

TABLE ROCK River Damages Crops

By R. E. NEALON

Table Rock—At this writing the raging Rogue river is swirling along over farm lands on the Nealon, Taylor, Robinson and Leverette farms doing considerable damage to crops, fences and fertile soil which is being eroded and covered with debris, weed seeds and sand. The river is in such a swollen state that a continuation of the downpour would cause extensive damage.

Several local people attended the funeral Thursday in Ashland of the late Mrs. Ackash Davis, a former local resident, she and her husband and five children having resided here some 30 or more years ago, in a house located on what is now the Table Top Ranch, then belonging to Dunlap and Lydiard. Davis was a farm employer, the family living in a house which has since burned down near the road, and a few rods east of the big hay barn then used as a dairy barn.

Recent cattle sales at the Bill Bray auction yards have caused a lot of optimism among cattle men and farmers attending the sales. At a recent visit there we saw several price-squeezed farmers smoking cigars, some of whom heretofore had been satisfied with cigarettes and some who were forced to forgo them.

Charley Hoover, who doesn't indulge in such things, was treating his undernourished friends to pop and coffee, while he bid in a dozen likely looking shoats to enhance the looks of his dried pear piggery.

A man in search of land on which to set out an orchard was a visitor with land owners here this week.

The Walter Pirkey family, who have resided here for the past several years on what is known as the Stanley Vaughn farm moved last week to

Kapers Money to Go To Dental Clinic

Funds from the 1958 Medford Kiwanis Kapers will be used largely for financing the dental clinic at the county courthouse, Kapers Chairman Glen Allen has announced.

The show will be presented on Feb. 26, 27 and 28 and March 1 and is entitled "Krazy Kapers of 1958." Allen said the show again will be a musical production with eight or nine scenes in the first half of the presentation and the Kiwanis and novelty numbers in the last half.

A director from Hollywood, Calif., is to arrive Saturday and immediately will begin selection talent for the production. A talent party for Kiwanis club members and their wives is set for 7 p.m. Saturday in the band room in Medford High school.

Program advertising committees are now at work and tickets are on sale. Tickets may be obtained from any Kiwanian.

One light year is approximately six trillion miles.

per cent sales tax is levied for building and supporting schools for Negroes which, according to our informant, are strictly modern, some being equipped with swimming pools.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turner of Ashland were callers at the J. S. Richardson home last Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dawson of Valley View visited the Richardson's Monday. Dawson raises several hundred lambs each year, besides buying a large number to feed for the market which he says he hit at the wrong time this year, prices being much higher now than when he sold.

Sunday visitors at the R. E. Nealon home were Mr. and Mrs. James Cornutt and Mrs. Emma Houston of Kanes creek, Mr. and Mrs. Orage Houston and family of Trail, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Houston of Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sage and family, and Mrs. Sage's mother, Mrs. Kostarelos of Medford.

Table Rock Ladies club will hold their regular meeting Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Smith, with Jim Gann and Mrs. Robert Dunn assisting.

At the meeting of the Sams Valley Grange, Jan. 25, a resolution was endorsed asking that facilities at Camp White Domiciliary be made a complete 400 bed general medical and surgical hospital, also it was voted to petition the county court as to the naming of the old road through Sams Valley, and asking that the name of Perry rd be given to the road going across from near the Lester James farm to a meeting with the north Beagle rd. Signs were posted last fall at each end of this road giving it the name of Rabbitville rd., but after vigorous protests from farmers along the route, the signs were taken down. Years ago a man started a store at the south end of this road, and on account of the heavy jack rabbit population, called it the Rabbitville store, which probably accounts for the recent naming. The store is a thing of the past, the rabbits have long since vanished, so the undignified name is no more appropriate, so say the dwellers there.

The J. L. Pullman family, who have lived in the Ray Baker house since last August, will be moving in the near future and are now looking for a four bedroom house to buy or rent, preferably put in the rural area, but not too distant from Medford, where Pullman works. They are vacating, so that the Ray Baker family, the owners, can move in.
