

Southern Oregon Raiders Rap Eastern Oregonians

Ashland—Southern Oregon college hoopers pulled away in the second half to clip Eastern Oregon 78 to 71 here Friday night and retain their share of the Oregon Collegiate conference leadership with Oregon Technical Institute.

The Owls of OTI smashed PSC 64 to 34.

SOC's Raiders held the lead most of the first half against EOC but the Mountaineers rallied for a 40 to 37 halftime advantage. Two minutes into the second half Southern Oregon had the game locked at 47-all. The Ashland collegians spurted out from there and had bulges of 10 points most of the rest of the fray.

Bill Hollingsworth regained his scoring stride for the Raiders with 22 markers and SOC's Jim McAbee had 20. Larry Howard had 16 and Dick Quinn put in 14 for EOC.

Player	W.	L.
Neel, f.	4	4
Baxter, f.	2	3
Parsons, c.	2	3
Howard, g.	2	3
Quinn, g.	2	3
Arritola, f.	2	3
O'Connell, f.	1	1
Paulson, f.	0	0
Vedder, f.	0	0
Courtney, f.	0	0
Totals	28	15

Player	W.	L.
D'Olive, f.	5	2
Oliva, f.	4	5
Hollingsworth, c.	3	4
Maurer, g.	3	4
McAbee, g.	3	4
Southernland, f.	0	0
Crundall, f.	0	0
Foust, f.	0	0
Tenny, f.	0	0
Love, f.	0	0
Totals	39	18

SKIING CONDITIONS

Powdered snow was reported at Crater Lake National park late yesterday, the park service reported. No new snow was reported, and there were 143 inches on the ground, compared to 66 inches last year and 122 inches in 1956. Chains were advised on Highway 62 and from Annie Springs to the rim. The warming but will be open today, park service officials said.

HOCKEY

AMERICAN LEAGUE

By United Press

The Rochester Americans, driving hard for a playoff berth in the American Hockey league, have cleared their first hurdle in a tough week end schedule.

In the only AHL action Friday night, the Americans came from behind to nip the Buffalo Bisons, 4-3, at Rochester.

Brookings headed 17 to 12 at the quarter and 29 to 24 at the half but Eagle Point, picking up in its rebounding and sparked by the shooting of Turner and Bill Hubbard, hopped on top 43 to 39 in the third canto.

The Eagles were cold as the final chukker opened and Brookings caught up at 45-all. Fox with 19 and Bill Workinger with 14 were the Bruin chief scorers while Turner had 15 and Hubbard 11 for EP. Hubbard did a good job as replacement for usual starter Wayne Christian. Ron Veach and Christian, EP regulars saw limited services because of illnesses earlier in the week. Christian played half the game and Veach

Free shots made the difference on the scoreboard. The Cavemen put in 19 of 20 attempts and Ashland 11 for 19. Ashland 16 field goals to 14 for Grants Pass.

Jerry Putnam topped all scorers with 26 and for the Cavemen Bill Maurer had 16 and Leo Daniels 14 for Ashland.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

Brookings, Glendale Keep Rogue Lead; Phoenix Wins

much less.

Brookings used its front line height for rebounding advantage in the first half.

Stout Paces

Jim Stout hit three consecutive goals to help Phoenix pull away from IV after a close first quarter. The Pirates moved the ball well, got good shots and hit with a fine degree of accuracy. Gary Simmons, high shooter with 21 points, picked up 14 of them to kingpin the second half offense.

Quarter margins for Phoenix were 12 to 8, 32 to 17 and 50 to 33. Stout followed Simmons with 13 markers and Mike Hanby had 12 for IV.

Eagle Point nudged Brookings 39 to 38 in the junior varsity preliminary with a Bob Berryman bucket with five seconds remaining. Steve Charters had 16 points for the Eagles.

Phoenix jayvees won their game 43 to 34. Don MacKintosh had 14 points. It was the 10th straight win since the JV club lost to the Yreka, Calif., lightweights at the start of the season.

LINE-UPS:

53 Brookings Eagle Point 52
 F 15 Bullock Turner 15
 F 14 Workinger Hubbard 11
 C 10 Fox Nelson 9
 G 8 Midwood Smith 8
 Substitutions — For Brookings, Western 2, Campbell, for Eagle Point, Christian 2, Chamberlain 2, Veach, Gerbing, Knudsen, Cooper.

65 Phoenix Ill. Valley 42
 F 21 Simmons Whiteley 6
 F 8 Schleicher Slanaker 2
 F 3 M. Bullock Woodbury 3
 C 13 Stout Hanby 3
 G 7 Heath Dickey 2
 Substitutions — For Phoenix, Wallace 4, Taylor 1, Hamilton 6, Waldron 2, Daugherty, for Illinois Valley, Ollis 2, Rauber, Davis, England, Hovater, Lewis 10.

Standings:

W. L. Pct.
 Brookings 5 1 .333
 Glendale 4 2 .667
 Phoenix 3 3 .500
 Illinois Valley 3 3 .500
 Rogue River 0 6 .000

Brookings barely nipped Eagle Point high 53 to 52 and Glendale romped 61 to 42 over Rogue River Friday night to stay ahead in Rogue league basketball contention while Phoenix held to its third spot status by pounding Illinois Valley 65 to 42.

Jerry Fox sank two free chances with 10 seconds to go to break a 51-each knot for the Bruins of Brookings. Bill Turner of the Eagles had opportunity to tie the mix with three seconds left but missed the bonus after making the initial shot on a one-and-one foul.

A jump ball followed the second gift try. Eagle Point controlled the tip but Turner's last second field attempt didn't go in.

Brookings headed 17 to 12 at the quarter and 29 to 24 at the half but Eagle Point, picking up in its rebounding and sparked by the shooting of Turner and Bill Hubbard, hopped on top 43 to 39 in the third canto.

The Eagles were cold as the final chukker opened and Brookings caught up at 45-all. Fox with 19 and Bill Workinger with 14 were the Bruin chief scorers while Turner had 15 and Hubbard 11 for EP. Hubbard did a good job as replacement for usual starter Wayne Christian. Ron Veach and Christian, EP regulars saw limited services because of illnesses earlier in the week. Christian played half the game and Veach

Free shots made the difference on the scoreboard. The Cavemen put in 19 of 20 attempts and Ashland 11 for 19. Ashland 16 field goals to 14 for Grants Pass.

Jerry Putnam topped all scorers with 26 and for the Cavemen Bill Maurer had 16 and Leo Daniels 14 for Ashland.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.

Phoenix, Ariz. — Ken Venturi took over the third round lead in the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 54-hole total of 204 after a round of 66 Saturday.

While second-day leader Jay Herbert, of Sanford, Fla., played fine golf and sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 69 and 205, Venturi stole the leadship with one of the finest rounds of the tournament.