Medford Kiwanian Dames Present Girl Scout Check

Medford Kiwanian Dames presented Girl Scouts with a check for $500 last week, bringing to almost $6,000 the sum which the women's group has earned for Camp Low Echo at Lake of Woods. The check was presented at a luncheon held Tuesday noon at the home of Mrs. Emerson Anderson on Hillcrest road.

Mrs. Anderson made the presentation to Mrs. T. R. Lytle, Medford, president of the Rogue Valley Area council of Girl Scouts. This year's money was earned at a spring fashion show and the annual "doll project" at Christmas.

Mrs. Lytle spoke of coming plans for camping this summer and said that the money earned by Kiwanian Dames will be used to buy short wave radio equipment for the camp. The radio will be useful for communication with Medford and Klamath Falls, particularly during emergencies, Mrs. Lytle said. Other articles needed for the camp this year are a new kitchen stove and a large food mixer, she stated.

Camp will open July 6 and will be operated in one 7-day and three 10-day sessions, she stated. Open house is planned at Camp Low Echo June 29, and Kiwanian Dames and their husbands are invited to attend.

Another guest was Mrs. T. R. Eslinger, whose husband is Girl Scout camping chairman.

Mrs. Frank A. Benesh, president of the group, introduced the guests.

Christian Action Program Topic

Christian Action on the March" is the title of the program to be presented to the Women's Society of Christian Service on Tuesday, February 25, 1 p.m., in the First Methodist church.

Mrs. David Chirgwin, in charge of the program, has a symposium planned to present the Christian heritage of Methodist women. Mrs. John Kent, Mrs. W. Earl Keister, Mrs. Cleo Epps and Mrs. Chirgwin will participate. Mrs. L. B. Pierce will relate the heritage of social action to the problems women face today and will present the Christian social relations program being carried on by the Woman's Society. Mrs. C. Gordon Morris will lead the devotions.

The prayer circle will meet at 10:30 a.m. in Meeker chapel, and the business session will convene at 11 a.m. in the Schweitzer room. Circle 8, under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Meyers, will serve luncheon at 12:15 p.m. A nursery will be provided for preschool children.
