Nancy Lee Arant Married To Arnold Rodney Dillon

Miss Nancy Lee Arant became the bride of Arnold Rodney Dillon in a single ring wedding ceremony held Friday, February 14, at West Main Church of Christ, Medford. Elder H. O. Martin officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arant, Table Rock road. Mr. Dillon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dillon, Central Point.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon over white taffeta frock with fingertip length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Sandra Kay Arant, Medford, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, while Miss Nancy Jane Dillon, Central Point, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

Music for the wedding was two vocal selections recorded by the aunt of the bride, Mrs. R. E. Woods of Yakima, Wash., for the occasion.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Clarence Gray cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Amel Paul poured the coffee and Miss Jane Daniels presided at the punch bowl. Miss Ramona Baugh was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Arant chose a blue silk print dress with white accessories. Mrs. Dillon wore a navy polka dot frock with red accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias.

The couple are making their home at 710 Dakota avenue, apartment B, Medford. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed as a clerk at California Oregon Power company. Mr. Dillon is a graduate of Crater High school and is an apprentice brick mason with the Carl Dillon Masonry company.

Present for the wedding was Mrs. Minnie A. Mortenson, grandmother of the bridegroom from California.

To Hold Session Applegate — Mrs. Louis Jones will be hostess for a meeting of Applegate valley Garden club at her home Wednesday, February 19, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Edward Ramsay will speak on construction of cold frames and the starting of both flower and vegetable seeds for spring transplanting. Everyone interested is invited.

Seventeen guests attended the informal home ceremony, and wedding refreshments followed the rites.

The newlyweds will live at 815½ Cedar street, Medford. The bride attended school in Unionville, and the bridegroom was educated in Tolleson, Ariz. He operates a welding shop in this city.

Rites Held In Salem Wed Couple

Salem—Miss Patricia Anne Miller became the bride of Stanley Michael Purcell Jr., in a ceremony held Saturday, February 15, in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Salem. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith C. Miller, Scio, Ore., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Purcell, Medford.

Father Vincent Cuniff performed the rites at two o'clock in the afternoon and Mr. Miller escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride wore a gown of lace over taffeta with beaded lace bodice and tulle sleeves appliqued with lace side panels, sunburst pleated tulle front and a cascade of ruffles in the back forming a train. Her flowers were white orchids and white hyacinths in a shower. The bride designed and made her gown.

Miss Rosemary Rhoten, Salem, was honor attendant for her cousin, and bridesmaids and matrons were Miss Marda Glee Miller, sister of the bride, Mrs. Jerry Ligon, Corvallis and Mrs. Raymond Moore, Portland, sorority sisters of the bride. Their ballerina length frocks were fashioned with bodices of red lace over taffeta, short sleeves and full neck skirts. They carried white carnations.

Bruce Michels, Salem, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Palmer Byrkit, Beaverton, Ore., William Davis, Idylwild Park, and Charles Ashpole, Eugene. Baskets of white blossoms decorated the church.

The reception which followed was in the Green room of the Hotel Marion. Red anthurium and white stock decorated the room and tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell are spending their honeymoon on the Oregon coast. The bride's traveling attire was a blue sheath dress with black accessories.

The bride, who attended Scio High school and Oregon State college, is on the staff of Thomson and Warner, Certified Public accountants of Albany, Ore. The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school, is now student at Oregon State college.
