

Girl Scout Training Announced

Advanced camp training for leaders of the Rogue Valley Area Girl Scouts in skills required for attendance at the Camp Chinquapin camporee and National Girl Scout camping events will be given by the scout council at the Izaak Walton clubhouse in Grants Pass, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday, January 23.

On display will be a replica of the camp and equipment used at the Senior Scout "roundup" in Michigan. Mrs. Judy Dras and Miss Sandra Ullian, the Grants Pass girls who attended, will be on hand to explain procedures and answer questions. Slides of the event will be shown.

Compass work will be presented by Barney Douglass and Robert Scofield of the forest service.

Boy Scout Masters, John Morford of troop 80 and Ed Bennet and George Coats of Troop 87 and their Scouts will give instructions in knot tying, lashing, bedrolls, tents and simple shelters.

There will also be a display of lashed gadgets suitable for use in Day Camps, as well as primitive camping.

Those planning to attend should register for the course at once by calling the Girl Scout office, SPing 2-5912. Coffee will be served by leaders; other attending should bring three sandwiches.

Music Teacher Holds Workshop At Studio-Home

A workshop was conducted by Mrs. Roberta Ward Pebb for a group of piano students at her residence-studio Saturday, January 18.

Following a review of fundamentals, ear-training and a musical quiz, the young students performed. Works of Beethoven, Chopin, Mozart, Schubert and Tchaikovsky were played with a synopsis of each composer's life given.

Heather Rode played part of the Peer Gynt Suite by Grieg and was dramatic narrator for the story of each number played.

In anticipation of the Philharmonic concert to be held Sunday, January 26, Mrs. Pebb described for the benefit of the young students, the different instruments used in the symphony orchestra. She also gave a preview of the program to be given. Mrs. Pebb is vice-president on the Philharmonic Symphony of Southern Oregon board.

Those participating in the program were Linda Beatty, Lee Ann Chamberlain, Mikelynn Boughner, Kristine Chamberlain, Sheryl Landing, Alden Stewart, Heather Rode, Lois Ann Pike and Pamela Gilkison.

Singing and refreshments completed the session.

Mrs. James Cech Heads Tent Here

Mrs. James Cech was installed president of Elita Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, at the January 14 meeting at the county courthouse.

Also installed were Mrs. Thomas, junior vice-president; Mrs. Cleve Ferris, chaplain; Miss Sadie De La Mater, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Gott, Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. Maud Walton, council; Mrs. George Ware, patriotic instructor; Miss Joan Guyer, secretary; Mrs. Mabel Buchanan, guide; Mrs. Elmer Gott, musician; Mrs. Carrie Milnes, Mrs. Fred Scheffel and Mrs. Clarence Hershiser, color.

The officers were installed by Mrs. F. A. Daugherty, past department president, and her staff with Mrs. Buchanan acting as guide.

A flag that had flown over the U. S. Capitol building in Washington, D. C., procured for the group by Oregon Congressman Walter Norblad, was presented by the patriotic instructor.

The tent reported giving two flags to Brownie Scout troops. After the meeting refreshments were served and it was announced that the next meeting will be held January 28.
