

Ashland Trims Black Tornado 56-43 To Split Cage Series

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Klamath Falls	13	1	328
Grants Pass	8	4	300
Medford	5	7	357
Ashland	3	9	250
Crater	2	9	250

Ashland high's dippy-do Grizzlies utilized streaks of torrid field bucketing, advantage of more trips to the foul line, tenacious defense and steadier all-around performance at Ashland Saturday night to reject Medford ambitions for a series sweep in the bid for second place in Southern Oregon conference basketball.

The Lithia city quint quieted a threatening Tornado storm in the early fourth quarter, weathered a pressing Medford defense and packaged the scoring efforts of Jack Tobiasson, Bill Maurer, Scott Peterson and Albert Hartwell to drop the Pear city aggregation by the comfortable margin of 56 to 43.

By splitting the two-game week end engagement, the Ashlanders made it three victories in four tangles this season with the Black Tornado. Both clubs are still in the running for the District 6 A-1 spot and a trip to the state tournament to Eugene. But the objective looms more difficult for the Grizzlies who have just two more hassles in the circuit. They are still a full game back of currently third running Medford, which has four conference encounters yet on its slate.

Medford Versus GP
Medford with its 42 to 40 Friday verdict and Ashland by the Saturday win each gained a notch on Grants Pass, the present second place holder. Klamath Falls rapped the Cavemen 70 to 61 Friday and 79 to 58 Saturday to capture the conference diadem.

The Tornado carries its challenge directly against Grants Pass on the coming week end while Ashland has a bye. Klamath will complete its regular season by skirmishing Crater at Central Point.

Saturday's game at Ashland began in a reverse order to the one Friday at Medford. The Black Tornado took the opening lead, Ashland was never more than four points down, however, and the Grizzlies tied up the ruckus at 4, 6, 11, 12 and 14-all. With 3 minutes in the first half, Bob Johnson made it 15 to 14 with a free shot. The Ashlanders stayed in front the rest of the evening, stretching to 21 to 14 before Medford tallied again. Halftime count was 23 to 16.

Lead Hacked To 39-37
After the Lithians had outpointed the Tornado 15 to 6 in the second quarter, the third session was contested on almost even terms. Medford cut the Ashland gap to three points at 26 to 23 and 29 to 26. Nevertheless, the Grizzlies nosed their guests 14 to 13 in the period for 37 to 29 edge at rest-time.

Tom Hamlin got two field goals for Medford in the first 45 seconds of the last stanza. Jack Tobiasson hooked a shot for Ashland but Jerry Anderson and John Frohnmayer each put in a pair of gifts. That cut the Ashland spread to a mere 39 to 37. Five minutes 19 seconds remained in the game.

That was all of the Medford scoring for 3 1/2 minutes. In the meantime, Hartwell and Peterson plunked field goals, Tobiasson a field shot and Maurer three free throws and Maurer two gift tosses. That took the Ashland lead to 50 to 37 and put the Grizzlies out of reach.

Delany Won't Run Mile This Saturday Night

New York—The indoor mile brigade will get two races rather than the usual one Saturday night at Madison Square Garden and Ron Delany will be there. Yet you can bet the rent money that he won't win either mile.

That may sound like heresy since Delany, a Villanova senior from Ireland, has won 24 straight races indoors, including 21 miles. Last Saturday night, he won the national AAU indoor mile for the third straight year in four minutes, 37 seconds, only one-tenth of a second off the world indoor record.

Actually, Delany won't win a mile this week because he won't run in any. Villanova, hoping to keep its ICA4 team title, will have Ron try to repeat his 1957 ICA4 double victory in the 1000 and two-mile runs.

He won each comfortably last year with one hour between races. He is favored to do it again, even though he will have only 35 minutes of rest this time.

Talent's Jackson County B league champion Bulldogs attempt to wind up their regular season unbeaten by prep opposition when they vie at Jacksonville on Tuesday night.

It will be the final game of 1958 in the B basketball circuit.

Three other aggregations concluded league play Saturday night. Butte Falls was second in the final standings after a 49 to 34 verdict over Prospect. St. Mary's downed Jacksonville 54 to 48 to assure third place.

Butte Falls had 19 to 7, 24 to 18 and 35 to 25 quarterly leads over the Cougars. Jim Irwin got 19 markers and Mike Conley 18 for the Loggers. Prospect was without the services of Dave Gardner who suffered and ankle sprain in the Jacksonville game on Friday.

SM Starts Track
The Redskins headed St. Mary's for the final 1 minute and 49 seconds.

Maurer Has 19
Maurer was the scoring leader with 19 points for the Grizzlies and Hartwell had 15 for Ashland. Larry Brown's 11 was high for Medford. He had seven of Medford's first 11 points. Tobiasson was the top individual in rebound retrieves with 11 and Hamlin had six.

Ashland outscored the Tornado from both the field and the free throw mark. The Grizzlies had 17 to 15 edge in the two-point goals and piled up the biggest share of their lead on free shots, making 22 of 33 tries while Medford put in 13 of 19. Ten Ashland gifters were in the last quarter. Taking 35 shots from the field, Ashland had a good warm .485 average. Medford had .395 on 38 casts.

Rebounding came out even team-wise with 22 each, according to Tornado statistics. Coach Earl Iba of the Grizzlies called on his five starters to go the whole route while Mentor Frank Roelandt of the Tornado sent 11 players into the action. Sophomores Jerry Anderson, Jerry Shults and John Frohnmayer saw considerable service and another sophomore, Calvin Dean, saw his first varsity duty. Lowell Dean, twin of Cal, top varsity scorer and also a soph, was sidelined for the week end with a foot infection.

Klamath Falls broke an 18-all deadlock in the second quarter and led the Cavemen 37 to 25 at halftime Saturday. Margin after three cantos was 67 to 42. Glen Moore had 28 points and Bob Peterson 20 for the Pels.

Medford junior varsity fared about the same as the varsity although the game was closer at the finish. Ashland won 43 to 39. The Grizzly JV went into the last quarter on top by 36 to 28. The Junior Tornado cut it 37 to 34 and 39 to 36 but Ashland pushed back to a six point bulge at 42 to 36.

Clarence Smith had 11 points for Ashland and Tony Monroe 12 for Medford. Halftime score was 21-each.

Lead Held By Demaret

Houston, Tex.—Colorful Jimmy Demaret, who has been playing golf for 30 of his 47 years, carried a two-stroke lead today into the final round of the $30,000 Houston Invitational golf tournament.

The Houstonian, who plays out of Kiamas Lake, N.Y., fired a 3-under-par 69 Sunday for a 290 score to lead the field of 64 pros and five amateurs who started the final round today.

Two strokes away from Demaret were Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., and Roberto De Vicenzo of Mexico City at 211, while steady Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., current goldfod's most consistent money-winner, was tied at 212 with Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla.

Seven others were bunched at the 214 mark—Dave Ragan, Orlando, Fla.; Milton Marusic, Webster Groves, Mo.; Ed Porky Oliver, Caton, Mass.; Bob Goalby, Darien, Conn.; Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio; Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif., and Stan Leonard of Vancouver, B. C.

NAIA Grappling Won By Vikings

Portland—Portland State won four individual crowns and took first place Saturday in the District 2 NAIA wrestling meet with 76 points. Oregon College of Education was second with 69, Lewis and Clark 61, Pacific 40 and Southern Oregon 12.

Grelle Finishes Third in Mile

New York—Jim Grelle of Oregon finished third with a good time of 4:06.8 Saturday night in the indoor mile at the National AAU championships behind Ron Delaney and Hungary's Istvan Rozsavolyi.

Delaney's winning time was 4:03.7, one tenth of a second off the world indoor record.

Grelle also finished third behind the same pair at the Baxter mile the week before. It was only his second indoor mile race.

CAPPS VICTOR

Seattle—Everett Capps of Burns, Ore., won the lightweight title in the Northwest Golden Gloves tournament Saturday night with a victory over Ed Richey of Portland.

Kentucky Hoopmen Close To Southeastern Crown OSC Keeps Nat Laurels

By UNITED PRESS
Kentucky can clinch the Southeastern conference championship Monday night for the second straight time and the 13th in the past 15 seasons.

Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcats, already assured an NCAA basketball tournament berth since Auburn is ineligible for tournament play, plays Auburn at Birmingham, Ala. Two games ahead with just two to play, Kentucky even can lose this one and still clinch by beating Tennessee Saturday.

Boston college (15-2) was selected as the ninth team for the 24-team NCAA tournament today as a "member at large" after a 73-68 win over old rival Holy Cross.

Lightweight Can Challenge
The Golden Eagles were picked for the major-college NCAA competition although classed by that organization as a small college this season. A spokesman explained, "There is no rule that a lightweight can't challenge for the heavyweight title."

Previously named to the NCA, either as a conference winner or an "at large" team were Oklahoma State, Connecticut, Idaho State, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Manhattan and Temple.

The regular season ends this week in the Missouri Valley and Atlantic Coast conferences, and titles could also be decided in six others—the Ivy, Big Eight, Southwest, Pacific Coast, West Coast and Border conferences.

The champions in each can go right into an NCAA berth—except in the Atlantic coast where the top eight teams compete in a post-season tournament for the NCAA spot.

Individual Scores Close
In the battle for the national scoring championship, Elgin Baylor and Oscar Robertson are now only three one-hundredths of a point apart. Baylor, six-six Seattle Star, scored 32 points Saturday night during a 71-68 overtime loss to Idaho State. But his average dropped to 33.76 points per game and Robertson, six-five Cincinnati ace, gained ground by scoring 36 points in an 86-71 win over Tulsa. Robertson's average is 33.73.

Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain of Kansas, held to 18 points in a 43-41 loss to Nebraska, now seems out of the running with a 30.67 average.

Portland—Oregon State kept its state men's swimming championship over the week end by amassing 128 points in the meet, followed by Aero club of Portland's 78. The OSC Rooks had 61 points.

Dick Rotto, OSC sophomore swimming in the unattached division, entered competition for the first time since being sidelined with a heart condition two years ago and smashed the state record in the 100-yard breast stroke. Rotto covered the distance in the Multnomah club pool in 1:08.7. The old mark was 1:08.8 set by Dave Gayton, Vancouver, B.C., in 1956.
