

Pros, Ams Tee Off Thursday In Annual Crosby Clambake

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer
Pebble Beach, Calif.—The Crosby Clambake, once a neighborhood little $2,500 golf tournament down at Rancho Santa Fe near San Diego, joins the big leagues Thursday when the world's greatest professionals tee off with amateur partners in the chase for $50,000 in prizes.

This sometimes is the zaniest tournament on the circuit, but nobody ever has doubted its worthiness. In the 16 years it has been staged, Bing has been able to turn over to charity about $350,000. And he has shelved more than this himself in prize money and expenses.

But what makes the tournament different from the others in which the pros compete is the make-up of the amateur partners.

All Walks Of Life

From all walks of sporting life they come to help out Bing and his charities. From the movies, television, radio, baseball, basketball, football, boxing, hockey and what-have-you.

Some of the pros used to look down their noses at this event because they did not care to be playing with amateurs, such as Bob Hope who might be asking the audience: "Wonder what the political situation is in Patagonia?" while the pro is attempting to sink a putt worth $2,000.

Mostly, however, the amateurs from other fields take the game just as seriously as the professionals.

The Monterey area, in which Pebble Beach is located, is a hotbed of golf. There are five courses within walking distance of each other—and the Monterey area people probably know more about golf etiquette than any place this side of St. Andrews, Scotland.

But the fans who come from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities 100 miles or so away aren't exactly golf bugs.

The Others

Some of them are from the boxing world and they come out to see how far Jimmy McLarnin can belt a ball; or they may be stage-struck youngsters who want to see Hoagy Carmichael or Dennis O'Keefe in action; or baseball fans who want to see if Ralph Kiner can clout a hit ball as far as he used to hit baseballs.

So very often they talk or laugh while the players are lining up a tee shot; or they may tramp through a sand trap while hurrying to get a closer glimpse of a cinema star.

But all through the tournament good humor prevails—with Hope and Crosby daily putting on an act that night clubs would pay big money to corner but which they donate in the interests of charity.

Some of the pros used to look down their noses at this event because they did not care to be playing with amateurs, such as Bob Hope who might be asking the audience: "Wonder what the political situation is in Patagonia?" while the pro is attempting to sink a putt worth $2,000.

Mostly, however, the amateurs from other fields take the game just as seriously as the professionals.

The Monterey area, in which Pebble Beach is located, is a hotbed of golf. There are five courses within walking distance of each other—and the Monterey area people probably know more about golf etiquette than any place this side of St. Andrews, Scotland.

But the fans who come from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities 100 miles or so away aren't exactly golf bugs.

The Others

Some of them are from the boxing world and they come out to see how far Jimmy McLarnin can belt a ball; or they may be stage-struck youngsters who want to see Hoagy Carmichael or Dennis O'Keefe in action; or baseball fans who want to see if Ralph Kiner can clout a hit ball as far as he used to hit baseballs.

So very often they talk or laugh while the players are lining up a tee shot; or they may tramp through a sand trap while hurrying to get a closer glimpse of a cinema star.

But all through the tournament good humor prevails—with Hope and Crosby daily putting on an act that night clubs would pay big money to corner but which they donate in the interests of charity.

Some of the pros used to look down their noses at this event because they did not care to be playing with amateurs, such as Bob Hope who might be asking the audience: "Wonder what the political situation is in Patagonia?" while the pro is attempting to sink a putt worth $2,000.

Mostly, however, the amateurs from other fields take the game just as seriously as the professionals.

The Monterey area, in which Pebble Beach is located, is a hotbed of golf. There are five courses within walking distance of each other—and the Monterey area people probably know more about golf etiquette than any place this side of St. Andrews, Scotland.

But the fans who come from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities 100 miles or so away aren't exactly golf bugs.

The Others

Some of them are from the boxing world and they come out to see how far Jimmy McLarnin can belt a ball; or they may be stage-struck youngsters who want to see Hoagy Carmichael or Dennis O'Keefe in action; or baseball fans who want to see if Ralph Kiner can clout a hit ball as far as he used to hit baseballs.

So very often they talk or laugh while the players are lining up a tee shot; or they may tramp through a sand trap while hurrying to get a closer glimpse of a cinema star.

But all through the tournament good humor prevails—with Hope and Crosby daily putting on an act that night clubs would pay big money to corner but which they donate in the interests of charity.

Some of the pros used to look down their noses at this event because they did not care to be playing with amateurs, such as Bob Hope who might be asking the audience: "Wonder what the political situation is in Patagonia?" while the pro is attempting to sink a putt worth $2,000.

Mostly, however, the amateurs from other fields take the game just as seriously as the professionals.

The Monterey area, in which Pebble Beach is located, is a hotbed of golf. There are five courses within walking distance of each other—and the Monterey area people probably know more about golf etiquette than any place this side of St. Andrews, Scotland.

But the fans who come from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities 100 miles or so away aren't exactly golf bugs.

The Others

Some of them are from the boxing world and they come out to see how far Jimmy McLarnin can belt a ball; or they may be stage-struck youngsters who want to see Hoagy Carmichael or Dennis O'Keefe in action; or baseball fans who want to see if Ralph Kiner can clout a hit ball as far as he used to hit baseballs.

So very often they talk or laugh while the players are lining up a tee shot; or they may tramp through a sand trap while hurrying to get a closer glimpse of a cinema star.

But all through the tournament good humor prevails—with Hope and Crosby daily putting on an act that night clubs would pay big money to corner but which they donate in the interests of charity.

Some of the pros used to look down their noses at this event because they did not care to be playing with amateurs, such as Bob Hope who might be asking the audience: "Wonder what the political situation is in Patagonia?" while the pro is attempting to sink a putt worth $2,000.

Mostly, however, the amateurs from other fields take the game just as seriously as the professionals.

The Monterey area, in which Pebble Beach is located, is a hotbed of golf. There are five courses within walking distance of each other—and the Monterey area people probably know more about golf etiquette than any place this side of St. Andrews, Scotland.

But the fans who come from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities 100 miles or so away aren't exactly golf bugs.

The Others

Some of them are from the boxing world and they come out to see how far Jimmy McLarnin can belt a ball; or they may be stage-struck youngsters who want to see Hoagy Carmichael or Dennis O'Keefe in action; or baseball fans who want to see if Ralph Kiner can clout a hit ball as far as he used to hit baseballs.

So very often they talk or laugh while the players are lining up a tee shot; or they may tramp through a sand trap while hurrying to get a closer glimpse of a cinema star.

But all through the tournament good humor prevails—with Hope and Crosby daily putting on an act that night clubs would pay big money to corner but which they donate in the interests of charity.

Some of the pros used to look down their noses at this event because they did not care to be playing with amateurs, such as Bob Hope who might be asking the audience: "Wonder what the political situation is in Patagonia?" while the pro is attempting to sink a putt worth $2,000.

Mostly, however, the amateurs from other fields take the game just as seriously as the professionals.

The Monterey area, in which Pebble Beach is located, is a hotbed of golf. There are five courses within walking distance of each other—and the Monterey area people probably know more about golf etiquette than any place this side of St. Andrews, Scotland.

But the fans who come from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities 100 miles or so away aren't exactly golf bugs.

The Others

Some of them are from the boxing world and they come out to see how far Jimmy McLarnin can belt a ball; or they

Smart Sets Point Pace In PC Loop

Los Angeles — Doug Smart, 6-foot, 7-inch center for Washington, today led the Pacific Coast conference in scoring with an average of 19.5 points in two league games.

The 21-year-old junior, a one-year letterman from Seattle, topped the league scoring statistics released by the PCC office with a total of 39 points in two games. Little Monte Gonzales, sharpshooting senior guard from the University of Southern California, led the league in total points with 51, but they were spread over three games. He had a 17-point average.

Smart was trailed by Oregon State guard Jim Ross, 18.5 in two games; UCLA center Ben Rogers, 17.5 in two games; Oregon State forward Dave Gambee, 17 in two tilts and Gonzales.

So far this season Gonzales has attempted 41 field goals and made 20 of them for a 48.8 average, while Smart had made 15 of 34 attempts for a 44.2 mark.

Burk Tops Average
Oregon State's guard Burke, who hit 8 of 15 tries for field goals, led the PCC with the best average of 53.3, followed by Washington State's Dick Axelson, Stanford's Dick Hagg and Idaho's Hal Damiano, who hit half of the time.

Ken Nanson of OSC had a nearly perfect free-throw mark, making 11 of 12 attempts for a 91.8 mark. Paul Neumann of Stanford was next with .889, and Oregon's Charles Rask followed with .833.

Gary McEwen, senior guard from Idaho, topped the PCC standings with 36 rebounds recovered with a 219 percentage. Next was forward Dave Gambee of OSC with 31 and a 214 mark, trailed by center Hal Duff of Oregon, 17 for 207, and Smart, 25 for 169.

In team statistics, Idaho was the leader in scoring with an average of 72 points in two games. Southern California, the PCC leader with a 3-0 record, was second with 70 points.

Washington State was next with a 64.5 average, followed by UCLA, 62.5; Oregon State, 61.5; Oregon, 58; Stanford, 55; California, 50, and Washington, 49.5.

Joseph Stops Gipson in Bout
Portland — Lou Joseph of Kent, Wash., knocked out Ernie Gipson of Seattle in the second round of a scheduled eight-round televised fight here Tuesday night.

In other bouts Billy Cox, Vancouver, knocked out Johnny Green, Portland in three; Billy Millstein, Seattle, knocked out Harold Nelson, Portland, in four; Johnny Wright, Portland, decisioned Joe King, Seattle, and Harvey Burk decisioned Hugh Williams of Portland.

Bowling
PHILADELPHIA — Ted Kluszewski, one-time Cincinnati slugger acquired recently by the Pittsburgh Pirates, will undergo a complete physical examination sometime next week. Kluszewski has been suffering with an ailing back for the last year and a half.

Hart, Baker Vie In 10-Rounder
Chicago — Garnett (Sugar) Hart and Larry Baker, a pair of welterweights dissatisfied with their last outings, meet tonight in a televised 10-rounder at the Chicago stadium.

Hart, a 20-year-old Philadelphia, ruled a slight favorite to defeat the 26-year-old New Yorker and move up a notch in the NBA ladder. The January ratings put Hart in the No. 9 spot and Baker at No. 8.

SPORTS

WITH GENERALS — Bill Scott, above, is one of the mainstays with the Washington, D. C., Generals who will oppose the Harlem Globetrotters at Hedrick Junior high gym on Friday night, Jan. 17. Scott, a guard, is six feet, two inches tall, weighs 180 pounds and played basketball at Western Kentucky University. Tickets are on sale at Lamport's in Medford.

Seattleites Keep Spots

St. Petersburg, Fla. — Two Seattle, Wash., players led the way into the third day of the West Coast Tennis championships today as all seeded players easily maintained their positions.

Bill Quilliam, second seeded in the men's division, and Janet Hobbs, first seeded in the women's division, both from Seattle, posted easy victories Tuesday.

Quilliam defeated Jim Vuille of St. Petersburg, 6-0, 6-1, and Miss Hobbs defeated Vuille's wife, Janet, 6-0, 6-1.

Third seeded Armando Vieira of Brazil eliminated George Lytleton-Rogers of Los Angeles, former Irish Cup player, 6-1, 6-3.

Tony Vincent of New York fourth seeded, downed Elon Ekman of Sweden, 6-4, 6-3. Jack Frost of Monterey, Cal., fifth seeded, defeated Thomas Hallberg of Sweden, 6-0, 6-2.

In the women's division, second-seeded Louise Felix of Boston defeated 10-year-old Gloria Jean Sullivan of St. Petersburg, 6-0, 6-0, and third seeded Maria Bueno, an 18-year-old Brazilian, downed Stella Cunningham of St. Petersburg, 6-1, 6-1.

PHYSICAL FOR KLU
Pittsburgh — Ted Kluszewski, one-time Cincinnati slugger acquired recently by the Pittsburgh Pirates, will undergo a complete physical examination sometime next week. Kluszewski has been suffering with an ailing back for the last year and a half.

Crater Frosh Rap Rogue River
Central Point — Crater high freshmen tumbled Rogue River 73 to 36 last night in a basketball fracas.

The Comet five had 22 to 12, 40 to 20 and 56 to 28 leads at the quarters. Gary Romine had 15 points and Dennis Edwards and Loyal Higinbotham each 14 for Crater and Laws 14 for Rogue River.

Crater headed backboard retrieving 59 to 20 with Bryson LaCasse getting 20 and Edwards 11 rebounds.

LINE-UPS:
Crater — Laws 14, Romine 15, Fisher, Nielsen, Allen, Martin, Hogue, for Crater; Rogue — Ross, Van Dorn, LeRoy 2, Dennis 4, White 2.

FUTURE UNCERTAIN
Philadelphia — The annual football series between Navy and the University of Pennsylvania will be continued through 1960 at Franklin field but arrangements after that are contingent on mutual scheduling problems, it was announced Tuesday in a joint statement by Jerry Ford and Capt. Slade Cutter, athletic directors of the two schools.

Oklahoma Tips Kansas Sans Stilt

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Wilt Chamberlain's groin injury is supposed to be minor but it has his Kansas teammates hurtin' all over today for the second time in a week.

The Jayhawks suffered their second straight defeat since the great seven-foot star was sidelined when they bowed to Oklahoma, 64-62, Tuesday night. The loss hurt Kansas even more than last Thursday's 52-50 setback by Oklahoma State because it was the opener of its Big Eight schedule.

But, once again, a defeat demonstrated graphically just how much Chamberlain does mean to Kansas.

The figures tell the story. Wilt scored 30 points when Kansas beat Oklahoma State, 63-56, Dec. 2. Without Wilt, Kansas bowed to the same team by two points Jan. 2. And, on Dec. 26, Chamberlain poured in 41 points and grabbed 20 rebounds as Kansas whipped Oklahoma, 68-50.

North Carolina's third-ranked Tarheels whipped William and Mary, 79-63, and Texas Tech beat Texas Christian in a key Southwest Conference game, 83-70, in other top games Tuesday night.

Rice's towering Owls made good on seven free throws in the last three minutes to edge out Southern Methodist, 78-74, in another Southwest conference game at Houston, Tex.

In other games, St. John's of New York remained unbeaten with an 87-64 triumph over Rhode Island, St. Peter's of New Jersey downed St. Francis of New York, 92-66, Richmond edged out The Citadel, 54-50, Virginia beat Virginia Tech, 80-65, LaSalle defeated Muhlenberg, 67-61, and Texas A&M scored a 71-50 victory over Texas University.

Crater Frosh Rap Rogue River

Central Point — Crater high freshmen tumbled Rogue River 73 to 36 last night in a basketball fracas.

The Comet five had 22 to 12, 40 to 20 and 56 to 28 leads at the quarters. Gary Romine had 15 points and Dennis Edwards and Loyal Higinbotham each 14 for Crater and Laws 14 for Rogue River.

Crater headed backboard retrieving 59 to 20 with Bryson LaCasse getting 20 and Edwards 11 rebounds.

LINE-UPS:
Crater — Laws 14, Romine 15, Fisher, Nielsen, Allen, Martin, Hogue, for Crater; Rogue — Ross, Van Dorn, LeRoy 2, Dennis 4, White 2.

FUTURE UNCERTAIN
Philadelphia — The annual football series between Navy and the University of Pennsylvania will be continued through 1960 at Franklin field but arrangements after that are contingent on mutual scheduling problems, it was announced Tuesday in a joint statement by Jerry Ford and Capt. Slade Cutter, athletic directors of the two schools.

PAL BOXERS OPPOSE TYC TEAM TONIGHT

The weatherman has forecast favorable conditions this evening for fight fans who wish to motor to the Esquire theater for the Medford Police Athletic League boxing card.

A 12-bout program beginning at 8 p.m. is planned in PAL's fisty show of the new season. PAL boxers will square off against rivals from the Talent Youth center. It will be a rematching of the two clubs who met last month in a card at Talent.

Box office at the theater will open at 7 p.m. Both reserved and general admission seats are being sold. A number of choice reserve seats were left this morning.

Double Main
Bob Little of PAL and Dave Parker of TYC will be foes in one of the double main event attractions. The other top-placed tussle will put Bo Brown of PAL against Jerry Loper of TYC. Both are return matches.

The seating at the Esquire theater on Main at Bear creek bridge recently was adjusted for boxing and wrestling presentations.

TONIGHT'S CARD:
125—Bobby Little, PAL, vs Dave Parker, Talent.
150—Bo Brown, PAL, vs Jerry Loper, Talent.
150—Buddy Smith, PAL, vs Jerry Loper, Talent.
150—Johnny Imus, PAL, vs Dick Bates, Talent.
125—George Aoki, PAL, vs Rollie Weiburn, Talent.
120—Johnny Little, PAL, vs Dave Grimes, Talent.
110—Harvey Pamplin, Talent, vs Doug Batten, PAL.
105—Billy Thomas, PAL, vs Dave Westfall, Talent.
90—Danny Taylor, PAL, vs Ivan Lockwood, Talent.
85—Mike Rogers, PAL, vs Skip Moore, Talent.
85—Brian Young, PAL, vs Dick Jennings, Talent.
75—Bill Batten, PAL, vs Jerry Cuthbert, Talent.
70—Joe Bill Cowan, PAL, vs Leslie Tykesen, Talent.
70—Keenan Smith, PAL, vs Kenney Kerrs, Talent.
60—Jimmy Jones, PAL, vs Danny Grimes, Talent.

Talent Stays Unmarried; Loggers Need Overtimes

Unmarried Talent claimed its fifth straight victory in the Jackson County B Basketball league in a romp last night but Butte Falls high had a much harder chore in maintaining second place in the Talent's Bulldogs thumped Prospect 73 to 33. The Loggers of Butte Falls required two overtimes to get by Jacksonville 41 to 39 for their fourth league verdict.

Dean Smith's 10-foot jumper two minutes into the second and sudden death extra period was the margin of Butte Falls decision. The game came close to being a Jacksonville triumph. The Redskins were on top with 37 to 35 with just seconds in regulation playing time remaining but a Mike Conley shot for the Loggers tied up the contest. Ken Perreard of Jacksonville and Conley put in buckets in the first overtime.

Combs Scores
Jacksonville headed 6 to 4 at the quarter. Then Butte Falls fought to a 20 to 12 spread at halftime, widest gap of the night. The Redskins put in 10 straight points while holding BF scoreless in the third panel to go on top 22 to 20. Jacksonville had a four point lead in the third session and was on top 28 to 26 at the end of the period.

Jim Irwin recorded 19 points and Conley 14 for Butte Falls and Perreard 14 for Jacksonville.

Talent had 21 to 7, 35 to 23 and 51 to 23 quarterly edges. Phil Combs with 30

Presidio Clips OTI Owls Again

Klamath Falls — The Army's Presidio team of San Francisco held Oregon Tech to only 8 points in the second half Tuesday night to rack up its second straight win over the collegians, 51-28.

The Presidio used a full-court press and ball control to win easily.

1957 Coach Prize Goes To Woody

Philadelphia — Vice President Richard M. Nixon was guest speaker at a luncheon today at which the Scripps-Howard newspapers presented a coach of the year award to Wayne Woodrow (Woody) Hayes, of Ohio State.

The presentation to Hayes, who engineered Ohio State to a 19-7 victory over Oregon State in the Rose Bowl on New Year's day, was made by Jack Howard, president of the newspaper group.

The luncheon was sponsored jointly by the Scripps-Howard papers and the American Football Coaches association meeting here in connection with the 52nd annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic association.

Coach (Bud) Wilkinson of Oklahoma succeeded Lefty James of Cornell as president of the RAFCOA at the function.

A report to the NCAA by the committee on infractions said that member schools and coaches appear to be cooperating to a higher degree with NCAA regulations and enforcement.

The committee, headed by A. D. Kurland, faculty representative at the University of Kentucky, felt it "significant" that the past summer was the "quietest" since the inauguration of the present NCAA enforcement program six years ago.

"By quietest, I mean that there were fewer complaints of alleged violations filed with our committee . . . and those complaints . . . for the most part, alleged less critical violations," Kurland said.

The committee said it believes that penalties to be imposed for violations should have a "bite" to them since experience has shown that modest penalties are not effective deterrents.

Locked-in Driver Causes Traffic Jam

Philadelphia — Horn-blinking autos were in a mile-long traffic jam Tuesday night before someone got out and investigated the empty car at the head of the line.

The driver had crawled into the car trunk for his tire chains and the door had closed, locking him in.

There were 42 keys on the chain in the car's front seat. The 38th one got him out.

SEE THE DKW

Only 7 Moving Parts In Engine
Up to 35 Miles Per Gallon
Front Wheel Drive
COMPARE
★ Roominess ★ Economy
★ Initial Cost ★ Looks
Keith Schulz Garage
116 N. Front - Ph. 5P 2-4756

QUICK CLICKS—Smiley Quick of Los Angeles tips his hat to the gallery after holing out on the 18th green to take the lead in the opening round of the $40,000 Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament. He finished the round with a four under par 67.

Rigney Sees Giants Much Improved Over Past Year

(This is the last of 18 dispatches on the off-season outlook of each major league club for 1958, written by the managers of each club.)

By BILL RIGNEY
Manager of San Francisco Giants

Written for the United Press
Walnut Creek, Calif.—I don't go for making predictions but I'll venture this one—the San Francisco Giants will be a much improved club over last year's sixth-place New York Giants and there are at least two reasons why.

For one, the entire team could catch fire with renewed fan interest setting the spark just as the old Boston Braves did after moving to Milwaukee.

And if either Orlando Cepeda comes through at first base or Willie Kirkland in the outfield, we'll be even tougher. They are our top rookies.

Sure, there is a hole at catching. That was created when Wes Westrum became one of our coaches. We have some deals in the offing but mentioning names isn't a part of my policy either.

Overall, I'd say our pitching should be better next season, the infield seems solid and we have an old guy named Hank Sauer in left field who also may have a top notch season now that he is playing in a cooler climate.

As for Willie Mays, he is going to get a lot more extra base hits in Seals stadium than he did in the Polo Grounds where much of his power was swallowed up in left center.

Now let's talk about the pitching. There's no reason why Johnny Antonelli should not bounce back from last season's disappointment when he finished with 12-18. He's only 27 and a good, strong guy.

Ruben Gomez had a fine season and should win 20 next year. He has all the ability in the world. And I'd like to see Mary Grissom have one more good year such as the last one.

Among the kids, I'm pretty enthusiastic about lefthander Mike McCormick and Curt Barclay. McCormick still has a year to stay with us as a bonus player although he might just as easily stick around because he earned it. Barclay had a fair year with us as a freshman and owns a fine sinker. Another guy with ability is Ray Crone, who is always tough against the Dodgers.

As for catching, although we have deals in the fire, we also have a fine youngster in Bob Schmidt who was with Minneapolis last season. You may be hearing a lot about him next season if he lives up to his potential. We also

Three Dropped From OCE Club

Monmouth — Three varsity basketball players were declared ineligible at Oregon College of Education Tuesday because of scholastic difficulties, Registrar Jack Morton said.

They included Bob Woods, DeWayne Crabb and Todd Sloan. Four players also were dropped from the JV squad.

OCE opens conference play against Southern Oregon here this weekend.

Hart, Baker Vie In 10-Rounder

Chicago — Garnett (Sugar) Hart and Larry Baker, a pair of welterweights dissatisfied with their last outings, meet tonight in a televised 10-rounder at the Chicago stadium.

Hart, a 20-year-old Philadelphia, ruled a slight favorite to defeat the 26-year-old New Yorker and move up a notch in the NBA ladder. The January ratings put Hart in the No. 9 spot and Baker at No. 8.

PHYSICAL FOR KLU
Pittsburgh — Ted Kluszewski, one-time Cincinnati slugger acquired recently by the Pittsburgh Pirates, will undergo a complete physical examination sometime next week. Kluszewski has been suffering with an ailing back for the last year and a half.

Crater Frosh Rap Rogue River
Central Point — Crater high freshmen tumbled Rogue River 73 to 36 last night in a basketball fracas.

The Comet five had 22 to 12, 40 to 20 and 56 to 28 leads at the quarters. Gary Romine had 15 points and Dennis Edwards and Loyal Higinbotham each 14 for Crater and Laws 14 for Rogue River.

People say HFC's money service is outstanding

One friend tells another about Household's prompt, courteous and businesslike service. In fact, 2 out of 3 new customers are referred to HFC by old customers. You may borrow up to $1500 with confidence from America's oldest and most experienced consumer finance company.

Modern money service backed by 80 years of experience

HOUSEHOLD FINANCE
Corporation of Medford
128 E. Main St., 2nd Floor
PHONE: SPring 3-5301

DRIVE-IN PHONE
Syracuse, N.Y. — Keith S. McHugh, president of the New York Telephone Co., says a coming development is a drive-in telephone booth for busy motorists.

Don't sign the dotted line until you've driven a Plymouth at Dick Knight Co. 33 So. Riverside at 8th St.

PRICES START AT $1998.00 WITH $498.00 DOWN