

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rea Rupert
(Brainerd photo)

Rupert-Jensen Ceremony Held at Lutheran Church

Zion Lutheran church was the setting Tuesday, Jan. 14 for the double ring wedding of Miss Charlotte B. Jensen and Gary Rea Rupert. The Rev. G. H. Hillerman officiated at the 7:30 o'clock event, drawing a crowd of 125 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jensen, 211 Vancouver avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rupert, 1316 East Jackson street, Medford. The wedding was held on the nineteenth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

White stock decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. H. E. Marsh was organist and Lewis Clayton was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a light pink ballerina length lace frock and her veil was held by a light pink crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses encircling a white orchid.

Miss Helen Granger attended the bride. She wore a light blue frock with matching shoes and carried white carnations with blue ribbons. Candelights were Brenda Mitchell and Diane Rupert, sister of the bridegroom.

Arlin Granger served as best man while Kenneth Jensen, brother of the bride, and Charles DeLorme seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jensen chose a robin egg blue knit suit with black accessories. Mrs. Rupert wore a grey suit with pink accessories. The corsages were white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Miss Barbara Pierce and Miss Lois Elkins cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. B. D. Mitchell and Mrs. Marvin Green poured the coffee and punch. Miss Laura Rupert was in charge of the guest book and Miss Marilyn Anderson, Mrs. DeLorme, and Miss Marty Barkley, were at the gift table.

The bride wore a blue suit with matching accessories for her traveling attire. They are now making their home at 318 East 12th street, apartment 5, Medford.

The couple are graduates of Medford High school. The bride is employed as a saleslady at Burelson's store. Mr. Rupert is employed at Carolina-Pacific Plywood and is a student at Southern Oregon college.

Among the out-of-town guests were all of the couple's

Mrs. Theron Boyd Is Hostess for Farewell Party

A buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. Theron Boyd, 1325 Covina avenue, January 21 honored Mrs. Russell Williams. Decorations were in the valentine motif.

Guests were Mrs. Elmer Donahoe, Mrs. Leonard Duesenbury, Mrs. Robert White, Mrs. Ronald Adkins, Mrs. Monte Kounz, Mrs. Charles McIntyre, Mrs. Edith Campbell, Miss Lois Tokar, the guest of honor and her daughter, Theresa. Mrs. Williams was presented a necklace and earring set as a farewell gift from the group.

Mrs. Williams will leave January 30 for Oakland, Calif., where she will join her husband who has been transferred there by the Civil Aeronautics authority.

Young Women's New Club To Be Federation Group

A new organization for young women in Medford—an affiliate of the General Federation of Women's clubs—will be installed in ceremonies set for Wednesday, January 29. The group will be known as the Medford Junior Women's club and already has a charter membership of about 20 young women, and has elected officers.

The installation ceremonies will be held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Holmes, 303 Wilamette avenue, and Mrs. Holmes will be installed president. Taking office with her will be Mrs. Robert Billingsley, first vice-president; Mrs. J. A. Redden, second vice-president; Mrs. William Sweet, recording secretary; Mrs. L. E. McConnell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. David DeArmond, treasurer and Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, parliamentarian.

As an affiliate of the General and Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, organized on a state and national basis, the club will work in nine departments dedicated toward a two-fold purpose: community service and adult education. Activities in the departments will be in the fields of the American home, communications, community affairs, conservation, education, fine arts, religions, public affairs and international affairs.

At the present time there are 18 junior clubs in Oregon with a total of 606 members. The state is divided into districts, this area being the First district, and the only district not having a Junior Women's club as a federated group. The new group will also be the first club in Medford to belong to the Oregon and General Federations.

Interested guests will be invited to attend the installation ceremony. Membership will be limited to women whose ages are from 21 to 40 inclusive.

Duplicate Club Slates Tourney

First tournament of the year for Medford Duplicate Bridge Club will be the annual individual play. It will be held in two sessions Mar. 11 and 18.

At the January 21 session of the club 10 tables of Mitchell movement were played. North-south position winners were Mrs. Sam Van Dyke and William Isacs, first, 144; Mr. and Mrs. George Rode, second, 138; Mrs. John Dougherty and Roy Pruitt, third, 137½; and Mrs. George Dean and Mrs. Paul Hutton, fourth, 133½.

East-west position top partners were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyd, 142; Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. Elliott Harlow, second, 129; Al Gilhouse and Frank Hudson, third, 121; and Mrs. Berg Marten and Mrs. R. Milestone, fourth, 119½.

Guest at the last session was Frank Hudson of Portland.

To Speak

Charles Sheppard, of the Oregon Fish and Wildlife commission, will show a film on birds at the Tuesday, January 28, meeting of the Howard Gardeners.

The program for the day, "Stewardship of Joy," will be in charge of Mrs. George Oster, program chairman for the year.

The worship service will be conducted by Mrs. Grover Corum.

Miss Rose Drake Visits Parents

Gold Hill — Miss Rose M. Drake, airman third class with the United States Air Force, left here last week for the U. S. Air Force hospital, Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, Texas, after spending eight days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett R. Drake, Gold Hill.

Miss Drake, who completed her indoctrination training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, prior to her visit here, will receive technical training at her new duty station.

The servicewoman is a graduate of Crater High school.

Angus Bowmer

Invitations Out For Mardi Gras

Royal Edict No. 1 was issued last week by Tudor guild of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival association. These are invitations for the first annual Mardi Gras, to be held Saturday, February 15, at Rogue Valley Country club, by the guild.

The clever messages are the work of Mrs. William Dawkins of Ashland, and constitute a greeting from Rex, King of Carnival and Lord of Misrule, to "Our subjects, loyal and true, and to all strangers within the gates of the Realm."

The king orders that his subjects array themselves in gala finery for the event, and dictates that all must be masked. Identity of the Mardi Gras king will be revealed soon, and a queen will be chosen during the festival.

Mrs. Joe Vakoc Home From South

Mrs. Joe Vakoc, 519 South Riverside avenue, returned to Medford Thursday after spending more than a month visiting her grandchildren and other relatives in Florida.

During her vacation she visited Miami, Cocoa Beach, Fla., and the Cypress Gardens. She also witnessed two firings at Cape Canaveral.

Mrs. Vakoc, who traveled both ways by train, stopped in New Orleans for a day on her return.

Newcomers

Mrs. Mrs. Ronald Brennehan, who live at 1110 West Eighth street, are newcomers to Medford, having come here from Eugene last fall. Mr. Brennehan is vice-president and general manager of Medford Neon Sign company. The Brennehan's have an infant son, Donald Ray.

Foreign Students to Speak For AAUW Fellowship Event

Two foreign students will be on the program for the annual fellowship luncheon of Medford branch, American Association of University Women. It will be held Saturday, February 1, at Rogue Valley Country club at 12:30 p.m.

The two Southern Oregon College students are Miss Heike Schneider from Germany and Miss Susan Bianchi from Chile. Miss Schneider is from Meppin which is near the Holland border on the Ems river. She is originally from Estonia when the Russians occupied Estonia. She lives in Germany with her widowed mother, an older brother studying for ministry and two younger sisters. Miss Schneider attending Southern Oregon college for two years studying elementary education, and is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. George Flanagan of Medford.

Miss Bianchi is from Santiago, and has a scholarship from the Institute of International Education, U.S.A. She applied for a scholarship in liberal arts through the American embassy in Chile and studied one year after high school learning the English and French languages. She entered Southern Oregon college as a sophomore studying secretarial science and will study there for one year.

Program chairman for the luncheon is Mrs. Elliott Harlow, fellowship chairman. Members may bring guests and all study group members are invited. For reservations call Mrs. Harlow, SP 3-4732, by Wednesday, January 29.

The AAUW fellowship program has been in operation since 1890 and since that time about 1100 women have benefited from the association's fellowship and international grant program. Forty-four American women scholars and eight women from abroad will carry on higher research and post-doctoral studies as a result of fellowships awarded to them for 1957-58 by the American Association of University Women. Of the eight women from abroad, two will come from England and one each from Ireland, Brazil, New Zealand, Vienna, Austria, Norway and Turkey. The studies to be pursued by the fellows range from original experiments in the natural sciences to research in the fine arts.

Concert Planned This Afternoon At Auditorium

A revised program for this afternoon's concert of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon was announced yesterday by Director Richard D. Werner.

The concert, set for 3 p.m. at Medford High school auditorium, will open with the overture to Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro." Beethoven's "Symphony No. 1" will follow.

Tresa (Mrs. Ralph) Matlack, well known soprano, will sing two solos. The numbers will be an aria "Prodigal Son" by Debussy, and "How Do I Love Thee?" by E. Lippe. Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony" will complete the mid-part of the program.

The concert will conclude with "The Carnival of Animals," whimsical composition by Saint-Saens. This number will have Almus Pruitt and Bruno Pellegrini as pianists and Angus Bowmer, well known Shakespearean actor and Southern Oregon college faculty member, narrating the Odeon Nash poetry used in the number. A ballet group under the direction of Miss Colleen Hope will present dances portraying the various animals.

Tickets will be on sale at the box office.

Auxiliary Holds Annual Ceremony

Mrs. Lee F. Willits was installed as president of the Ladies' auxiliary to Siskiyou canton, Patriarchs Militant, at a dinner meeting January 17. Installing officer was Mrs. E. D. Dameron.

Other officers installed were Mrs. William Campbell, vice-president; Mrs. Harriet Schaefer, secretary; Mrs. John Black, treasurer; Mrs. O. S. Walden, officer-of-the-day; Mrs. E. W. Pease, officer-of-the-guard; Mrs. Rosa Young, chaplain; Mrs. Carrie Milnes, sentry; Mrs. George Brownlee, musician, and Mrs. Dolie Love, color bearer.

Also installed were Mrs. Eber T. Weed, right aide to president; Mrs. Jennie Hensler, left aide to president; Mrs. E. D. Dameron, right aide to vice-president; Mrs. Blanche Robinson, left aide to vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Dyer, right aide to past president; Mrs. George Howard, left aide to past president; Mrs. Clarence Jordan, right aide to chaplain; Mrs. R. L. Lindner, Ashland, left aide to chaplain.

Honor guard members include Mrs. Margaret Davis, Miss Bessie Frenenburg; Mrs. Albert Hackert, Jacksonville; and Mrs. Lewis Thompson.

Director R. D. Werner

Patricia Alber Becomes Bride Of John Olsen

Miss Patricia Margaret Alber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alber, 309 Third street, Phoenix, became the bride of John Olsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Floyd Redding, Calif., in a ceremony held last month in Reno, Nevada. The wedding was held in the Methodist Park chapel there December 27.

The bride is an English teacher in Central Valley High school, Redding. She attended Southern Oregon college and the University of Oregon. Mr. Olsen is a commercial arts instructor and coach at the same school. He is a graduate of Shasta college and Chico State college.

Attending the couple at their wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen are making their home at 1173 Orange street, Redding.

Sheriff's Posse Ejects Officers

Glenn D. Martin was elected captain for a second term in the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse at their last meeting in the club house. Walter Faux was elected first lieutenant and was appointed advisor for the Junior Posse.

Mr. Martin appointed Kenneth Oswald secretary-treasurer and Homer Chamberlain second lieutenant in charge of the barns. Anthony Boitano and Manual Liebman were reelected to the board of directors with Mr. Faux elected as new member of the board.

Mr. Chamberlain will be in charge of the queen and her court for the annual roundup while Gary Gustafson was appointed the new publicity chairman for the Posse.

Last Performance Of Play Tonight

The last performance of "The Wooden Dish," Medford Footlighter production, will be held this evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Fairgrounds Theater. Proceeds from the special four night presentation are being donated to the March of Dimes, according to R. L. Palmer, Medford chairman of the drive.

Tickets may be purchased at the box office for today's showing. Approximately 60 persons attended the Friday evening presentation.

Nevia Chapter Plans Observance

Central Point—Officers of Nevita chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, announce observance of men's night Tuesday, January 28, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic hall, Central Point. Decorations in the chapter room are in charge of J. E. Vincent, and the refreshments will be served by Frank Ward, Wyles Berry, Calvin McKibben, William Abbott and Russell Fair.

Members and friends of the chapter are extended a special invitation for an evening of fun.

Knife-Fork Club Books Mentalists

A husband and wife team, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tucker, will give the program for the next meeting of Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club. The dinner and program are set for Wednesday, February 5, at Rogue Valley Country club.

The Tuckers, billed as "mentalists", are said to probe the minds of those in the audience with amazing and amusing results.

GO MODERN!

Debutante
By Mr. Eddy

MODERN BEAUTY
131 S. Central Ph. SP 3-5379

New . . .

Exciting . . .

Teena Paige
Dresses
as seen in Seventeen

"Scene Stealing"

Embroidered sheath with tiny neckband, pert bow. In Carolheen, Lowenstein's washable drip dry combed chino cotton that needs little or no ironing. Blue, mint, pink, navy—all with white embroidery.

$14.95

Teena Paige

"Flirtatious"

Bow-backed tucked cummerbund adds dash to this Empire sheath. Rhinestone pins accent collar. In washable Everglaze® Minicare® combed cotton "Pimantette" by William Simpson. Blue, pink, apricot, mint.

$12.95

"Prints"

Printed water color cotton—the bodice sprinkled with rhinestone. Peek-a-bow shoulders and self rope belt. In Sunland by Loomskill, a washable, crease-resistant cotton. Hues of green, red, blue.

$14.95

Teena Paige

Does your sterling show any of these markings?

...if so, you are the proud owner of a
GORHAM* STERLING FLATWARE PATTERN

FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY . . .

YOU CAN ADD TO OR FILL IN ANY OF THE MORE THAN 200 OLDER
GORHAM* STERLING PATTERNS NOW AVAILABLE THIS YEAR THROUGH
GORHAM'S ANNUAL SPECIAL ORDER
SERVICE PROGRAM

Most patterns have about 30 items available in one weight and size.
Just bring in a sample of each piece you wish to order—if this is not possible bring in some item for pattern identification.

You may find some of these markings date back as far as 1831 when the first Gorham pattern was made.

Gorham
STERLING
© 1958

*TRADE MARK

Convenient Terms If Desired!

Lawrence's
YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE

Specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds and Watches
130 EAST MAIN Est. 1908

Special Valentines for Special People . . .

by Hallmark

The perfect way to remember friends and loved ones! You'll find a Valentine suitable for every age and taste . . .
lacy, old-fashioned cards, witty,
sophisticated cards, traditional heart motifs, and inexpensive Valentines for school boxes. And for those Valentine gifts you'll find Hallmark Valentine Gift Wraps, ribbon and matching enclosure to give your gift "the added touch."

Select yours at

MEDFORD
PHARMACY, INC.
101 NO. CENTRAL AVE.
Corner of 6th
PHONE SP 2-6253

OPEN 8:30 to 10:30—SUNDAYS 10:00 to 9:30

FURS

Storage • Restyling
Repairing and Relining
Cleaning and Glazing

Frances' Furs

Formerly Frances Dallaire
1100 Crater Lake Ave.
Telephone SP 2-6526