RELIEVES COUGHING...LIKE ASPIRIN STOPS HEADACHES

Recordially Yours

by Norman Weiser

THE NEW YEAR is still young, and already the record shops are loaded with exciting new releases. So let's look at some of the packages awaiting your listening pleasure.

TOPS ON THE RECORD SHELVES: Come March, the Academy Awards will be flying, and "Sayonara" should be a front-runner. The RCA sound track from this great picture is a beautiful, haunting work, one you will enjoy listening to many, many times.

For those who like their music on the dreamy side, with the finest in vocal interpretation, "Like Someone in Love" should be right down their alley. It's the inimitable Ella Fitzgerald at her best on this Verve etching.

MUSIC FOR FAMILY LISTENING: For a vocal program, try "Tony Perkins," an Epic release featuring this bright new entertainer, then follow with "Just One of Those Things," Capitol's new Nat "King" Cole biscuit; "Tell It Again," a Thorexin—the first guided cough medicine—relieves coughing as easily as aspirin stops headaches—fast, sure, safe! Thorexin soothes your throat . . . then speeds safe relief through your blood stream—directly to the cough control center (the spot where coughing is controlled). That's because Thorexin contains medicine's first non-narcotic cough suppressor, d-methorphan.

Thorexin is so effective it brings prompt relief to all 5 major types of cough:
(1) Common Cold (2) Bronchial (3) Flu (4) Irritation (5) Excessive Smoking.

Yet Thorexin is so safe and mild you can trust it to relieve your youngster's sleep-disturbing cough. And children love its cherry-like flavor.

Ordinary cough syrups don't even touch the cough control center, which (as doctors know) really governs coughing.

Narcotic cough medicines depress the cough control center, but narcotics may leave undesirable side effects.

Thorexin speeds relief through the blood stream directly to the cough center to relieve your cough without narcotics!

Yours

truly delightful bit of shellac with Julie Andrews and Martyn Green on Angel; "Dream Along with Me," Camden's entry starring Perry Como; "Teen Time," a Ricky Nelson offering via Verve; "Blue Starr," Kay Starr's latest on RCA; Concert Hall's interesting experiment, "It's Time for Tina" with Tina Louise; and, finally, "Dan Dailey," featuring this fine performer on Tops.

For dancing or just plain listening, let's spin "The New Glenn Miller Orchestra in Hi-Fi," an RCA release spotlighting Ray McKinley. Now "Dance till Dawn" with Howard Lanin and his orchestra on Decca, then follow with Jackie Gleason's fine new waxing, "Oooo!" on Capitol; "For You," Bethlehem's contribution with Dick Stabile; Richard Haymen in "Havana in Hi-Fi" via Mercury; and "Rhythmagie," by Escobar on Cadence. Finally, "And They Called It Vaudeville" will bring back many moments of nostalgia for Mom and Pop. It's on Golden Crest.

COVERING THE CLASSICS: Puccini's "Tosca" is one of the most famous of all operas, and RCA's new complete recording of the score, featuring such magnificent voices as Zinka Milanov, dramatic soprano portraying the lead role, Jussi Bjoerling, Leonard Warren, and the Rome Opera House chorus and orchestra, is certain to be "must" listening for all opera lovers.

Gilbert and Sullivan fans will welcome Angel's "The Gondoliers," starring the Pro Arte Orchestra and the Glyndebourne Festival Chorus. Also on tap are two other fine recordings, Gliere's "Ilya Mourometz" by the Houston Symphony Orchestra, Leopold Stokowski conducting, on Capitol, and Mercury's "Rossini Overtures" as performed by the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Antal Dorati.

BIG SOUNDS FOR SMALL FRY: Walt Disney's "Story of Bambi," complete with narration by Jimmy Dodd and full-color illustrations and story book, is now available by way of Disneyland. And on the same label, "Jimmie Dodd Sings His Favorite Hymns" is another sure thing for the younger set.

JAZZOMANIA: The great Charlie Parker comes to life in a new three-record series, "The Charlie Parker Record," on Verve. This hunk of jazz legend can be purchased individually. And from the same label comes a series of 14 separate LPs which were cut at the Newport Festival last July and feature some of the greatest names in jazz.

For the buffs, here's a mixture to suit any taste: "Direct from San Francisco," with Bob Scobey on Good Time Jazz; "Salute to Satch," Joe Newman, RCA; "The Jazztone Mystery Band," and don't look at the liner notes on this one—see if you recognize the artists from their exciting sounds; "Gone for the Day," June Christy's latest on Capitol; "Jazz Erotica," starring some excellent musicians on Hi-Fi Records; the exciting Sarah Vaughan and her trio on Mercury's "Swingin' Easy," and finally, "La Vern," Atlantic's New Year surprise with the very fine La Vern Baker vocalizing.

SAMPLING THE SOUND TRACKS: Sinatra's "Pal Joey" with Rita Hayworth and Kim Novak is Capitol's offering, and already it has found a big audience with those who have seen the movie. "Search for Paradise," from Cinerama's release of the same title, features a Dimitri Tiomkin score, and is presented by RCA. Direct from the San Francisco and Los Angeles Light Opera comes "Annie Get Your Gun" with Mary Martin and John Raitt, and this one, too, is rapidly hitting the sales jackpot.
