Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Charles Hathaway are making their home in Kelowna, British Columbia, following their wedding Tuesday, February 4, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCarty, 2618 Table Rock road, Medford. The bride is the former Edith Doreen Hanson. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hathaway of Kelowna.

Elder John Trude of Medford Seventh-day Adventist church officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony attended by fifty relatives and friends. Pink and white snapdragons and lighted candles decorated the home for the ceremony. Mrs. Walter Doherty, Gold Hill, played the wedding music, and Alvy Bowman, Medford, sang.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a frock of ice pink net and lace over white taffeta. It was fashioned ballerina length with fitted bodice and tiered bouffant skirt. Her short veil fell from a seed pearl crown and she carried pink carnations and orchids.

Miss Kathleen McCarty attended her sister. She wore a white nylon and blue dot frock over white taffeta with blue satin cummerbund that tied in back. She carried blue and white carnations.

Miss Dolores Shollenburg, Portland, lighted the candles. Leroy Nogle served as best man and Daniel Miracle seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McCarty wore a black taffeta faille frock with gold accents and a corsage of pink carnations and hollyhocks. Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. George Beltz cut and served the wedding cake, baked and decorated by Miss Sharon Bowa, Miss Carolyn Bigger, and Miss Judy Beltz. Mrs. Tom Kennedy presided at the silver punch bowl. Mrs. David Haradon was in charge of the guest book and was assisted by Mrs. Forrest Bigger at the gift table.

The bride attended Rogue River academy and Portland Sanatorium hospital where she was a nursing student. Mr. Hathaway attended Kelowna, British Columbia, schools and is employed by Simpson, Sears of Kelowna. The couple left for Kelowna following the wedding, the bride wearing a brown wool knit suit.

Group Honors Raymond Harnish

Raymond Harnish, Eagle Point, was honored Tuesday evening by the Oregon State Employees association at a meeting held in Medford at the Carpenter's hall. The occasion was Mr. Harnish's 65th birthday. He will retire from state service at the end of the month.

He has been with the Oregon Highway commission since 1923 and foreman of the Eagle Point section since 1935. Mr. Harnish, who has a ranch in the Eagle Point area, plans to travel.

At the meeting Mr. Harnish was presented a set of luggage. He has been a member of the association since it was organized.

More than 40 members attended the meeting.

Valentine Party Held Monday

The annual St. Valentine dinner party of Scottish Rite Women's club was held Monday night in the Masonic temple, with about 100 Scottish Rite women and their escorts attending.

The rooms were decorated with large red and white valentines.

The buffet table had an arrangement of hearts and flowers and tall red tapers. Other tables were decorated with red and white streamers and red tapers. Red and white valentines marked each place.

Preceding the dinner, Charles F. Hoppe led the group in singing the Dooology.

During the evening the women played cards, with the high bridge score going to Mrs. Harry F. Nordwick, the pinocle prize to Mrs. Kenneth C. Pickens, and the canasta award to Mrs. John C. Smith.

Other awards were given Mrs. Lewis W. Kilbourne, Central Point; Frank W. Mattson, Grants Pass; Mrs. Cleveland A. Weston, Rogue River; and Mrs. Edward C. Root.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Roger E. Westerfield, Mrs. Cyril L. Still, Mrs. Pickens, Mrs. Elmo P. Atterbury, Mrs. C. Keith Edwards, Mrs. L. Dale Edwards, Mrs. Donald S. Edwards, Mrs. Harry G. White, Mrs. Robert H. Worall, Rogue River, and Mrs. John P. Dickson.

Scottish Rite Masons held a stated meeting in the Lodge of Perfection, with Venerable Master Knute H. Lindgren, officiating, and a stated meeting in the Chapter of Rose Croix, with Willard E. Hunter presiding.

The seventh degree of Scottish Rite Freemasonry was presented to a class of candidates by Ross R. McVay and cast from Grants Pass.

After this the men joined the women for a coffee hour.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Frank D. Salyers, junior past president of the women's club, Mrs. Fred H. Graten, Mrs. James A. Grigby, Eagle Point, Mrs. Erwin C. Hoffman, Gold Hill, and Mrs. Leslie C. Scott, Central Point. The next meeting for Scottish Rite Women's club will be Monday, February 24, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple, with Mrs. Nordwick chairman.

All Scottish Rite Masons wives, widows, mothers, daughters, and sisters are welcome.

Scottish Rite Masons will have a stated meeting in the council, and a stated meeting in the consistory, and the ninth and tenth degrees of Scottish Rite will be conferred upon a class of candidates.

Storm-Beattie Rites Announced

Shady Cove—Mrs. Helen Orr Beattie, Shady Cove, became the bride of Archie Storm, also of this town, in a ceremony held Sunday, February 9, at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Rhey Rhodes, Portland. The bride is a daughter of William MacDougall, Banning, Calif., and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Roy Long, Woodburn, Ore.

The single-ring service, held at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, was celebrated by a Presbyterian minister with only the immediate members of the bridegroom's family present.

Mr. and Mrs. Long, parents of the bridegroom, were the attendants.

The newlyweds are now living at their home on Rogue River drive, Shady Cove. Mr. Storm has lived in the valley a good part of his life and Mrs. Storm came to Shady Cove from California about a year and a half ago. Mr. Storm is employed by Tucker Sno-Cat company, Medford.
