

Goupil-Deets Ceremony Takes Place in Gold Hill

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goupil are making their home at 14587 Oak street in Saratoga, Calif. following a wedding trip along the Oregon coast.

Mrs. Goupil is the former Dena Deets, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd W. Jones, 1036 Sixth avenue, Gold Hill. The wedding was held Thursday, January 2, at Gold Hill Community Methodist church. The Rev. Howard Walton, pastor of the church officiated at the double-ring ceremony, held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and attended by 45 relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a powder blue knit suit, with brimless white satin hat, and white accessories. Her corsage was a white chrysanthemum with white stock florets. The pearl and amethyst lavalier she wore was loaned by her mother and had been a gift to Mrs. Jones from Mr. Jones before their marriage in April 1918.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Woodrow Nealy, Grants Pass, sister of the bride. Mrs. Nealy wore a coral knit suit, with white accessories. Her corsage was a coral-brown cypripedium orchid.

Candlelighter was Betty Jo Nealy, Grants Pass, ten-year-old niece of the bride. Her dress was light pink sheer with a black velvet sash.

The bride's brother, Wendall Jones, Detroit, Ore. served as best man for the bridegroom. Usher was Paul Fournier, Saratoga, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Norman Gail was soloist and Mrs. John Bruce played the organ.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with lavender to rose shades of chrysanthemums and lighted white tapers held in white candelabra. White wedding bells and white bows decorated the wall behind the altar and bows of white ribbon and fern were at the pew ends.

Each window in the church held a white wedding bell arranged with wild sword fern. Pink acacia and pink tapers in white holders on the piano completed the decorations.

A reception was given by the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony in the social room of the church. They were assisted by several women from the Woman's society of the church, of which Mrs. Jones is president. Tapers in silver holders flanked the cake, made by Mrs. Roy Eskew. Miss Myrtice Nealy, Grants Pass, niece of the bride took charge of the guest book and gift table. Mrs. Paul Fournier, Saratoga, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Paul Throne poured coffee and Mrs. Wendall Jones, Detroit, sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Jones wore a dress of blue and gray printed crepe with gray accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Society members in charge of the church decorations were Mrs. Hal Bishop, Mrs. Frank Carter and Mrs. Mel-

Hornbrook Is Home of Newlyweds

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shinar are at home here following their marriage December 16 at the Little Country Church of Hollywood, Calif. The bride, the former Mrs. Patsy Pickard Harlowe, is the daughter of Mrs. Ernest Pickard Sr. and the late Mr. Pickard, who were residents of Hornbrook for a number of years. Mrs. Pickard and her son Carl recently moved to Los Angeles.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shinar of Hornbrook.

For her wedding, the bride chose a ballerina length gown styled with a pale pink jersey bodice and a bouffant skirt of pink net over satin. With this she wore a sequin hat in pink with a brief veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with a lavender orchid.

She was given in marriage by Paul Harris of Los Angeles, a long-time family friend.

Mrs. Paul Harris, the bride's sole attendant, wore a grey taffeta frock with fuchsia accessories and an orchid corsage.

Carl Pickard, the bride's brother, served as best man. The ceremony was attended by close friends and relatives only, among them being the bride's mother.

After spending a few days in Hollywood with friends, the young couple returned to Hornbrook where they and Debbie and Jackie Harlowe, the bride's children are making their home.

The newlyweds attended grammar school here, and are graduates of Yreka High school. The bridegroom also attended Chico State college. Mrs. Shinar is employed as the deputy city clerk at the city hall in Yreka. Her husband is an employee of the Black Mountain Lumber Company in Hornbrook.

Program Planned For Eagle Point PTSA Meeting

Eagle Point—A program in three parts will be presented by students and their instructors for the January meeting of Eagle Point High School Parent-Teacher-Student association. It will be held Wednesday, January 15, in the high school library at 8 p.m.

Gail Schoppert will present students from his tumbling classes in a demonstration as part of the evening's program. A preview of the operetta, "Singing Freshmen," will be given under the direction of Charles Martin, music instructor. The operetta will be presented January 16.

Students representatives who recently attended the governor's convention of the Youth Council, will give a report and panel discussion on the Oregon code for high school students which was presented at that time. The code is concerned with curfew laws, and the sale of alcoholic beverages and tobacco to minors, among other rules and recommendations. The panelists will have question and answer period, with adult participation, following the report.

Students on the panel will be Duane Anderson, Sandy Farlow, Phyllis Briggs, Dick Scarable and Charles Jenks.

A baked food sale will be held at the meeting to help boost the treasury. Members are asked to bring something baked for home or freezer, and be prepared to purchase something to take home.

Meeting Scheduled In Central Point
Central Point — Christian circle of the Women's association of First Presbyterian church, Central Point, will meet Thursday, January 16, at 1 p.m. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Ethel Fleischer, 229 South Third street.
