REMOVE WASTE- NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's a secret millions have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the wonderfully different chewing-gum laxative.

FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food! FEEN-A-MINT does not work in the stomach, where food is being digested. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy.

Doctors know that FEEN-A-MINT works chiefly in the lower bowel...removes mostly waste, not good food! And it's non-irritating, too.

So to feel like a million, chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT. 16 tablets, 35¢—also small and economy sizes.

are those crusts and scales PSORIASIS?

If they are, use Siroil. For 25 years psoriasis sufferers have learned that Siroil tends to remove those unsightly crusts and scales. If lesions recur, light applications of Siroil help control them. Cartoon Place Cards

Julia Handy

If you're having a party where place cards are in order, here's an idea. Some magazines feature single picture cartoons which show funny situations that often remind you of people you know. When you see a really funny and appropriate one, clip and save it. Later you can mount each one on cardboard and use it as a place card. The party will get off to a gay start as people recognize one another, and try to find themselves.

Somersault Race

Nat Bradford

Have you ever heard of a somersault race? This is a boy's game and it's fun! The players line up until the starter says "Go!" and points to the goal about 25 feet away. Each player must then take a somersault, stand up straight, take only one step, then do another somersault, stand up again, etc., until he reaches the goal. The one who takes more than one step is out of the race. The first one to reach the goal is, of course, the winner!

Who Wants a Cracker?

Nat Bradford

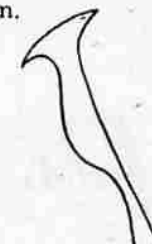

You should have several players for this funny game. Each player races to a paper bag placed 50 feet away, eats the three soda crackers it contains, then brings back the empty bag to the starting place. Then each player tries to whistle. The first one to do so wins! Did you ever try to whistle after eating three dry crackers?

Let's Draw a Cardinal

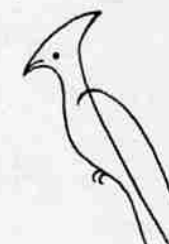

Ann Davidow

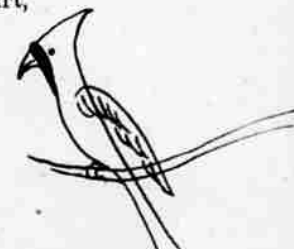

This bird's a king of great renown,
Capped by nature with a crown.

Proud and handsome,
straight and thin,
Slender as a bobby pin.

In Summer's green he stands apart,
Cherry red, a feather dart,

While beside the snow he's bright
Red against the Winter white.
