Mrs. Garman was born on April 5, 1898, in Crabtree, Oregon. On March 12, 1936 she was married to Kenneth Dean Garman, who survives.

Other survivors include two sons, Ira (Buss) Fitzgerald, Medford, and Jack Fitzgerald, Medford; one daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Gray, Medford; two grandchildren; and two great grandchildren; one brother, Percy Paul, Tannerville, Mo., and two sisters, Mrs. Otto Rahn, Eugene, and Mrs. Charlie Ray, Lebanon.

Decisions Fact Sheets Available

Fact sheets for the Great Decisions... 1958 program which begins Feb. 2 are now available at the Medford public library, according to Harold Jaffrey, chairman of the county Great Decisions committee.

The sheets, which cost $1 for a set of eight to cover the eight-week program, are prepared by the Foreign Policy association. They present facts concerning eight key foreign policy issues facing the United States and its citizens in 1958.

Physician Treated For Accident Cuts

Dr. Christian Peter Hald, 37, of 600 Roca st., Ashland, was treated for wrist cuts and released from Rogue Valley hospital after his car was involved in an accident last night, according to state police.

Dr. Hald's car was damaged extensively when it rolled into a ditch and landed on its top on the Phoenix rd., 150 feet east of Barnett rd., state police said. Officers said the car skidded 378 feet while swerving into the east bound lane and crossing back into the west bound lane.

A horse, belonging to Harold Compton, route 3, box 202, Medford, was found on the highway shoulder near the skidmarks, officers said. Dr. Hald told the officers he skidded while trying to avoid the horse.

Market Influenced By Easing of Money

New York (U.P.)—Further easing of money mildly influenced a small rise in stocks on increased volume today.

There was no rush to buy stock when the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank cut its discount rate and commercial banks lowered prime rates. No one seemed to want money for stock market speculation.
