

Delany Scores 21st Indoor Mile Win in AAU Meeting

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Staff Writer
New York — Late charging Ron Delany scored his 21st straight indoor mile triumph Saturday night when he ran Hungary's Istvan Rozsavolgyi into the boards with two laps to go in four minutes, 3.7 seconds in the national AAU championships at Madison Square Garden.

Missing Gunnar Nielsen's three-year-old world indoor record by only one-tenth of a second, the Irish whippet from Villanova became the first man to win three straight AAU miles indoors as he sprinted home 15 yards in front of Rozsavolgyi. Jim Grellie of the University of Oregon was third.

Rozsavolgyi thrilled a crowd of 13,500 as he sprinted into the lead with two laps to go and bolted 10 yards in front. But Delany overtook him with a brilliant burst of speed, roared into the lead with one lap to go and never was threatened from there on in.

Phil Coleman of the Chicago track club set the pace throughout the race until Rozsavolgyi made his sudden bid. But the 28-year-old Hungarian couldn't keep his surprise lead as Delany, the 22-year-old Olympic 1500-meter champion, surged from behind to score his 21st straight mile and 24th straight indoor triumph.

New York — Bob Bakus, a former Tufts "Whale" competing for the New York A. C., set a world record for Linfield and Willamette each missed a golden opportunity in the Northwest conference basketball race Friday night. Both lost.

Whitman edged Linfield 88-83 in a double overtime thriller at Walla Walla while College of Idaho took Willamette into camp at Caldwell by a 64-53 count.

The two Oregon clubs remained at the top of the conference race with Linfield 8-3 and Willamette half a game back at 8-4. They meet the same opponents tonight and then switch opponents Monday night.

Linfield and Whitman were tied at 64-all at the end of regular playing time. It was 78-61 after the first overtime. Linfield went ahead 83-80 in the second overtime but the home team came through to go ahead and then widen its margin on free throws. Jackie Riley of Linfield had 23 points while Max Johnson had 22 for the winners.

College of Idaho led Willamette 34-27 at the half but the Salem, Ore., club came back to go ahead in the second half. But sharpshooting Don Moore, who scored 21 points, led the Coyotes to victory. Ed Grossbacher and Vic Backlund of Willamette were held to eight points each.

Stanford Upends Southern Cal

Long Beach, Calif. — Stanford Captain Paul Neumann staged a one-man rally in the final seven minutes Saturday to lead the Indians to a mild upset victory, 69 to 61, over USC's Trojans in the first game of a Pacific Coast conference basketball doubleheader.

With seven minutes to play the Trojans held a 58 to 50 lead, but Neumann wiped that out by collecting five buckets in the rally which saw Stanford collect 19 points while holding USC to 3. Neumann, a senior guard, scored 25 points in turning in his best game of the season.

Scorers closest to him were SC's Jim White and Jim Hanna, who both scored 16 points in the game at Long Beach City College gym.

Turner Posts Stock Car Win

Daytona Beach, Fla. — Curtis Turner of Roanoke, Va., gunned his 1958 Ford stock car to an average speed of 98.563 miles per hour on Saturday to win the 160-mile National Convertible championship race at the NASCAR safety and performance trials.

Turner took the lead at the third lap from last year's winner, Tim Flock of Atlanta, who had to drop out when he missed a turn and went off the banked track. Flock was uninjured but his 1957 Mercury which set a new record last year of 101.36 miles per hour was slightly damaged.

Tourney Berths Near Completion Saturday

By FRANK LITSKY
The men who pick the teams for the NCAA and National Invitation Basketball tournaments found their task half completed Saturday with the NCAA getting most of the prize plums.

At the start of the day, the Invitation tourney in New York had lined up six of its 12 teams, the latest acceptance coming from St. John's of Brooklyn (12-6). The NCAA tournament, which added Temple (20-2) and Manhattan (11-8) Friday night, had seven of its 24 teams.

Actually, the NCAA also reached the 500 mark because it had filled four of its eight "at large" berths. The 16 other teams are conference representatives who qualify automatically. Three of the 16 have been chosen with a host of nationally ranked powers still to come.

The Invitation tournament was hot after Temple, which sports an 18-game winning streak, longest in the country. The Owls, ranked sixth by the United Press Board of Coaches, got the NCAA nod from the Middle Atlantic conference. Temple accepted after being assured that its three Negro players would receive equal treatment during the regional playoffs at Charlotte, N.C.

Conference representatives already in the NCAA tourney, in addition to Temple, are Connecticut Yankee and Idaho

Oregon Tech won its second straight Oregon Collegiate conference basketball title Friday night.

Coach Wally Palmberg's Owls nailed down the crown on their home floor by defeating Oregon College of Education 84-48. The win gave Oregon Tech a 13-2 mark with one game left tonight against OCE. Southern Oregon finished with a 12-4 record.

Charlie Bogle of OTI had 21 points while John McCutcheon had 18.

Eastern Oregon won its fifth OCC game against 10 defeats by edging third-place

State Rocky Mountain. "At large" teams are Manhattan, Oklahoma State, Notre Dame and Pittsburgh, all coveted by the New York tournament sponsors.

The field for the Invitation tourney includes St. John's, Fordham, St. Peter's, N.J., St. Bonaventure, Niagara and Dayton.

Things will get even livelier for the NCAA competition because Kansas State, West Virginia, Cincinnati and San Francisco are favored to win conference titles which will qualify them for the national tournament. Those teams stand 1-2-3-4 in the United Press ratings.

Bell Tops Burns in Golf Final

Ormond Beach, Fla. — Judy Bell, 21-year-old Wichita, Kan., golfer, met a last ditch challenge by veteran Marge Burns Saturday to win the South Atlantic Women's Amateur tournament 1-up in 37 holes.

The shapely Miss Bell had taken a four-up lead after the first 18 holes before her Sacramento, Calif., opponent started a winning streak that saw her take all but three of the second 18 holes.

The new champion, taking advantage of putting lapses by Miss Burns, jumped to a quick lead in the morning round. The two players were even after nine holes, but Miss Bell won four holes on the back side to take a four-up advantage.

Grapplers Eliminated in Tourney

Medford and Crater high wrestlers were eliminated yesterday afternoon in the state tournament at Corvallis.

Jim Funston, Medford, in the unlimited class, and Mike Martin, Crater, in the 194 pound group, won Friday bouts. They dropped their second tussles then were eliminated when the grapplers who beat them were defeated.

Gary Heath, 178, Medford, and Butch Barber, 98, Crater, fell from the running with two straight setbacks.

Funston decisioned Don Green, Roseburg, 3-1, in his first ruckus then lost to Vern Miller, Lebanon. Miller was beaten by Tim Gallagher, Franklin of Portland.

Heath was beaten 5-2 by Jerry Perkus, Bend and then was defeated by Fred Hill, Jefferson, of Portland.

Martin nosed out Lloyd Uphoff, Vale, in his first match. Barber was pinned in his opener by Dave Payne, Sweet Home.

Medford and Crater high wrestlers were eliminated yesterday afternoon in the state tournament at Corvallis.

Jim Funston, Medford, in the unlimited class, and Mike Martin, Crater, in the 194 pound group, won Friday bouts. They dropped their second tussles then were eliminated when the grapplers who beat them were defeated.

Gary Heath, 178, Medford, and Butch Barber, 98, Crater, fell from the running with two straight setbacks.

Funston decisioned Don Green, Roseburg, 3-1, in his first ruckus then lost to Vern Miller, Lebanon. Miller was beaten by Tim Gallagher, Franklin of Portland.

Heath was beaten 5-2 by Jerry Perkus, Bend and then was defeated by Fred Hill, Jefferson, of Portland.

Martin nosed out Lloyd Uphoff, Vale, in his first match. Barber was pinned in his opener by Dave Payne, Sweet Home.

Turner Posts Stock Car Win

Daytona Beach, Fla. — Curtis Turner of Roanoke, Va., gunned his 1958 Ford stock car to an average speed of 98.563 miles per hour on Saturday to win the 160-mile National Convertible championship race at the NASCAR safety and performance trials.

Turner took the lead at the third lap from last year's winner, Tim Flock of Atlanta, who had to drop out when he missed a turn and went off the banked track. Flock was uninjured but his 1957 Mercury which set a new record last year of 101.36 miles per hour was slightly damaged.
