Ceremony In Oakland Weds Couple

A wedding of interest here was held Saturday, December 28, at Our Lady of Lourdes church in Oakland, Calif., when Miss Loretta Marian Michaels became the bride of Forest Allen Van Vleck Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest A. Van Vleck, 1618 East Jackson avenue, Medford. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George D. Michaels, Oakland.

The Rev. John Cosgrove officiated at the noon ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of tissue taffeta with lace bodice. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses encircling a white orchid. She wore heirloom pearls originally belonging to the maternal grandmother of the bridegroom.

Miss Alanna Michaels was maid of honor for her sister while bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Miller and Miss Mary Ann Michaels, another sister. They wore royal blue satin sheath dresses with matching velvet headpieces, and carried bouquets of light and dark pink carnations and dark blue forget-me-nots.

Richard Van Vleck served as best man for his brother while Harry Michaels, San Jose, and Alex Revaz Jr., Placerville, Calif., seated the guests.

Monroe Kanouse, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was soloist.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Michaels wore a blue gray brocade satin sheath with light blue satin hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of baby red roses. Mrs. Van Vleck chose a medium blue silk suit dress with white accessories and a corsage of white butterfly orchids.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds are making their home in San Francisco following a wedding trip to northern California. The bride is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley where she was affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority. The bridegroom is also a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity.

Summer Wedding Planned by Pair

The engagement of Miss Marcia Melita Beeler to Gerald Darland was announced during the holiday season by the parents of the bride-elect Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Beeler, 610 Whitman place, Medford. Mr. Darland is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darland Jr., 922 Park avenue, Medford.

Miss Beeler and Mr. Darland are graduates of St. Mary's High school and are students at Southern Oregon college.

A late summer wedding is planned by the couple. Following their marriage they plan to continue their college studies in southern California.

Music Teacher Speaks for Group

Miss Helen Robinson from the music department at Southern Oregon college spoke on the qualifications of students entering college music training from private studios at the meeting of Rogue Valley Music Teachers association. The meeting was held January 6 at the home of Mrs. Rawley Moore.

The group decided to sponsor a program for music teachers who wish to present their pupils in recital. The event will be held in April at the college.

Plans were made for a state syllabus and state audition examination to be held at Southern Oregon college in May.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Edna Peterson, Ashland. Louis Clayton, teacher at Southern Oregon college, will be guest soloist. All music teachers are invited to attend.

Engagement Announced to Sorority Chapter

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Celia Clogston, Medford, to Norman Boyd Dunford, Eagle Point, was made at the University of Oregon chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority Monday, January 7. Miss Clogston is a daughter of Frank H. Clogston, Central Point, and granddaughter of Mrs. F. W. Clogston, 1840 Stage Road south, Medford, with whom she makes her home. Mr. Dunford is a son of Mrs. Norman A. Dunford, Eagle Point, and the late Mr. Dunford.

Miss Clogston, who is vice-president of the sorority chapter, made the announcement to sorority sisters during the dinner hour. She presented chapter members with clusters of daisies with the couple's names attached, and the table centerpiece was of daisies with the words, "Daisies Do Tell."

The wedding is planned for next summer. Miss Clogston was graduated from Medford High school and will be a member of the 1958 University of Oregon graduating class. She is majoring in art education and is a member of Pi Lambda Theta, national honor society for women in education.

Mr. Dunford was graduated from Eagle Point High school, has attended Oregon State college and is now enrolled in the School of Architecture of the University of Oregon.
