

Grants Pass District Mat Victor; Funston Champion

Grants Pass—Grants Pass high won the Southern Oregon district wrestling tournament, which was completed here Saturday, copping six individual championships and five second places to qualify 11 men for the state tournament next week end at Corvallis.

Klamath Falls was runner-up in team points with five Pelicans winning in their weights and four others claiming seconds for nine state spots.

Medford took third place and will have Jim Funston and Gary Heath in the state meet and Crater, with a fourth place finish, qualified Butch Barber and Mike Martin for the trip to Corvallis.

Team scores were Grants Pass 214, Klamath Falls 177, Medford 88, Crater 48, Glendale 47, Illinois Valley 32, Henley 17 and Ashland and Eagle Point each eight.

Heath Second

Funston was Medford's lone champion. He decided Bill Cole, Grants Pass, 6-1 in the unlimited weight finals of the two-day district finals. Heath took second place in the 178-pound division by defeating Clayton, Brookings, in the consolation finale. The win came after Heath had dropped a 3-1 nod to Larry Drake, Grants Pass, in the championship bracket finals.

Crater's Barber lost to Bob LaCombe, Grants Pass, in a 98-pound title bracket conclusion and then defeated McKinney, Henley, in consolation for No. 2 spot in the weight. Martin, 193, fared similarly. John Hancock, Klamath, took the class crown from him but Martin bettered Reed Daugherty, for second position.

After Cole lost to Funston he defeated Tom Morris, Medford, for second individual place in the heavyweight division. John Taberna, Crater, was a championship finalist at 130 pounds. He dropped the tussle to Richard Johnson, Grants Pass. Taberna, then was beaten by Valle, Grants Pass, in consolation.

Grants Pass won the team toga for the first time in eight seasons of competition. It was the first time Klamath has not taken the district crown.

CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS:

98—Bob LaCombe, GP, pinned Butch Barber, Cr.

106—Chuck Marmolejo, IV, dec. John Taberna, Cr. 3-2

113—Larry Bender, KF, dec. Dan Denesley, Glen.

123—Gilbert Roberts, KF, pinned Jim Schultz, KF.

130—Richard Johnson, GP, dec. John Taberna, Cr. 3-2

136—Dick Byrd, GP, dec. Jerry Hull, GP.

141—Richie Condray, GP, dec. Larry Alexander, KF.

148—Harold Day, KF, dec. Lynn Cheney, GP.

157—Wendell Winterbottom, GP, dec. Larry Badorek, KF.

168—Gene Baxter, KF, pinned Dave Mocabee, KF.

178—Larry Drake, GP, dec. Gary Heath, M. 3-1

193—John Hancock, KF, dec. Mike Martin, GP.

Unlimited—Jim Funston, M, dec. Bill Cole, GP. 6-1.

SECOND PLACE RUN-OFF:

98—Barber, Cr. beat McKinney, Henley, GP.

106—McFarland, KF, beat McIntyre, GP.

113—Denesley, Glen., beat Goff, GP.

123—Schultz, KF, beat Rosenberger, IV, GP.

130—Valle, GP, beat Taberna, Cr.

136—Hull, GP, beat Long, KF.

141—Alexander, KF, beat Long, KF.

148—Gibson, GP, beat Cheney, GP.

157—Badorek, KF, beat Grizel, GP.

168—Spence, GP, beat Mocabee, KF.

178—Heath, M, beat Clayton, Brook.

193—Martin, Cr. beat Daugherty, GP.

Unlimited—Cole, GP, beat Tom Morris, M.

Prep Scores

SATURDAY BASKETBALL
By United Press

Mac-Hi 68, John Day 43
Pendleton 52, Walla Walla 50
Madras 49, Burns 44
Grants Pass 54, Crater 43
Astoria 44, Milwaukie 34
Hermiston 43, La Grande 39
So. Eugene 71, Cottage Grove 48
Bend 63, Sisters 33
Baker 61, The Dalles 50
Springfield 42, Roseburg 38
Mosier 38, Cascade Lock 36
Prineville 49, Redmond 43
Klamath Falls 70, Ashland 37
Brookings 50, Rogue River 41
Harrisburg 39, Philomath 35
Sherman 52, Corbett 46
Star of the Sea 62, Concordia 53

Hoad Stretches Tennis Margin

Evanson, Ill. — Lew Hoad, the Aussie who turned pro last year, widened his margin over Pancho Gonzales during the week end in their international struggle for the pro tennis championship.

Hoad defeated Gonzales, the defending champ, twice in matches in McGaw hall in Northwestern university.

The blond Aussie whipped Gonzales, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, Saturday and then easily won in straight sets Sunday, 6-4, 6-4.

The victories gave Hoad a 13-7 lead over Gonzales in their tennis tour.

PUC MAN DIES
Tallahassee, Fla.—Funeral services will be held here Tuesday for Fred Pettijohn, 76, long-time head of the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission. He died Sunday.

Portland Staters Clip Red Raiders

SPORTS

Linfield Lead Again

NWC STANDINGS

Linfield	7	2	777
Willamette	6	3	727
Lewis and Clark	6	3	555
College of Idaho	5	7	416
Whitman	5	7	416
Pacific	3	10	230

By UNITED PRESS
Linfield lost — and won back—the top spot in the Northwest basketball conference over the week-end by dropping a Friday night decision to Willamette but bouncing back Saturday to post an 86-81 win at McMinnville.

Jack Riley dunked 27 points and Bill Machamer poured in 23 to rally the Bears to their seventh conference win against two losses. The Wildcats have an 8-3 loop record.

In other action, last place Pacific bit Whitman, 67-57, Saturday, and Lewis and Clark dumped College of Idaho 70-62.

The Pioneers are in third place in the conference with a 6-5 mark and C of I is the fourth-ranked team with five wins against seven defeats.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Ruch Woolies
The Ruch Woolies had a meeting at Lona Buffington's house. Our leader passed out pamphlets to the club members on sheep. Then we decided when to have our meetings. The next meeting will be at Mary Anne Cantrall's house on Feb. 24. Anybody who would like to come to our meeting is welcome.

Robert Straube, Reporter

Antelope 4-H Club
Feb. 11 the meeting of the Antelope 4-H club was called to order.

Under new business, Jo Anna Malloroy moved that the club buy Hoard's Dairyman Cow Judging Kits for more practice of the Dairy club. Edyth Bohnett and Nyla Murray reported on leaders and junior leaders conference that was held at Corvallis. Bill Bigham handed out record books and David Woolfolk explained them. Mr. Malloroy announced he had the books for the 4-H tractor program and the boys could get to work.

The next meeting will be March 14. On the refreshment committee for next time are Woolfolks, V. Gardner and Higdys. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served.

Betty Ann Higiday, Reporter

Howard Bake-n-Stitchers
The Howard Bake-n-Stitchers held their meeting at Linda Chisum's home on Feb. 4. Mrs. Chisum and Mrs. Stever showed us what to do in our sewing. One new member joined our club. Her name is Inez Long. We now have nine members. Next meeting will be on Feb. 25 at the home of Sue Stever, 248 Mace rd.

Carol Millard, Reporter

Kooking Kays
The Kooking Kays held a meeting Feb. 6. We had a new member, Judy Guss. The leader did a few demonstrations.

Our next meeting will be Feb. 20.

Tylene Evans, Reporter

Applegate Knit-units
The Applegate Knit-units held their regular meeting at the home of Linda Pitoc. We called the meeting to order and filled out part of the program of work and decided to have a white elephant sale. The meeting was adjourned and we worked on our projects. Refreshments were served, which ended the meeting.

Linda Pitoc, Reporter

Sam's Thumpers
Sam's Thumpers, Talent Rabbit club, will hold their meeting at Dean Sommer's home Sunday, Feb. 16. This is an important meeting, and all members are asked to attend. Anyone interested in joining the club also is invited.

Linda Sommer, Reporter

SCHOOL NEWS

Medford High School

Edited by Karen Sloniger; Staff: Roxie Sisemore, Joan Laurila, Inger Palmquist, Allen Cone and Judy Wayland.

Appointive offices for Student Government day were chosen at meetings of the mayor and councilmen last Monday and Tuesday. Students chosen were Gladys Beddo, city manager; Sue Knight, recorder-treasurer; Jim Corum, administrative assistant; Dick Durante, city engineer and public works director; Bill Foote, airport manager and purchasing agent; Dick Sorenson, chief of police; Jerry Kerr (St. Mary's) fire chief; Steve Morris, city attorney; and Tom Alley, municipal judge.

Students will be sworn in Feb. 19, at a banquet for all student and city officials. The student officials will run the city government Thursday.

The Girls' Athletic association is planning a ski party, according to Gail Prentice, president. It is estimated that about 15 members will travel to the Siskiyou Feb. 16 for a day in the snow.

At a Future Nurses of America meeting Feb. 13 after school Miss Frances Klink and Mrs. Martin were guest speakers. Miss Klink showed a film on public health nursing and also showed slides on the Jackson County Health movements. Mrs. Martin spoke on the type of education one has to obtain in order to become a public health nurse. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Seniors at MHS are awaiting the results of the recently compiled senior ratings. Each year at the end of the first term Mrs. Elsie Butler compiles senior standings on the basis of semester grades earned by students from their freshman year up to and including their first semester grades in their senior year.

About 40 boys responded to Coach John Koven's call for baseball players this week. More players are expected to report after the basketball and wrestling seasons are completed. Pitchers and catchers will start working out immediately but general practice sessions won't start until about March 1.

A list of the names and addresses of all seniors was posted on the bulletin board in the main hall this week. All seniors were asked to check their names carefully and report any changes or errors to the office, as this is the way the names will appear on the diplomas at graduation.

Miss Betty Lou Dunlop, Southern Oregon college professor, spoke to future teachers at a special meeting of the FTA Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Miss Dunlop gave pointers on what to note on the observation day to be held soon.

Many members of the YMCA's various youth groups attended a pre-legislative assembly at Southern Oregon college Saturday. The meeting was held to elect a governor and other officials for the student legislative assembly to be held in Salem soon.

Junior and senior lifesaving courses begin this week at the YMCA. The junior lifesaving class will be held from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday for nine weeks and is open to both boys and girls aged 12 through 15. The senior course will be held only on Thursdays, open to everyone more than 15 years of age. Red Cross and YMCA lifesaving certificates will be awarded to all who complete the course.

Advanced art students will leave Friday morning on a field trip to Portland. They will visit many places of interest including the University of Oregon Art department and Seibert's Furniture store in Beaverton.

Saturday evening, they will attend the regional scholastic art awards banquet sponsored by Lipman-Wolfe of Portland.

"Swinging Sweethearts" was the theme of a dance held Friday night at the YMCA. Another dance entitled "For the Remaining Hearts" was held Saturday night. Both dances were from 8:30 to 11:45.

PLAN FOUNDER DIES
New York.—The founder and president of the Tuition Plan, Inc., Rudolph Neuberger, 65, died Saturday at Mount Sinai hospital in New York. The Tuition Plan, which he established 20 years ago, permits parents to pay for the education of their children in monthly installments.

Phoenix High School

Edited by Lola Good, Sandy Skinner

Tests were given Thursday, Feb. 13, to seniors of Phoenix High school who are not planning to go on to college. The tests were given to help students make plans for some kind of work which they are able to do after graduation.

This is a free service given annually by the Medford Unemployment Service to all high schools throughout Jackson county.

The information obtained from the survey will help back students to get seasonal and permanent jobs. The students were tested on their accuracy, speed, and coordination, all of which would determine the type of job for which the student is best suited.

Elizabeth Pramann was elected president of the National Honor Society at the meeting Feb. 4. Other officers elected were Alma Stovall, vice president; and Alice Hendrickson, secretary-treasurer.

The society is making plans for the induction of new members. Membership will be determined by the service, character, scholarship, and leadership of each student.

A worth-while service project is also being undertaken.

A luncheon sponsored by the senior class will be held in the PHS gym Tuesday, Feb. 18.

Hot dogs, potato salad, potato chips, and pickles will be served with pie or cake for dessert.

Committeemen are: advertising, Mona Lane, Janice Grove, Carol Clark and Don Wallace; planning, Les Schleigh, Jim Waldron, Jim Stout, Rosemary Kusel, Elaine Price, Larry Smith, Lloyd Glenn, Carol Anderson, Glenna Haggard, Wanda Oetkin, and Jim Heath.

Jerry Lausmann, president of the Southern Oregon Timing association, was the guest speaker for the sixth period English II class last Wednesday.

He answered the students' questions on organized hording and related topics. The operation and purpose of the local timing association, which is to prevent illegal squirreling and dragging, was explained. Lausmann encouraged any interested Phoenix students to form their own legal hot rod club, and he offered his help in promoting it. The members could apply for membership in the Timing association, and would then be eligible to use their drag strip.

"Crazy Capers" was the theme of the variety show presented at Phoenix High school Feb. 14. The show was

McLoughlin Jr. High

A group of McLoughlin students went to Shady Cove Feb. 11 to give an exhibition of wrestling and tumbling at an assembly in the school there. They were invited by Principal William A. Shephard, who was a coach at McLoughlin last year. The group was accompanied by John Reed, McLoughlin coach, and Lee Ragsdale, supervisor of physical education. Students making the trip were Karen Stelle, Louise Willis, Dick Ragsdale, Al Funston, Terry Earl, Merle Hampton, and Mike Hood.

The McLoughlin wrestlers won first place in the district tourney held here last week end. Klamath Falls ran a close second, trailing first place by only two points.

Those winning in the finals for McLoughlin were George Chambers, Russell Walker, Dave Jenkins, Bob Rix, and Al Funston.

Sweethearts' Ball, sponsored by the FHA chapter, will be held Friday, Feb. 21, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Queen candidates are Pat Kidwell, sophomore; Mary Cole, junior; and Carol Clark, senior. Music is being played by Zoe Peterson. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided at intermission.

Jackson School

By Hans Ewaldsen, Mickey Lynch

Jackson school celebrated Valentine's Day Friday afternoon with treats from the teachers and exchanged hundreds of valentines.

Recognition was given to the fact that Oregon is sometimes called the Valentine State, as Oregon was admitted to the Union on Feb. 14, 1859, so for 99 years Oregon has had the protection of the federal government.

A short program in honor of Abraham Lincoln's birthday was given by a group of sixth graders. The play, "A Shirt Tail Boy" by W. P. Covington was dramatized by students from the advanced reading groups, as a regular reading assignment. Paulette Chinn was in charge of the play.

Robert Stevenson recited the "Gettysburg Address." Karen Brattain recited the poem, "O Captain, My Captain" by Walt Whitman and several patriotic songs were sung by the fifth and sixth graders.

In honor of Arbor Day three sycamore trees were planted at Jackson school on Feb. 10.

Margaret Doolen, the student body president, introduced the speakers. Monte Noble gave an interesting report on the history of Arbor Day. Mr. Bacaus introduced Mrs. Mayfield, who presented three trees to our school and Cheryl Rice recited the poem, "An Arbor Day Tree." A representative from each of the 19 rooms at our school put a spade full of dirt around the trees.

68,100 West Germans emigrated last year. It was an increase of nearly 20,000 over 1955. The United States received 35,600, Canada 22,300.

ing the regular home room period.

The seventh graders held a Valentine party the evening of Friday, Feb. 14. Games, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed.

The Rifle club is now meeting in the wrestling room.

New doors are being placed in the main entrances as a safety measure. The remodeling is also adding several feet of space to the entrance hall.

The clothing drive carried on in the schools during National Clothing Week was successful. Three tons of children's clothing was shipped from the Medford schools, and an additional ton was gathered by other schools in the county. The clothing will be distributed in the United States as well as in foreign countries.

The eighth and ninth grades held a pep assembly on Feb. 11. After a group of yells led by the yell team, Coach Carlyle Dean spoke to the students. Bob Quinney introduced the members of the ninth grade squad.

Hedrick Junior High

By Kathy Allen

The Hedrick babysitting classes will begin Feb. 17. The classes consist of four lessons each week for four weeks. The first lesson will be on "Child Care" by Mrs. Donahue, school nurse. The second lesson will be on "First Aid" by Mr. Williams. Captain Clyde Fichtner will give the third lesson on "Safety." The fourth lesson will be on "What a Parent Expects of a Babysitter, and a Sitter of a Parent" by Mrs. William Ardry, from the Hedrick PTA. Approximately 25 students are signed up for the course, which is to teach boys and girls to be good, reliable babysitters.

The ninth grade boys have just completed a bowling course taking during PE class periods at the Medford Bowling lanes. The Bowling lanes have offered a Bowling league to all ninth grade boys interested. A special prize is being given, if the boys sign up now.

Three new seventh grade students are now attending Hedrick. They are Lloyd Lovell, Verlon King, and Vernon King.

The Future Homemakers of America sponsored a Valentine dance Feb. 14. Two ninth, eighth and seventh graders were chosen King and Queen, Prince and Princess, and Duke and Duchess.

Student body president, Danny Sieg, has just established a noon dance time. From noon to 12:15, there will be dancing on the balcony in the auditorium. Music will be supplied by Ken Peek, Hedrick technician.

A special assembly was presented by Hedrick's vocal music department under the direction of Carroll Graber, Feb. 14, at 11 a.m. The girls' chorus began the presentation with a Brazilian Lullaby. Following that they sang two spirituals, DeEtta Lawson then took the spotlight as she sang "I Could Have Danced All Night". The seventh grade chorus sang several selections, including two love songs. The mixed chorus sang "Let There Be Music", "On the Street Where You Live", and "The Orchestra Song".

Vincent Bevis introduced the Faculty Barber Shop Quartette as a special Valentine Day gift to the students. The group consisted of Ron Bartlett, Carroll Graber, Otis Swisher, and John Drysdale. The quartette number was "Goodbye, Coney Island".

Prince Harald of Norway, at the age of 20, has started in Norway's two-year military academy course.

The ninth grade boys have parties were held on Feb. 14 during the regular home room period.

The seventh graders held a Valentine party the evening of Friday, Feb. 14. Games, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed.

The Rifle club is now meeting in the wrestling room.

New doors are being placed in the main entrances as a safety measure. The remodeling is also adding several feet of space to the entrance hall.

The McLoughlin wrestlers won first place in the district tourney held here last week end. Klamath Falls ran a close second, trailing first place by only two points.

Those winning in the finals for McLoughlin were George Chambers, Russell Walker, Dave Jenkins, Bob Rix, and Al Funston.

Sweethearts' Ball, sponsored by the FHA chapter, will be held Friday, Feb. 21, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Queen candidates are Pat Kidwell, sophomore; Mary Cole, junior; and Carol Clark, senior. Music is being played by Zoe Peterson. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided at intermission.

Elizabeth Pramann was elected president of the National Honor Society at the meeting Feb. 4. Other officers elected were Alma Stovall, vice president; and Alice Hendrickson, secretary-treasurer.

The society is making plans for the induction of new members. Membership will be determined by the service, character, scholarship, and leadership of each student.

A worth-while service project is also being undertaken.

A luncheon sponsored by the senior class will be held in the PHS gym Tuesday, Feb. 18.

Hot dogs, potato salad, potato chips, and pickles will be served with pie or cake for dessert.

Committeemen are: advertising, Mona Lane, Janice Grove, Carol Clark and Don Wallace; planning, Les Schleigh, Jim Waldron, Jim Stout, Rosemary Kusel, Elaine Price, Larry Smith, Lloyd Glenn, Carol Anderson, Glenna Haggard, Wanda Oetkin, and Jim Heath.

Jerry Lausmann, president of the Southern Oregon Timing association, was the guest speaker for the sixth period English II class last Wednesday.

He answered the students' questions on organized hording and related topics. The operation and purpose of the local timing association, which is to prevent illegal squirreling and dragging, was explained. Lausmann encouraged any interested Phoenix students to form their own legal hot rod club, and he offered his help in promoting it. The members could apply for membership in the Timing association, and would then be eligible to use their drag strip.

"Crazy Capers" was the theme of the variety show presented at Phoenix High school Feb. 14. The show was ing the regular home room period.

The seventh graders held a Valentine party the evening of Friday, Feb. 14. Games, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed.

The Rifle club is now meeting in the wrestling room.

New doors are being placed in the main entrances as a safety measure. The remodeling is also adding several feet of space to the entrance hall.

The McLoughlin wrestlers won first place in the district tourney held here last week end. Klamath Falls ran a close second, trailing first place by only two points.

Those winning in the finals for McLoughlin were George Chambers, Russell Walker, Dave Jenkins, Bob Rix, and Al Funston.

Sweethearts' Ball, sponsored by the FHA chapter, will be held Friday, Feb. 21, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Queen candidates are Pat Kidwell, sophomore; Mary Cole, junior; and Carol Clark, senior. Music is being played by Zoe Peterson. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided at intermission.

Elizabeth Pramann was elected president of the National Honor Society at the meeting Feb. 4. Other officers elected were Alma Stovall, vice president; and Alice Hendrickson, secretary-treasurer.

The society is making plans for the induction of new members. Membership will be determined by the service, character, scholarship, and leadership of each student.

A worth-while service project is also being undertaken.

A luncheon sponsored by the senior class will be held in the PHS gym Tuesday, Feb. 18.

Hot dogs, potato salad, potato chips, and pickles will be served with pie or cake for dessert.

Committeemen are: advertising, Mona Lane, Janice Grove, Carol Clark and Don Wallace; planning, Les Schleigh, Jim Waldron, Jim Stout, Rosemary Kusel, Elaine Price, Larry Smith, Lloyd Glenn, Carol Anderson, Glenna Haggard, Wanda Oetkin, and Jim Heath.

Jerry Lausmann, president of the Southern Oregon Timing association, was the guest speaker for the sixth period English II class last Wednesday.

He answered the students' questions on organized hording and related topics. The operation and purpose of the local timing association, which is to prevent illegal squirreling and dragging, was explained. Lausmann encouraged any interested Phoenix students to form their own legal hot rod club, and he offered his help in promoting it. The members could apply for membership in the Timing association, and would then be eligible to use their drag strip.

"Crazy Capers" was the theme of the variety show presented at Phoenix High school Feb. 14. The show was ing the regular home room period.

The seventh graders held a Valentine party the evening of Friday, Feb. 14. Games, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed.

The Rifle club is now meeting in the wrestling room.

New doors are being placed in the main entrances as a safety measure. The remodeling is also adding several feet of space to the entrance hall.

The McLoughlin wrestlers won first place in the district tourney held here last week end. Klamath Falls ran a close second, trailing first place by only two points.

Those winning in the finals for McLoughlin were George Chambers, Russell Walker, Dave Jenkins, Bob Rix, and Al Funston.

Sweethearts' Ball, sponsored by the FHA chapter, will be held Friday, Feb. 21, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Queen candidates are Pat Kidwell, sophomore; Mary Cole, junior; and Carol Clark, senior. Music is being played by Zoe Peterson. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided at intermission.

Elizabeth Pramann was elected president of the National Honor Society at the meeting Feb. 4. Other officers elected were Alma Stovall, vice president; and Alice Hendrickson, secretary-treasurer.

The society is making plans for the induction of new members. Membership will be determined by the service, character, scholarship, and leadership of each student.

A worth-while service project is also being undertaken.

A luncheon sponsored by the senior class will be held in the PHS gym Tuesday, Feb. 18.

Hot dogs, potato salad, potato chips, and pickles will be served with pie or cake for dessert.

Committeemen are: advertising, Mona Lane, Janice Grove, Carol Clark and Don Wallace; planning, Les Schleigh, Jim Waldron, Jim Stout, Rosemary Kusel, Elaine Price, Larry Smith, Lloyd Glenn, Carol Anderson, Glenna Haggard, Wanda Oetkin, and Jim Heath.

Jerry Lausmann, president of the Southern Oregon Timing association, was the guest speaker for the sixth period English II class last Wednesday.

He answered the students' questions on organized hording and related topics. The operation and purpose of the local timing association, which is to prevent illegal squirreling and dragging, was explained. Lausmann