Rogue Winter Steelheading Season Begins

Portland — The weekly report on fishing conditions prepared by the State Game Commission:

Southwest: Steelheading in North and South Umpqua rivers should be fair if water clears; bank anglers in main Umpqua between Umpqua and Forks having fair to poor luck; Sawyers rapids and Bullock bridge in main Umpqua good; Tenmile lake outlet fair to good.

Winter steelhead season on Rogue below mouth of the Applegate and the Applegate river up to the mouth of the little Applegate opened Jan. 15 with water high and muddy; fresh runs of fish have arrived in the Illinois but high and muddy water prevented good catches.

Eagle Point, Phoenix Vie

Aggregations figured to be the main contenders this season in Rogue league basketball will be scrapping each other on Friday.

Tussles among the top rated four are Phoenix at Eagle Point and Glendale at Brookings. Another tangle will match Rogue River with Illinois Valley at Cave Junction.

Saturday scrambles will have Brookings at Illinois Valley and Phoenix at Rogue River.

Phoenix holds two preseason wins over Eagle Point but looks for tougher opposition in conference contention.

St. Mary's At Talent

St. Mary's of Medford, which spilled the second place club this week in the Jackson County B Basketball circuit, goes after the No. 1 team on Friday.

The Crusaders meet Talent on the Bulldogs' floor. Other contention has Prospect at Jacksonville.

Butte Falls, which bowed to St. Mary's on Tuesday, has a bye in the loop.

Club Puts Up Challenge Cup

Phoenix Rifle club has purchased a challenge trophy and any team from a Cal-Ore league member may challenge a team in possession of it on its regular shooting night to a shoulder to shoulder match.

Winning team will take possession until it is challenged and defeated.

Phoenix members chosen to vie in the Cal-Ore league this week were Marvin Nelson, Neal Tripp, Lyle Jarmin and Jerry Smith. For the Medford club those named were Lewis Conger, Frank Rush, Harry Heidenreich and Clinton Charley. There are 28 teams in the league.

Conger topped the rifle shoot at the club this week with 390. Other high rifflists were Heidenreich 388, Clinton Charley 386, Monty Perreard 381 and Frank Rush.

Salem — Appointment of Marshall Swearingen, Bend to manage the Bend Office of the State Motor Vehicle Department has been announced.
