Washington—Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.) in a Senate speech, on the trend by auto manufacturers toward bigger cars:

"They (the big cars) are too big, too fast, too powerful and are rapidly obsoleting our highways, endangering human life and limb."

Moscow—Soviet Communist party Chief Nikita Khrushchev, in a new plea to western envoys for East-West summit talks and a non-aggression pact, on the alleged danger of U.S. nuclear bombers flying over Europe:

"You are all sleeping soundly because you are in Moscow."

Ankara, Turkey—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, addressing the Baghdad pact meeting, on free world defenses in the Middle East:

"The Baghdad pact group of countries can be confident that mobile power of great force would, as needed, be brought to bear against any Communist aggressor."

Washington—Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy commission, in a letter to the Congressional Atomic committee chairman urging relaxation of the 1954 atomic energy law to permit closer cooperation on atomic weapons with our allies:

"We have been made increasingly aware of the fact that the Soviet Union and the United Kingdom have achieved a significant nuclear military capability."

Cairo—Syrian Foreign Minister Salah Bitar, before his departure home, on the proposed merger of his country and Egypt into a single nation:

"I return to Damascus bearing good tidings to the whole Arab world that one of its dearest hopes is coming true."

LOVELY Pat Sheehan, Miss San Francisco of 1950, will wed Dennis Crosby, Bing's son, with Bing's blessing. Pat announced the love affair in Las Vegas. (International)

Juvenile Judges Form Association

Newport, Ore. — Delegates to a conference of juvenile officers from Oregon counties meeting here formed the Oregon Juvenile Judges Association, with members including judges and juvenile directors. Each county would supply two representatives to the group.

New officers elected were Judge R. E. Renne, Yamhill county, president; Joseph B. Felton, Marion county, vice president; and Robert D. MacLean, Lincoln county, secretary-treasurer.

Gov. Robert D. Holmes addressed the opening session of the two-day meeting and told delegates that juvenile courts in Oregon are handicapped by inadequate staffs, confused and outdated laws, public indifference and a lack of closer communication and action between state agencies. The governor said a good juvenile code revision in this state would help make the needed corrections.

Turkish Cypriots Battle Police

Nicosia, Cyprus — More than 1,000 Turkish Cypriots battled British police and troops with stones and bottles Monday but finally were dispersed with tear gas.

The demonstration was timed to coincide with the opening of the Baghdad Pact meeting in Ankara where Cyprus Governor Sir High Foot has flown for talks with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The Turkish minority on Cyprus is violently opposed to demands by the Green majority for union with Greece. They apparently felt the governor was leaning too far toward the Greeks.

HISTORIC SCHOOL Quincy, Calif. — About 290 pupils are still going to school here in a frame structure built 100 years ago with $375 cash and a load of donated lumber. When the school, recently designated as an "historic landmark" by the state, opened in 1857, there were 19 students and one teacher.

DIMES FOR MOD—Park Arnold, president of Kiwanis International, here meets the March of Dimes poster twins. Dimes deposited during January in gum ball machines sponsored by Kiwanis clubs will be donated to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Machines in this area are sponsored by the Medford Kiwanis club.

What Is The Law?

This column is prepared as a public service by the College of Law, Willamette University, Salem, to explain basic legal principles, not to provide legal advice. The reader is cautioned not to apply these cases to his own problems without an attorney's advice, for differing facts may change the outcome.

Finders Are Not Always Keepers

Chambermaid Bessie B. found a stack of crisp dollar bills in one of the dresser drawers of the hotel room she was cleaning. She took the money to the hotel owner who put it in the hotel safe and advertised the finding in the local newspaper. After several weeks in which no one had claimed the money, Bessie brought a legal action against the hotel to recover it. But "finders weren't keepers" in this case, and the court held the hotel could keep the money unless it was claimed by the owner within the time prescribed by law.

In the first place, Bessie had a right to submit all found articles to the hotel management. Secondly, the money had obviously been placed in the drawer only a day or two before Bessie found it, and the hotel guest would probably remember where he had placed it and return for the money.

in the chicken house for a long time, the person who placed them there was probably dead.

When Joe stepped into Ye Fashion Shoppe, he picked up a shiny object from the floor and discovered that it was a diamond ring. He refused to give the ring to the proprietor of the store, and the proprietor brought legal action against Joe for the ring. The court held for Joe.

The court will usually favor the finder of an object rather than the owner of the land on which it was discovered. However, if the finder has promised to give all such articles to the owner or if the loser comes back to claim his property, then the court will not favor the finder. The phrase "finders keepers, losers weepers" has no legal foundation, for the law requires every effort be made to reunite the loser and his property. In Oregon the finding must be advertised and the loser has a year to claim his property.

Counting Board For Mothers' March Thursday Selected

A counting committee has been named for the Mother's March of Polio next Thursday night, it has been announced by Mrs. Harold Gilbert, Medford Mothers' March chairman.

Heading the committee will be Mrs. William Schei, who will be assisted by Orrin Brown, Mrs. Sam Colton, Mrs. Fred Conrad, Mrs. Bud Gail and Mrs. Edward Radquist. Aubrey Loper, treasurer of the Jackson county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, will furnish counting equipment and other assistance. Counting will take place at the Guild hall at St. Mark's Episcopal church. Capt. Clyde Fichtner of the city police and Lew Miles will handle telephone calls concerning contributions to be picked up and Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Brown will serve refreshments for the workers, Mrs. Gilbert said. The refreshments will be donated by the Welcome Wagon Bridge club.

The Medford Moose Lodge will conduct a protection patrol during the Mothers' March, from 7 to 8 p.m., according to Mrs. Gilbert. The lodge members will patrol streets and any mother who wishes protection as she canvasses her block is asked to telephone SP 2-8695. Lee Monroe is in charge of the protection patrols.

Mrs. Gilbert said that in past years there have been a few incidents of unqualified persons collecting contributions during the Mothers' March. Qualified workers are provided with a "Mothers' March on Polio" envelope which may serve as official identification, she pointed out.
