

Bookmark Design Has Mass Appeal

BOOKS ARE GOOD FRIENDS!
TREAT THEM WELL!

To lay me on my face,
alack!
Will very likely break
my back!

To crease the corner of the page Adds much too early to my age.

So use this slip to mark your place
And keep the bright look only my face!

The original bookmark now being distributed among patrons of the Medford Public Library and its Jackson county library agencies is soon to be published for sale to libraries throughout the country, according to word received by Librarian Helen Webster recently.

The Sturgis Library Products company of Sturgis, Mich., has notified Miss Webster of its wish to use her design on bookmarks of their manufacturer.

Current supplies of the reader's aid were reproduced by multilith process in the city's reproduction department by Don Kent. Their popularity among library borrowers brought requests from other libraries for supplies large enough for distribution to their readers, and these led Miss Webster to submit her verse and design to the library supply house. The printed bookmarks will be available early in the spring, according to the manufacturer.
