

Foreign Students Guests Of Medford Altrusa Club

Hikaru Mikami of Mibu, Japan, Gil Banaag of Quezon City, Philippines, Dusan Pasic of Belgrade, Yugoslavia were dinner guests and speakers at the annual buffet dinner given by Medford Altrusa Club in honor of the foreign students attending Southern Oregon college. The event was held Thursday, February 13 at the home of Mrs. Anne Finley.

Women students from Chile and Germany, and men students from Japan and Korea for the local club, made arrangements for the program, introduced the guests and led the informal discussion regarding the status of women, educational opportunities, social life in high school and college in the students own countries, and of the background and family life and plans for the future.

All three students plan to be teachers in their own countries on their return. None are exchange students but have financed and are here under private sponsorship. Mr. Mikami, educated in public schools in Japan, has spent four years at colleges in Wisconsin and Minnesota and now plans to obtain his master's degree in education at SOC. All his education is being financed by his father, a farmer living north of Tokyo. Gil Banaag, sponsored by his brother, a business man in Springfield, Ore., is the youngest of a family of nine. He finished high school in Manila at a Catholic school and is now in his junior year at SOC.

Mr. Pasic, who arrived in this country from Yugoslavia three weeks ago as a protegee of the Chandler Drew family, has only one year left to graduate from the University of Belgrade but hopes to have two years at SOC to study English. He is majoring in languages in his own University and will work for his degree in Belgrade on his return to teach in his own country.

All three students had studied languages other than their own since the first grade in school, and could read and write English before coming to the United States. Mr. Banaag is the most fluent, since in the Philippines, all instruction is given in English, making his advance study easier. All reported no special provision made in their native schools for specially gifted children; all schools are free up to the university level. They reported teaching as a most respected profession and one of the best paid in their countries.

Women have the same advantages in all countries, but in Japan most women do not follow careers after marriage. Opportunities for working ones way through college are available and night classes for adults working in the daytime are held in Yugoslavia. Families sacrifice to give bright children educational opportunities, Mr. Pasic stated.

Social life during college and high school in much the same as in this country, with dating, dancing and sports but not so much club activity in the schools themselves, they reported. In Manila, Mr. Banaag said, most children go to either separate boys or girls schools but the State universities are co-educational. Because of unemployment in their countries, all were hoping that their American education would help them get good positions on their return.

Mr. Mikami, the most experienced of the three students, spoke especially of the warm friendliness he had found in SOC, more than in the other American colleges he had attended. He said he thought smaller colleges better for foreign students.

Mr. Pasic spoke of his gratitude towards his sponsors, the Drews, and his enjoyment of being with them.

Mrs. Drew was a guest of Altrusa for this occasion as were Mrs. Robert Miller, daughter of Mrs. Sherwood, program chairman, and Mrs. Victor Peterson.

Mrs. Finley, Miss Myra Otterdale, and Mrs. Francis Schouhard were hostesses for the buffet dinner which included a rice dish prepared by Mrs. Julie Tummers for the oriental students, who were very appreciative. Mrs. Tummers also invited the three students to a specially prepared dinner at her inn, Mon Desir, as her guests. Decorations for the buffet and small tables were carried out in the valentine theme with small valentine tarts for dessert.

TV Quiz Contestant Moves to $128,000

New York—Dr. Alexander Sas-Jaworsky, who came to the United States as an immigrant 10 years ago, answered a multi-part question on American history Tuesday night to run his quiz winnings to $128,000.

Sas-Jaworsky, a native of the Ukraine, now an Abbeville, La., veterinarian, will return to "The $64,000 Question" television show next week for the first of two questions leading to the program's $192,000 prize. If he is successful in them, he may continue to possible winnings of $256,000.

Kiwanis Club Will Present 10th Show

The Kiwanis Kapers, which will be presented the last week this month, will be the 10th show staged by the Medford club to finance philanthropic work in this area. This year, proceeds will be used to finance the Kiwanis dental clinic.

In 1948, Medford Kiwanis president, Ed Niles, proposed a $1,200 budget to the club, coupled with a challenge to determine a method of raising the money.

Club members noted, and in particular, Vic Milnes, one of the cochairmen of the first Kapers, that the Klamath Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce completed such an effort and was successful in raising a sizeable amount of money. They also noted that the Ashland Kiwanis club was contemplating a minstrel show for the same reason.

The two clubs combined their efforts and staged the first Kapers in 1949, under cochairman Milnes, Bob Voegly and Ed Barnett. The show played two nights in Medford and netted $534 for the Medford club's portion. The money became a significant portion of that spent in 1949 for underprivileged children's work.

During the past 10 years, the show has continued to grow financially, and this year club officials believe it should gross $7,500, and net about $5,000, which will go into the dental clinic.

In addition to philanthropic work in past years, funds have been used to develop the Easter Egg hunt, the Christmas party at the county farm, contributions to Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Salvation Army and YMCA.

Among the work done by the club with funds raised through the Kapers was purchasing wigs for two young children born without hair, financing glass eyes for children, and an audio-amplifying unit for the Junior Service league's school for children who are hard of hearing.

Each year, a professional organization has been selected to produce and direct the show, using talent from Medford and vicinity.

Local businessmen, who belong to the Medford club, and their wives, devote the major portion of the month of February to selling tickets, selling advertising for the show, rehearsing and producing the Kapers. The Medford Kiwanis club is made up of 120 business people from Medford and Jackson county.

Vets May Add New Clause to Policy

Veterans in good health and under 60 who hold World War II GI life insurance may add a total disability income clause to their GI policies at a small additional premium cost. S. T. Brannock, officer in charge of the VA office, Medford, said today.

Policy holders who become totally disabled from any cause before they are 60, and while the clause is in effect, will receive an income of $5 per month for each $1,000 face amount of the GI policy.

Payments under the clause may begin after the total disability has existed for six consecutive months, and continues for the duration of the disability, regardless of its length, Brannock said.

No payment may be made for disabilities incurred after age 60, and no premium charge for this benefit is past that date, he said.

Jason Lee To Be Justice Candidate

Salem—Jason Lee, Salem attorney, Tuesday night announced his candidacy for justice of the Oregon Supreme Court.

Lee said he had decided to file for the position even before the announced resignation this week of Justice Randall Kester.

Lee, who was defeated by Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) in the first district race for Congress in 1956, said he believed "there is a need on the Oregon Supreme Court for the forward-looking viewpoint of a constitutional liberal."

He has 17 years legal experience and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the Oregon Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Claims and the U.S. Tax Court.
