

Clever arrangement presents a pretty picture while encouraging a smooth flow of guest traffic. High and low pieces of graceful dinnerware complement each other perfectly.

Serve Smartly the BUFFET WAY

THE POPULAR buffet is informal hospitality at its best. It frees the hostess from the multiple details of formal serving, and guests love to gather round and leisurely help themselves to the party fare.

Setting an original, different buffet board is easy—just let your imagination be your guide. So many attractive effects are created simply by re-arranging silver and china groupings, serving dishes, and accessories.

Particularly adaptable to buffet service is today's dinnerware. The blend of modern design with the grace of fine china strikes a happy balance of casual elegance. It's perfectly correct for formal dining, too.

The highlights of stainless-steel flatware and sharp accents of black-and-white china heighten the attractiveness of this buffet setting. Pastel flowers are in background.

This Was THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Choosing the right religion is a difficult and confusing problem.

And millions of people, while professing belief in God, choose no church at all.

This "neutral" attitude is not, however, a good answer to the question for any person who wants to be honest with himself. If you are among these uncertain ones, it is not a good solution for you when you stop to consider that the eternal destiny of your soul may depend upon your choice. And for anyone raising a family, the decision is a matter of special concern.

If you should decide to seek the answer, we hope that you will ask yourself this one question: "Why am I not a Catholic?"

First of all, the answer to this question will reveal, almost certainly, that your ancestors were Catholics—that your forefathers worshiped in the historic Church just as your Catholic friends and neighbors all around you are still worshipping today.

It may be difficult for you to trace your "family tree" back far enough to discover when or why your forebears ceased to follow the historic Faith. It may have been in eras of oppression, when imprisonment, confiscation of property and even death were among the penalties for holding true to the Faith. Possibly it happened during the sixteenth-century revolt against the Church. Or it might have been due to a marriage outside the Church, to a lack of religious interest, or even to some disagreement which you would instantly recognize as trivial.

Perhaps your answer to all this will be that you don't care what your ancestors were...that you can choose your own religion, or do without one. But will this answer stand the test of your own common sense? We know that Christ did establish a Church to proclaim His teaching to all men—including you. We know that He commanded us to "hear the Church." We know that He promised His Church would endure to the end of time. And we know that the Catholic Church is that same Church existing through the centuries since the days of the Apostles.

A highly interesting pamphlet which will help you to see the imperative need for religion in your personal and family life... and help you to decide whether to reject or follow the Catholic Faith—The Faith of our Fathers—will be sent you free in a plain wrapper.
