

APPLEGATE VALLEY MOD Koffee Klatch Held

By MAUDE ZIEGLER
Applegate Valley—A March of Dimes Koffee Klatch, given by the Jacksonville Royal Neighbors, was held at the home of Mrs. B. J. Sanford recently. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford also had as dinner guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Vance Adams of Tulelake, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams, Mrs. Pearl Adams, Mrs. Helen Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sanford and children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Elba Graham and Marion Maxwell of Jacksonville.

Glenn Hunter's four children and their families and a number of other relatives gathered at his home Jan. 15 to help him celebrate his birthday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lewis of Applegate; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wood, Miss Carol Ann Stevens and Dolores Blomquist of Prouty; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ayres of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Best, and the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Best of Ruch. Also attending were 13 grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and a number of other children.

Mr. and Mrs. Arion Christanson were hosts to lower Applegate cattlemen, their families and friends, Saturday evening at the annual "marking and branding party." A dance was held during the evening. Stockmen completed marking, branding and vaccinating of calves late in the fall, but the holidays brought postponement of their celebration until this month. About 30 people attended the party.

Mrs. LeRoy Offenbacher was hostess at a pink and blue shower at her home Friday evening honoring Mrs. Bruce Matheny of Jacksonville. Gifts were presented in a miniature bassinette. Those attending were Mesdames Leonard McKee, Clifford Wolf, Bill Smith, Scotty Matheny, Mr. Don Sheffield of Jacksonville; Mesdames Ray Bostwick, Ernest Ludwig and Don Harris and Misses Esther and Sonja Smith and Donna Shores of Medford; Mesdames Glenn Smith, Paul McBeth, and Leon Offenbacher of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Byrne and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Offenbacher entertained with a party honoring their sixth wedding anniversaries at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Snopl Saturday evening. The event also honored the birthday of Bill Rombach of Medford. A small group of friends attended and there were games and dancing.

A number of local dairymen and their families expect to attend the annual dinner and business meeting of Fama Tanks, Inc., which will be held at Gold Hill Grange hall Tuesday, Jan. 21. "Fama Tanks, Inc." is an organization of milk producers who ship grade A milk to Eugene, and their speaker for the Tuesday meeting will be from the school of animal husbandry at Davis, Calif. Glenn Smith is secretary-treasurer of the group and Ed Ramsay is chairman of their nominating committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farrand drove to Ashland Sunday, where they visited friends.

Mrs. Earl Sharp left Thursday for Los Angeles, where she will visit her son, Dick Hall.

Friends here have received word of the death of Mrs. Eunice Johnson in Oakland a few days ago. Mrs. Johnson formerly resided here with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waugh, who owned the Circle G ranch about 10 years ago. She taught the adult Bible class at the American Union Sunday school held at Uniontown school at that time.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sconyer were her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fields and daughter and son, Jack, who is from the Taffey Air Force base in Korea. Jack is on 30 day leave and will visit a brother, Billy Fields, at Lackland Air Force base in Texas before continuing to Georgia, where he will be stationed.

Miss Carol Ann Gregory, who enrolled in the Women's Air Force in November, has been transferred from the Lackland base in Texas to the Andrews Air Force base in Washington, D.C., where she will spend a year in nurses' training, according to word received by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Russell of Little Applegate have moved to Sexton mountain area to make their home.

The marriage of Miss Paula Hopkins and William P. Norton of Napa, Calif., took place in Reno, Jan. 11. Mrs. Norton is a daughter of Mrs. George Hopkins of Napa, the former Miss Jessie Smith of Ruch, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Hopkins held a reception for the newlyweds at their home upon their return from Reno. Norton is a government employee at Mare Island Naval base and the bride is a high school senior in Napa.

Bud Gutches is attending the De Shazo service station here during the absence of C. E. De Shazo, who returned to Merced to be with his wife who underwent brain surgery there following an automobile accident near Merced this month.

Mrs. Robert Sorber was elected president of the Applegate Valley Garden club which met at the home of Mrs. Ed Ramsay Wednesday. Other officers include Mrs. Lance Offenbacher, first vice president; Mrs. Francis Krause, second vice president; and Mrs. Curtis Gearhardt, secretary-treasurer.

The care of house plants was discussed by Mrs. Wilfred Pearson, who distributed African violet leaves as "starts" of these plants. Guests at the meeting included Mrs. Boyd Hamilton, Mrs. Louis Jones, Mrs. Dorothy Port, and Mrs. "Puge" Heffron.

Among recent guests at the home of Mrs. Glenn Smith were her sister, Mrs. Ralph (Marjory) Thompson of Coos Bay, who also was a guest of her mother, Mrs. Jack Peebler of Phoenix.

Rural reflections: It all depends on the point of view—Bill Barker, busy these days in maintaining silence on a school bus full of screaming youngsters, says every time he turns around he gets his name in the paper, while Miss Jean Smith, who lives at the dormitory at SOC comments that she hasn't had her name in the paper for a long time.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Kooking Kays Club
A 4-H cooking club was organized Jan. 18 at the home of Mrs. Maynard McKay. We elected officers. They are president, Shirley Roach; vice president, Elaine Ann Wright; secretary, Terry McManama; song leader, Carol Roach. Our next meeting will be Jan. 23.

Tylene Evans, Reporter.

National Guard News

By MARGARET BEHNKE

Headquarters Company's training schedule Monday night consisted of two classes. "Map and Compass" was instructed by M/Sgt. Milton A. Kornstad, and SP3 James D. Armstrong. Instruction was supplemented by a movie, M/Sgt. Samuel Baily conducted a two-hour class on "Drill and Ceremonies."

James Armstrong has re-enlisted for three years in Headquarters Company after completing one three-year enlistment.

Capt. S. J. Fagone did not attend the drill as he was attending the staff and company commanders meeting in Canyonville.

Tuesday night Company A attended classes on "Code of Conduct" instructed by Lt. John J. Harding, "Individual Day and Night Training" under Sgt. George C. Holberton and Pfc. Gary G. Legler, and "Sniperscope Familiarization" instructed by Sgt. Dennis W. Burns and Cpl. Billy J. Cardwell.

Pvt. John C. Reeder, route 1, box 291, Central Point, has enlisted in Company A for three years and will leave for six months active duty training at Ft. Ord, Calif., in February.

Payroll checks for the last quarter, October through December, arrived at the Armory for Company A, Wednesday, Jan. 15. The total payroll figure for this quarter for Company A is $4,560.97. Payroll figures for 1957 in the company total $23,547.82.

Three men have been promoted in Company A. Pfc. Raymond S. Stotler was promoted to Corporal and Pvt. F. Mason and Pvt. Fritz F. Rumble received Pfc. stripes. SFC Loyal N. Goodnough who is attending school in Maryland is reported to be making high marks in all courses he is attending.

Company C of Grants Pass won the rifle matches held at the Medford Armory last Sunday. They will compete with Company D of Roseburg next Sunday at the Medford Armory. M/Sgt. Jack D. Burns was high scoring individual last Sunday with a score of 173 out of a possible 200.

By direction of the National Guard bureau of the United States, personnel of this district attended a school held at the Medford Armory Wednesday and Thursday this week. The classes, instructed by Major Latham, Captain Parkins and Chief Warrant Officer Sanford, from the adjutant general's office in Salem, covered a new system adopted by the National Guard bureau for clear and concise monthly personnel status reports. The system, known as the "penching system" was developed by the IBM Corporation for the National Guard.

Attending the school were representatives from Klamath Falls, Roseburg, and Ashland. Major George T. Bennett, CWO "Babe" Abel, SFC Moine, and SFC Duane

Hi-Lites
IN THE HISTORY OF PHARMACY
by ED HALL

In the early forming of college Schools of Pharmacy the wholesale druggist played a large part. In Philadelphia, Boston and New York they did much to set up pharmacy as independent branch of medicine...

In New England in 1602 Bartholomew landed in Massachusetts and his crew loaded the first cargo of New England exports. "It consisted of the bark and pith of the sassafras tree." So one of the first exports were pharmaceutical.

USE YOUR CHARGE PLATE when you shop here. It's the easy way. This is your Charge Plate Drug Store.

Our favorite customers are Medford's babies. We have a complete stock of BABY NEEDS and of course we give your PRESCRIPTIONS our most exact attention.

CENTRAL REXALL DRUG
Main and Central

Umatilla Bribery Trial Terminated

Pendleton—Trial of Roscoe Kelley, Umatilla county commissioner who was charged with attempted bribery, has been terminated by Circuit Judge Phillip K. Hammond of Oregon City on grounds that the statute on which Kelley would be tried outlined only the act of bribery and not the attempt.

"It would be improper," the judge said, "to continue, when the defendant is entitled to know what he is specifically charged with."

Hammond re-referred the case to the Umatilla county grand jury which indicted Kelley.

The commissioner was accused of attempting to bribe Clifford Smick, Umatilla Ver Byrek of the battalion staff and Company A and the AST's from the Medford Companies, Sgt. Jimmy R. Price and Sgt. Richard Berninghausen also attended.

AST (Administrative, Supply Technician) for Headquarters Company is Sgt. Richard Berninghausen. He has been working at the Medford Armory for about one year. During World War II he served as a sergeant in the Air Force, and upon receiving his discharge at the end of the war was with the Air Force reserve and was called to active duty in August, 1950. He served in Korea and Japan during the Korean War. He enlisted in the National Guard in September, 1956. He was reared in Ashland where he and his wife, Shirley, and their four children now live.

Sgt. Jimmy R. Price transferred from Company C in Grants Pass and took the position of AST in Company A in May, 1957. Sgt. Price had four years of active duty in the regular Army. He served in Korea and Japan during the Korean War and rotated with the 25th Infantry Division to Hawaii after the Armistice was signed.

From there he transferred to the Philippines, Guam, and Formosa before returning to the United States to be discharged. During his tour of duty he served in the office of special investigation and also as an interpreter of the Chinese, Japanese and Korean language.

Sgt. Price married Miss Irene F. White of Grants Pass June 7, 1957, and upon returning from National Guard summer camp took up residence in Medford.

Northwest Smut Losses In Wheat Crop Cut

Portland—Effective seed treatment and the use of resistant wheat varieties resulted in a cut of $2 million from smut losses in the Pacific Northwest in 1957, it was reported here today.

Salem—Reappointment of Martin Buchanan, Umatilla county rancher, to the State Liquor commission has been announced.

Portland—Portland's Meter Maids handed out 709 parking violation tickets Monday in their first day of work.

county deputy sheriff, by allegedly offering $300 to falsely accuse certain Pendleton city police officers of breaking into a warehouse.

EAGLE POINT Jaycees Change Meeting

By LAURA A. McFALL
Eagle Point—The Eagle Point Jaycees have changed meeting nights to the second and fourth Thursdays each month. The next meeting will be Jan. 30. The Boy Scout group the Jaycees sponsor are presenting the charter to the Jaycees Jan. 21 at the Grade school gym.

The Eagle Point auxiliary met at the Lyle Greenwood home Monday, Jan. 13, with 16 members present. Mrs. John Ousterhout was a guest.

Alton Hayes, instructor of the school for exceptional children at Talent, spoke and showed slides on work being done at the school. The auxiliary plans to help raise money for the March of Dimes with a Mothers' March Jan. 30, from 7 to 9 p.m. Those who plan to contribute are asked to turn on porch lights.

The auxiliary is entertaining state officers at the next board meeting in the home of Mrs. Don Geren, Agate rd., Sunday, Jan. 26, at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Ben Gardener, Crater Lake highway, will hold a coffee-klatch for the March of Dimes at her home Thursday, Jan. 23. Residents have been invited. Proceeds will be given to the March of Dimes.

Ronnie Myers, Medford, was a recent visitor in the home of Ronnie Weidman.

The Eagle Point Jayceettes will meet Thursday, Jan. 23, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Gerald Bishop on North B st. Mrs. Don Kimmel and Mrs. Jim Martinson are cohostesses. A talk on the League of Women Voters is planned. The Jayceettes have been reminded to bring articles of clothing and other items for needy families.

Mrs. Ed R. Chamberlain and Mrs. Vin Vaughan left Saturday, Jan. 18, for Seattle to buy merchandise for the Town and Country shop in Eagle Point.

Know Government Day Held in Salem

Salem—The first know your state government day in the nation drew about 300 Salem area businessmen on tours of government agencies here Monday.

Purpose of the day was to acquaint citizens more fully with the workings of the state agencies.

Salem—Charles E. Royman, Portland, has filed for the Democratic nomination as Multnomah county district attorney.

FOOT SEARCH
Cedar City, Utah—Police Chief Tony Lambert, whose department has only one cruiser, was patrolling the town on foot today looking for the black car marked "Cedar City Police" that someone stole yesterday from in front of the police station.

PARTIAL SUCCESS
Atlanta—A police search for a stolen car in Atlanta has been only partly successful so far. They found the car abandoned in a city park—but the rear wheels were missing.

Use Mail Tribune Classified Ads For Quick Cash

WE MAINTAIN OFFICES FOR TWO REASONS... to give you complete rail passenger services—information, tickets and reservations when traveling to any destination. ... to provide helpful service for shippers having freight shipments... to or from any point in the country. We'll be mighty pleased to serve you, whether you are a traveler or shipper.

For complete rail transportation service—
R. D. TOOMEY, General Traffic Agent
207 Medical Center Bldg., Medford, Ore.
SP 3-5388

UNION PACIFIC Railroad

Her mommy acted fast because she knows that a neglected cough due to a cold may lead to chronic bronchitis. Special Formula Creomulsion Cough Syrup for Children relieves coughs right now, without narcotics or antihistamines, stops tickle — promotes sleep — tastes good too. Get

CREOMULSION FOR CHILDREN

SUMMER IS HERE THROUGHOUT THE YEAR!

With a Westinghouse Electric CLOTHES DRYER

The Westinghouse Electric Dryer does more than dry. It fluffs, freshens and protects your clothes. It lets you wash in any weather. That means you need fewer washables! Only the Westinghouse Clothes Dryer has the Direct Air Flow System. It blows fresh warm air directly into the tumbling clothes. It is the only dryer with a handy Look-In Loading Door. Makes loading and unloading easy. Top of the Dryer is always available as a work surface.

Prices Start As Low As $149.95

See This Amazing COMPLETE Home Laundry!

Model D-110
Model LH3-DH3
Laundromat and Dryer

Stop In Today!

TROWBRIDGE & FLYNN ELECTRIC CO.

YOU CAN BE SURE... 214 W. Main St.

IF IT'S Westinghouse AND THE BIG Y APPLIANCE DEPT.

IN THE BIG Y SHOPPING CENTER Phone SP 3-6241
Phone SP 3-3052