her home in Medford and attending high school. She plans to join her husband when he is assigned to a permanent duty station.

Students Married in Afternoon Rites

Among holiday weddings was that of Miss Ann Padgham to Darrell Gueulette which took place December 28 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Padgham, Springfield road. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gueulette, Richmond, Calif.

The double-ring service was held at four o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. Thomas McCamant of First Congregational church, Medford, officiating. Mr. Padgham gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a ballerina length white lace gown and carried white orchids with white carnations. The orchids were grown by her uncle, D. J. Bolton, Medford. Miss Patricia Rukovina attended the bride. Her gown was a pink velveteen sheath and her flowers were a pink orchid with pink carnations.

William G. Padgham, Whittier, Calif., brother of the bride, was best man.

About 20 relatives and close friends attended the ceremony, and 40 were present for the reception which followed. Mrs. Bolton, the bride's aunt, cut the wedding cake, Mrs. William Christianson, Richmond, Calif., aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee, and Mrs. Richard Padgham, sister-in-law of the bride, served punch. The Richard Padghams came from Newport News, Va., for the wedding.

Baskets of pink snapdragons and white chrysanthemums decorated the Padgham home.

Mr. Gueulette and his bride traveled to San Francisco for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a gray wool dress with black accessories. They will live in Davis, Calif. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school, is a student at the University of California at Davis, and the bridegroom is a student in the School of Veterinary Medicine at Davis.

In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Christianson, Richmond.
