Junior High Hoop Fives Nab Frays

McLoughlin Junior high ninth grade evened the count for previous defeat and Hedrick ninth also won in basketball competition on Tuesday.

McLoughlin's Bulldogs rapped Crater freshmen 46 to 36. The Hornets beat Ashland 31 to 24.

Hustling play featured the performance of the Bulldogs who got fine offensive work from Bob Quinney and Dick Ragsdale and strong defense from Phil Baird, Jerry Winetrou, Quinney and Ragsdale. It was the top effort of the season for the McLoughlin club which is 8-2 for the season and 5-2 against teams of the larger schools in the Southern Oregon conference.

Ragsdale had 20 points with good driving action and held down the Crater ace, Loyal Higinbotham, who topped the Comets with 11 markers. Quinney had 18 for the Bulldogs.

McLoughlin had 17 to 13, 29 to 21 and 40 to 30 quarter spreads. The Bulldogs yielded the first points to the Comets but took the lead after that.

Hedrick, now 6-2 against larger schools, managed only two points in the second quarter but Ashland headed 15 to 12 at halftime. In the third stanza Hedrick regained the lead 24 to 20.

Dan Sieg of Hedrick and Elmo Crasper of Ashland each had 10 points.

Hedrick ninth reserves meet Phoenix here Thursday at 4:30 p.m. while the seventh and eighth go to Ashland for Friday play. McLoughlin seventh and eighth host Central Point Thursday afternoon.

Dons Club St. Mary's In WC Play

By UNITED PRESS

The third-ranked University of San Francisco Dons are standing 10 feet tall in the West Coast Athletic conference today—and probably won't shrink an inch by the time the regional NCAA Basketball playoffs roll around.

Proving once again that 13 is just another number, the Dons romped over St. Mary's, 69-49. It was their 13th straight victory, the 16th in 17 games, and virtually clinched their fourth straight crown.

A victory for St. Mary's would have gained the Gaels a tie with USC for first—but the loss dropped them into third place, as Santa Clara moved into second with a 60-48 win over College of Pacific.

Coach Phil Woolpert's Dons weren't taking any chances on bad luck. They grabbed a 15-4 lead on St. Mary's, were in front 31-12 at half time and coasted home. St. Mary's Dick Sigaty led the scoring with 18 points, while Gene Brown had 16 for the winners.

Reserves played much of the game for Talent. Jacksonville and Butte Falls were tied at 40 each after three cantos. The Redskins hopped in front but Butte Falls knotted the game again at 42 and 44. Eldon Smith's long shot for 46 to 44 with about five minutes to play put the "Skins on top for keeps and they padded out the score in the last couple of minutes.

Weiss Blasts Yankee Stars

St. Petersburg, Fla. — Casey Stengel insisted today he "ain't mad at anybody, but..."

Then he went on to tell three of his Yankee stars — Mickey Mantle, Whitey Ford and Bob Turley — they were rather fool-hardy to risk injuries by playing in a benefit baseball game this early in the spring.

Stengel, supervising the Yankees' rookie school here, made his comments after General Manager George Weiss in New York had criticized Mantle, Ford and Turley for appearing in a charity game at Key West, Fla., last Sunday.

The game was staged by the Major League Baseball Players' association and all proceeds were earmarked for old-time ball players and their widows.

No Cause Worth Risks

"No doubt it was a worthy cause," Stengel said, "but none of our players should have risked their arms and legs no matter how worthy the cause."

UP Frosh Beat Rook Quintet

Portland — The University of Portland Frosh handed the Oregon State Rooks a surprisingly one-sided 71-47 basketball defeat here Tuesday night.

The Portland yearlings took a 31-24 halftime lead and increased it in the second half.

Doug Stewart with 22 points and Frank Adler with 13 led the winners. Karl Anderson, towering Rook center, was held to 10 points while Mike Carson hit 18 for the Rooks.

The Harlem Roadkings suffered defeat at the hands of Big Y market of Medford despite the 30 plus tabulations by two of the traveling players. Big Y, champ of the Medford Independent League, dropped the colored aggregation 94 to 82.

During the first quarter the Roadkings clowned quite a bit but after that they didn't

Syracuse Beats Celts 5th Time

By UNITED PRESS

If the Syracuse Nationals could play as well against the other National Basketball association clubs as they do against Boston, they wouldn't be six and one-half games behind the Eastern division pacesetter Celtics.

The Nats, with Larry Costello showing the way with 28 points, whipped the Celtics for the fifth time in 10 tries Tuesday night, 84-76, in the first game of a twin-bill in Philadelphia. The Philadelphia Warriors tripped the Detroit Pistons, 115-98, in the nightcap.

Pilots Trip Montanans

Portland — The Portland Pilots foiled a Montana State full court press in the second half and pumped in half the shots they attempted to defeat the Bobcats, 74-63, in a non-conference basketball game here Tuesday night.

Portland took the initial lead and kept in front throughout the first half with the biggest margin seven points. Montana State was cold in the first half and only forward Larry Chanay, who got 12 points, had his eye.

The Pilots were ahead at the intermission 35-28. The Pilots pulled away in the second half after the score was tied at 41-all and 43-all.

Ray Scott, six foot-nine inch freshman center, took game honors with 28 points followed by guard Dick Jolley who had 22. Jim Armstrong got 14 points. For Montana State, Chanay was high with 18.

Joey Giardello In Favored Role

Philadelphia — Tough Joey Giardello was a 4-1 choice today to retain his top middleweight ranking against unrated but explosive Frank Suzuzina in a nationally televised 10-round bout at the Philadelphia Arena tonight.

The odds favored Giardello because of a split decision over Suzuzina last July at Milwaukee.

GIPSON VICTOR

Portland — Ernie Gipson of Portland scored an eight-round knockout over Howard Meredith of Albany in their bout at the Eagles hall here Tuesday night. In prelims decided by decisions Virgil Dyer, Portland, won from Carl Southwick, Portland; Hugh Williams, Portland, won over Bill Lordus, Portland; and Freddie Mack, Estacada, won from Bobby Wright, Portland. Bull Halsey, Portland, and Harvey Burke, Portland, drew.

Mixed Tourney Gets Underway

Jupiter, Fla. — The medalists ran into rugged competition today in the first round of the National Mixed Foursome golf tournament on the 6,627-yard Tequesta Country club course.

Joanne Goodwin of Haverhill, Mass., and Jim McHale of Philadelphia tied with Barbara McIntire of Lake Park, Fla., and Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N. C., for medal honors Tuesday. Both teams shot one-over-par 72's.

Today, the Goodwin-McHale team was scheduled to meet Mrs. Grant Messinger of Denton, Tex., and Frank Jones, Dallas, Tex., who had a 77 Tuesday.

The McIntire-Chapman duo faced Nan Berry of Quincy, Ill., and Billy Watts, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who also chalked up a 77 in the qualifying round.
