Kansas State, San Francisco Favored to Clinch NCAA Bids

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer

Kansas State and San Francisco are favored to clinch automatic bids to the NCAA Basketball tournament tonight while Bowling Green will attempt to snag a berth in the National Invitation tournament.

The top-ranked Wildcats can wrap up the Big Eight conference championship by defeating Oklahoma on State's home court, and the third-ranked Dons can clinch the West Coast conference crown by downing St. Mary's. Both titles carry automatic invitations to the NCAA tournament.

Although Bowling Green has a mediocre 13-8 won and lost record, the Falcons recently were included on a list of NIT candidates and probably will earn a trip to New York if they get by Loyola (Ill.) tonight.

Kansas Upset

Kansas State received support from an unexpected source Monday night when Iowa State surprised Kansas, 48-42, in a Big Eight conference game. It was the fourth conference defeat for the Jayhawks and virtually ruined their chances of gaining an NCAA berth. They lost to North Carolina in last year's championship final.

In two other upsets, Auburn remained in the running for a share of the Southeastern conference title by knocking off Kentucky, 64-63, while Purdue tied Michigan State for the Big Ten conference lead by downing the Spartans, 72-70.

Kentucky already has won an NCAA berth but Auburn, which is ineligible for postseason play, can tie the Wildcats for the SEC title if the Tigers beat Alabama Saturday and Kentucky loses to Tennessee.

The Big Ten race also is headed toward a photo finish. Purdue and Michigan State have 8-4 records and each closes out the regular campaign against Iowa and Indiana, who have matching 7-4 marks.

Purdue, using its five starters all the way, nipped eighth-ranked Michigan State on a basket by Willie Merriweather in the final 10 seconds. Indiana wiped out a 19-point deficit in scoring a comeback 95-88 triumph over Michigan while Iowa defeated Northwestern, 86-78.

Bradley remained in the running for the Missouri Valley conference title by trampling Tulsa, 72-54, despite a 34-point effort by the losers' Roger Wendel, while California strengthened its hold on first place in the Pacific Coast conference by edging Oregon, 61-60.

Pittsburgh and Oklahoma State, a pair of NCAA tournament nominees, posted easy victories. Don Hennon poured in 41 points in sparking Pitt to a record-busting 109-74 triumph over Geneva and Oklahoma State turned back North Texas State, 63-52.

Oregon Comes Close To Cal Upend, 60-61

Eugene — (UP) — A jump shot from 20 feet out by senior center Don McIntosh with 15 seconds to go scraped California by upset-hungry Oregon, 61-60 in a Pacific Coast conference basketball thriller here Monday night. The win gives California an 11-2 PCC mark to 9-3 for Oregon State.

The Ducks had a 60-59 lead with 30 seconds remaining when forward Charlie Franklin hit two gift shots after being fouled by the Bears' Bob Dalton.

The game was tied seven times and saw five changes of lead, two of them in the final minutes.

Oregon outshot the Bears from the floor with a .463 against a .411, but Cal dunked 15 free throws in 24 tries, 10 of them in the second half.

California took an early lead in the first half but Oregon, paced by guards Chuck Rask and Bud Kuykendall, led most of the way and held a 32-31 halftime advantage.

With 10 minutes left in the game the Webfoots led 51-45. The Bears blazed to tie it up at 56-all with 3:44 remaining and Dalton hit for a 58-58 tie two minutes later.

McIntosh took game honors with 21 points and Franklin was high for Oregon with 16. Rask and Kuykendall had 13 and 12 points respectively.

Beavers Said Best on Coast By USC Coach

Los Angeles — (UP) —Oregon State's second-place Beavers have the best team in the Pacific Coast conference in the opinion of Coach Forrest Twogood of the University of Southern California.

Twogood, whose Trojans lost to Stanford and Oregon State last week end, told southern California basketball writers Monday the Beavers have "a tremendous ball club with due respect to California," the PCC leader.

The SC coach was joined in praise of Oregon State by Coach Johnny Wooden of UCLA.

"We were beaten by a bigger and better team — a team that is much better than when we played them earlier in the year," Wooden said.

"Oregon State's Lee Harman is a tremendous ball player. He has a great change of pace is a good driver and makes the club go."

NAIA Playoffs Reset in March At Milwaukie

Portland —(UP)— Dates of the District 2 NAIA basketball tournament have been changed from March 3-4 to March 4-5 at Milwaukie high school.

The first round will send Southern Oregon against Lewis and Clark and Portland State against University of Portland. The winners meet the next night for a berth in the Kansas City NAIA tournament March 10-15.

Air Force Quits Vanport Claim

Washington — (UP) — The Air Force disclosed Monday that it has relinquished all claims to a portion of the Vanport tract in Portland which local authorities have wanted for an industrial site.

The Air Force had planned to use the tract as an ammunition storage area but Maj. Gen. Joe Kelly, congressional liaison director, notified Rep. Edith Green (D-Ore.), that "the Air Force has no further requirement for the Vanport property. Accordingly, action is being taken to advise the General Services Administration of this decision." The general offered no explanation of the Air Force move.

IMPROMPTU CENSORSHIP

Paris —(UP)— Marlene Dietrich's noted legs have been censored in Paris subways. City Hall officials reported receiving complaints that the posters advertising her latest movie showed too little skirt and too much leg. Today the legs had been covered with pasted-on paper.

Oliver Collects First Win Since Greenbriar Open

Houston, Tex. — (UP) — Ed (Porky) Oliver, whose 5-under-par 67 Monday gave him the top money in the $30,000 Houston Invitational golf tournament, moves to Port Arthur, Tex., today to participate in a $3,000, 36-hole pro-amateur.

Oliver, the 5-10, 224-pound, pro from Canton, Mass., collected $4,300 for his 72-hole total of 281. He finished a stroke ahead of Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., and Roberto De Vicenzo of Mexico City.

Jimmy Demaret, the Houstonian playing out of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., who led the tournament by two strokes going into the final round, finished with a 2-over-par 74 for a total of 283, to tie with Marty Furgol of Lamont, Ill., and Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla., behind Hebert and De Vicenzo.

Oliver, who has not won a tournament in his last two years on the circuit, coupled six birdies with a bogey and 11 pars to come from five strokes behind Demaret and take the tourney crown.

It was the pudgy pro's first tournament win since he took the Greenbriar Open at White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., in 1956. He plays out of Hesperia, California.

Warriors Play Knickerbockers

By UNITED PRESS

The Philadelphia Warriors are set to deal the death blow to the New York Knickerbockers' National Basketball Association play-off hopes.

Three games in front of New York after a 110-95 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers Monday night, the Warriors meet the Knicks in their next two games. They play them at New York tonight and at Syracuse Wednesday night.

A crowd of 3,800 watched the first NBA game ever played in Bethlehem, Pa., as the Warriors ran up a 50-42 halftime lead to hand the Lakers their 48th loss in 65 games.

St. Louis plays Detroit in the other game on tonight's Garden program.

Top Teams Shuffled in Golf Tussle

William Blackledge and Bob Little rose a notch to second place during the past week in the holiday handicap golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club, while Russ Heysell and Ed Gordon moved up to third and Dr. William Miller and Dr. Dave Boals climbed from seventh to fourth.

Dick Travis and Lloyd Pope did not play but held on to front position with their 32 points. Frank Allen and Ed Hall dropped from second to fifth.

Blackledge and Little copped their match with Clark Mears and Bob Voegtly 2 up to bring their total to 28 points. Heysell and Gordon won 4 up from Hall and Allen. Boals and Miller dropped Ken Teeter and Everett McGraw 6 up.

Gain First Win

Dutch Meyer and Murray Gardiner, after having lost 11 matches, won on their 12th try. They defeated Dr. Frank Wilson and Dave Koblik.

Jack Daugherty and Jim Dunley took their fifth straight verdict last week, handing Hall and Allen one of their two losses by 3 up. Dunlevy and Daugherty have moved from 32nd to 14th in the standings.

The tourney runs through March 9.

Qualifying play for the spring handicap ends on March 2.

Archer Downs Danny Russo in Monday Fight

New York — (UP) — Steel helmets may be apropos for fans the next time welterweight Jimmy Archer, ex-stevedore, has a TV fight at St. Nicholas Arena, March 17—St. Patrick's Day — in view of the melee among the spectators that garnished his victory at St. Nick's Monday night.

Sandy-haired Archer of New York's Hell's Kitchen area stopped dark-haired Danny Russo of Brooklyn at 2:51 of the seventh round in their bloody brawl before 1,553; and immediately a wild free-for-all broke out among rival admirers of the boxers.

It was five minutes before uniformed and special police could stop the thudding fists, slamming chairs and scurrying feet. Then promoter Teddy Brenner announced, "No harm done. Nobody sent to the hospital and nobody arrested. The fans just had a good time."

Russo, weighing 151 pounds to Archer's 149¼, suffered such bloody cuts on both his brows that referee Petey Scalzo stopped the bout in the seventh. Archer, favored at 9-5, had won a split decision over 20-year-old Danny in a previous bout at St. Nick's Jan. 27.

Hawaiian Sugar Strike Continues

Honolulu — (UP)— Thirteen thousand sugar workers began the fourth week of a strike today against Hawaii's 26 plantations, with neither side showing signs of being ready to get down to serious negotiations.

The union promised management an early reply to a proposal which would put some workers back on their jobs to keep the cane alive in the fields. However, informed sources indicated the answer would be no.

The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union, representing the strikers, is demanding a 25-cent hourly wage increase on top the present $11.52 average daily pay.

The industry has offered to raise wages an average of 6 cents an hour.

Coliseum Relays Assemble World's Top Mile Runners

Los Angeles — (UP) — The greatest field of distance runners ever assembled for a single vent was in the making today as every mile runner in the world in active competion who has broken four minutes was invited to compete in the "Miracle Mile" of the Coliseum relays.

Stealing a march on rival meets, Coliseum Relays' Chairman Willis O. Hunter announced that 15 of the 18 men who have broken the distance barrier by running the mile under four minutes have been sent bids to compete in the event May 16.

And for the first time in the 18-year history of the Coliseum Relays, the running events are being staged on grass, a surface the foreign runners are accustomed to. This was brought about because the Los Angeles Dodgers share use of Memorial Coliseum and are planting sod on the running track to cover the outfield.

Of the 18 under-four-minute" milers on the record books, only John Landy, Roger Banister and Chris Chataway no longer are competing and were omitted from the list.

England and Australia, which have dominated mile running, topped the list of those invited with three men each.

England's Derek Ibbotson, who has the fastest time on record of 3:57.2 which is awaiting approval as a new world's record, headed the list of those invited.

The other stars sent bids were Dan Waern, Sweden; Jim Bailey, Australia; Don Bowden, U.S.; Herb Elliott, Australia; Ron Delaney, Ireland; Merv Lincoln, Australia; Roger Moens, Belgium; Laszlo Tabori and Istan Roszavolgyi, Hungary; Stanlislav Jungwirth, Czechoslovakia; Olavi Vourisalo, Finland; Gunnar Nielson, Denmark; Kenneth Wood and Brian Hewson, England.

Joe Brown Will Fight Echevarria

New York—(UP)—Two interesting lightweight fights feature this week's boxing schedule.

Lightweight champion Joe Brown meets Cuban Orlando Echevarria in a non-title 10-rounder Wednesday at Havana.

Although Brown is a 4-1 favorite over the champ of Cuba, the bout is significant because it's the first sports event ever televised to the United States from overseas.

It will open Havana's new Sports Palace, center of a new $12,000,000 Cuban sports project.

The other lightweight fight brings together unbeaten Carlos Ortiz of New York and Tommy Tibbs of Boston Friday night at Madison Square Garden for a TV 10-rounder.

Ortiz, who won 24 of his 25 fights and has one no-decision, is favored at 8-5. Tibbs, champion of New England, beat Willie Pep on Jan. 14, and won eight, lost two and drew one in 1957.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday — London — Willie Pastrano vs. Brian London; Miami Beach—Larry Boardman vs. Lulu Perez; Houston, Tex.—Paul Jorgensen vs. Gil Cadilli; McKeesport, Pa.—Gene Tippett vs. Tommy Williams; Richmond, Cal.—Vic Cardot vs. Marvin Marcus; Hartford, Conn.—Red Top Davis vs. Seve Ward; Chicago—Jerry Ortell vs. Jimmy McCoy.

Wednesday—Havana, Cuba—Joe Brown vs. Orlando Echevarria (non-title)—TV.

Thursday—Los Angeles—Auburn Copeland vs. Felix Cervantes; Revere, Mass.—Joe Devlin vs. Paulie Griffin; New York (Sunnyside Garden)—Rocky Milone vs. Bernie Raines.

Friday—New York (Garden)—Carlos Ortiz vs. Tommy Tibbs—TV.

Saturday—Brooklyn (Parkway—Juan Venejas vs. Harvey Charles; Boston—Rory Calhoun vs. Randy Sandy; Hollywood, Calif. — Lauro Salas vs. Pete Kuwala; Milan, Italy —Duilio Loi vs. Wallace (Bud) Smith.

Church Junior League to Hold Semi-Final Play

St. Mark's Episcopal will play First Baptist at 6 p.m. next Saturday and YMCA will meet St. Peter-Zion Lutheran at 7 p.m. at the Y in semi-finals of the junior high division play-offs in the church basketball league.

In games last Saturday First Baptist topped Mt. Pitt Nazarene 29 to 16, St. Mark's romped 43 to 25 over Presbyterian and the Lutheran club whipped the Methodists 30 to 21. The Y had a bye.

A men's division contest saw the Methodists nip the Presbyterians 25 to 24. Gordon Williams had 17 points for the winners and Dave Erion 13 for the losers.

The Baptists were undefeated in six games of regular junior high league play while St. Mark's was runner-up with five wins and one loss.

John de Place headed the Baptist win with 13 points. Chuck Shaw had 15 and Jim Randle 14 for St. Mark's. Mack put in 14 for the Lutherans.

Pilots Top Gonzaga U

Spokane —(UP) — Portland forward Ray (Great) Scott, dropped in 17 points to lead the Pilots to a 72-62 basketball win and a two game sweep over Gonzaga University Monday night.

Scott, Portland's latest whiz, hit six field goals and five free shots but didn't compare with the 31 points he canned Sunday when the Pilots won 70-56. Scott did not make a point for the first 17 minutes but then hit four consecutive in two mintes. The defensive work of Gonzaga forward Mike Gordon was credited with holding the ace down.

The Zags' Jean Lefebvre, 7-foot 3-inch import from Paris, wasn't up to his usual scoring par of the past four games and hit only 11 points.
