NAGGED BY BACKACHE?

—why put up with sluggish kidneys . . . when relief is often so swift and easy to obtain?

Nagging backache can result in loss of sleep and energy. Often this misery is caused by sluggish kidneys and a mildly irritated bladder. These conditions can also cause restlessness, dizziness and trips to the bathroom during the night.

For 50 years, people have found swift, effective relief by using De WITT'S PILLS. This famous diuretic stimulant for the kidneys 1) flushes congestive waste material out of the kidneys; 2) increases circulation of blood through the area; 3) reduces irritation of kidneys and bladder; 4) fights infection and resists reinfection of the urinary tract.

You don't have to wonder when De WITT'S PILLS are at work—you can see. When "the blue comes through" you know De WITT'S PILLS are already in action. Get De WITT'S PILLS today. No prescription needed.

Rugged men from a rugged land—that's the Vikings of old Norway, depicted here by a movie

by Peer J. Oppenheimer

LET'S HEAR no more nonsense about our Hollywood film stars being pampered and spoiled!

They are a virile, rugged, nail-hard group. Just ask any survivors of the location company which recently filmed "The Vikings" in Hardangerfjord, a section of Norway so isolated even a subpoena server couldn't have found it.

The intrepid movieland troupe included Kirk Douglas, Tony Curtis, Ernest Borgnine, and Janet Leigh. Douglas deserves less sympathy than the others because his producing company helped pick the unlivable, unpronounceable location site.

True, Hardangerfjord was beautiful and authentic. But the cast and crew spent most of their time tramping through mud while rain and fog played havoc with their cashmere.

Yet nobody complained—not violently. "The Vikings," after all, is based on the adventures of those fearless Norsemen of old who conquered Europe and sailed small craft to North America five centuries before Columbus.

"Hardangerfjord sounded so different back home, though," Ernest Borgnine mused. "We were told there were no permanent accommodations here but that a flotilla of boats had been hired for temporary offices, film labs, and
