No Player Receives Ballots Necessary To Gain Fame Hall

By BOB SALMON
Boston—Baseball immortality will have to wait at least another year for some of the game's greatest stars.

est honor was former Pittsburgh Pirate and Brooklyn Dodger Max Carey, one of the game's most amazing base-runners and base stealers. But Carey, now 68, only polled 136 votes, 63 shy of the 199 needed this year.

Simmons Still Has Lead in PCC

Los Angeles—The Pacific Coast Conference scoring race was practically a two-man affair today involving Idaho's Gary Simmons and Washington's Doug Smart, according to statistics released by the PCC office.

George Yardley Tabulates 52

By United Press
With a little luck, George Yardley of the Detroit Pistons, the National Basketball Association's top scorer, can become the first player to score 2,000 points in a single season.

Hennon 3rd Pitt Cager To Hit 1,000

By UNITED PRESS
Based on the slick way he's operating on his opponents this season, little Don Hennon of Pittsburgh should develop into a respected surgeon.

Red Raiders Oppose OTI

Ashland—Southern Oregon college heads over the hump today for an evening basketball scramble with Oregon Tech which is almost make or break in the Oregon Collegiate conference.

NASHUA'S FIRST FOAL—This blaze-faced colt arrived at Mereworth Farm in Lexington, Ky., shortly before midnight, and looked around in wonder as his mother "Windmill" tried to nudge him to his feet a few minutes after his birth.

Portland Pilots Top Idaho State Quintet

By GENE BRYANT
United Press Sports Writer
The surprising Portland university Pilots were back on the victory ledger again today after posting a 63-58 upset win over a strong Idaho State five at Vancouver, Wash.

The Oregonians, who had dropped a pair of heartbreakers to Seattle last week after dumping nationally-ranked Bradley on a Midwest tour, fought off a last ditch rally by the Bengals Tuesday night to hand the visitors their first loss in the last eleven games.

Phil Woolpert To Be Speaker

Portland—Phil Woolpert, coach of the University of San Francisco Dons basketball team, will be principal speaker at Thursday night's banquet of the Oregon Sports-writers and Sportscasters association.

Dupas Takes On Ortega Tonight

Norfolk, Va.—Lightweight contender Ralph Dupas is favored at 11-5 to beat welterweight contender George Ortega tonight in the TV fight at Municipal auditorium.

SOX SIGN NOONAN

Chicago—The Chicago White Sox today announced the signing of right hander George Noonan, a former pitcher with St. John's university who was on the 1956 NCAA college all-star team. Noonan, 23, was signed as a free agent. He pitched for Reading in the Eastern league and Port Arthur, Tex., in 1956.

BASILIO GOES THREE

Miami Beach, Fla.—Middleweight Champion Carmen Basilio boxed three rounds Tuesday in opening heavy-duty training for his return title fight with Ray Robinson March 25. It was his first workout since last September when he beat Robinson for the title.

Irish Pat Loses To Besmanoff

Seattle—Tough Willie Besmanoff used a busy left jab and effective counter-punching Tuesday night to score a split decision over sixth-ranked but reluctant Irish Pat McMurry in a 10-round heavyweight match here.

King Ineligible At California

Berkeley, Calif.—Leon King, whose flying feet couldn't keep up with academic requirements, apparently was finished today as a sprinter for the University of California.
