4 Cottage Grove Children Missing

Cottage Grove, Ore. (AP)—City and state police remained on the alert today for four Cottage Grove area children missing since New Year's Day. The youngsters are Geraldine Kay Williams, 13, June Marie Williams, 14, Lloyd Douglas Williams, 11, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Odus Williams; and Nancy Lee Whitted, 14, daughter of William H. Whitted, Cottage Grove.

The group was last seen by schoolmates as they walked north on Highway 99 near the edge of town last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Williams said they told one schoolmate they were "on their way to visit their grandmother," but that her children have no living grandparents. The woman also said that Geraldine Kay had told her earlier she might "run away to Portland." The Williams children have two aunts and an uncle in Portland, but the relatives said they had not seen the youngsters.

Fish Screen Nears Completion at Dam

Grants Pass—Only a high deck remains to be poured to complete installation of fish screens at Savage Rapids dam, according to O. H. Talbot, chairman of the board of the Grants Pass Irrigation district. The contractors, Peter Kiewit and Son, completed all low level concrete work on the screen structures before the last high water. Remaining work also includes installation of screens in the structure and placing metal grills on the screen openings, Talbot said.

Repair of the Pearce riffle revetment, which was washed out by the 1955 flood, has been completed. The revetment is designed to protect the gravity canal of the irrigation district.

UNUSUAL RESCUE

Syracuse, N.Y. (AP)—Syracuse Fire Department's rescue claim, led by Lt. J. Hess, can claim an unusual rescue. They answered an urgent call from the Navy, rushed to the Onondaga Lake docks and pumped the surging water from the Naval landing craft that had sprung a leak.

LONGSHOREMEN AID 'STARVING' MARINERS—Sympathetic San Francisco longshoremen line up in front of the Dutch freighter Cartago and her defiant crewmen (rear) after the dock workers raised money to buy food for the mariners. The crew, claiming it is receiving a "starvation diet," has refused to work and 29 of the 46 men are being paid off and are returning to Holland to take up the matter with their union. The trouble started Christmas day when the ship's skipper cut off the crew's beer supply after he decided they were drinking too much. When the ship docked the cook refused to cook and the crew refused to work. The trouble is costing the ship's charterers $5000 for each day the ship is delayed in port.

Second Cold Wave Sweeps Midwest

By UNITED PRESS
The second sub-zero cold wave of the new year surged into the upper Midwest and the outer fringe of the cold air pushed as far south as flood and snow battered Texas.

Weathermen said the colder air was expected to overspread most of the eastern half of the nation by tonight. The cold front brought clearing skies to Texas, enabling hundreds of families to return to their homes as floodwaters in the southern portion of the state receded.

The floods, stemming from a two-day rainfall of water that dumped up to eight inches of water on the Corpus Christi area, forced more than 1,500 persons from their homes Sunday and Monday.

Tax Group Slates Hearing in Eugene

Portland (AP)—Sen. Walter Pearson, Portland Democrat, announced today that his Legislative Interim Tax Committee will hold public hearings in Eugene Jan. 17 and 18, "to give interested persons an opportunity to testify and express themselves on Oregon's tax structure."

Pearson's committee was charged by the 1957 Legislature with the responsibility of preparing a tax program for the 1959 Legislature. The Portland senator said the committee plans to study the impact of Oregon's tax structure on individuals and corporations residing in or carrying on business within the state.

The Eugene hearings will be held in the Erb Memorial Union building on the University of Oregon campus and will be followed by similar hearings in other cities during the year.

Ward's Portland Store Picketed

Portland (AP)—Pickets carried signs urging a boycott of the Portland branch Montgomery Ward store here.

There was no strike against the Portland store but members of the Retail Clerks Union have struck some other stores in the nationwide chain. Union members continued to work in the store while the pickets marched in front of the building and handed out leaflets urging the public not to shop there.

The Portland Central Labor Council Monday night placed Montgomery Ward on its "do not patronize" list. The strike in other parts of the country was called after contract negotiations were stalled in Washington, D.C.

London (AP)—The Ballet de Paris was scheduled to dance "Le Rideau Rouge" tonight without its new Polish ballerina Olga Sawicka. The Polish consulate in Paris barred the 24-year-old star at the last minute from making the flight from Paris to London.

A leading dancer with the Warsaw Opera Ballet company, Miss Sawicka has been studying in Paris the last three months.
