

Minoso's Powerful Hitting Drowns Out Indian Critics

By FRED DOWNS
United Press Sports Writer
Those critics of Cleveland Indian General Manager Frank Lane are being drowned out today by the thunder of Minoso's bat.

Larry Doby pans out for the Indians the way Minoso is. Acquired Dec. 4 in a deal that involved the popular Early Wynn and Al Smith, Minoso is enjoying one of the finest springs of his nine-year career.

day was wallop three homers and a single to drive in eight runs and lead the Tribe to a 14-7 victory over the Chicago Cubs. That outburst topped another terrific showing by Ernie Banks who smacked his 10th and 11th homers of the spring and knocked in five runs for the losers.

Bassey Keeps Title, By Halting Moreno

By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles—Dusky Nigerian featherweight champion Hogan (Kid) Bassey, who stalks an opponent like a tiger, today accepted the plaudits of power-punching Ricardo (Pajarito) Moreno as "the better man" after he scored a third-round knockout over the Mexican challenger.

quick ending to the scheduled 15-round title bout. Quick Like a Cat
"They said he was quick like a cat and hit hard—he did," said Moreno as he shook his head in disbelief.

Lane was criticized for making both the Minoso and Doby deals but in reuniting sluggers who twice previously have been "roomies" he is trying to "wake up" a city whose attendance last season fell to 720,000.

In the first defense of the title he won last June, Bassey weathered Moreno's bull-like rushes and lashing blows even though they staggered him and then landed a jolting right to the head in the third round to drop Moreno for the full count after 2:58 minutes Tuesday night.

"He hurt me with every punch," Bassey said, screwing up his face in mock pain as he discussed the bout. "But I knew I had him in the second round."

Bill Skowron knocked in eight runs with two homers and a single as the New York Yankees outslugged the Chicago White Sox, 15-11.

Dupas, Fuentes Tussle Okehed

New Orleans—A 10-round welterweight bout between Ralph Dupas and Ramon Fuentes had the sanction of the Louisiana State Boxing commission today after the commission ignored an opinion of the State Attorney General's office Wednesday said the bout would violate state law.

The abrupt ending left the crowd of around 17,000 fans almost gasping in astonishment. The gate was estimated at $220,000. The predominantly Mexican audience had expected more from their favorite who has a record of 29 knockouts in 34 fights.

Steve Bilko, fighting to win a job with Cincinnati, knocked in four runs with two homers off Curt Simmons to lead the Redlegs to a 9-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Bowling

JUNIOR TOURNAMENT
Gutter Kids with 2623 paced boy's teams and B and B Auction with 2430 led the girls in contention at Medford Bowling lanes for the American Junior Bowling congress handicapped national team handicapped tourney.

The crowd was sent into hysterical cheers when Moreno staggered the shorter Bassey midway in the round with a series of jolting lefts and an occasional right. And he followed that up by pinning the champ in a neutral corner and again staggered him to take the round on all cards.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves wound up their "home" exhibition season at Bradenton, Fla., with a 7-2 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates; the San Francisco Giants clinched the Cactus league title by beating the Baltimore Orioles, 4-1; the St. Louis Cardinals snapped the Boston Red Sox' eight-game winning streak, 4-3; the Kansas City Athletics downed the Detroit Tigers, 4-1; and the Washington Senators shaded the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-6, in 10 innings.

HOCKEY

NATIONAL LEAGUE
By UNITED PRESS
The Montreal Canadiens, who "rocketed" into the Stanley Cup playoff finals in four straight games, sat back today to enjoy at least one week of rest while the New York Rangers and Boston Bruins battled for the other berth.

Harmon sparked the Kids with a 193 game and 481 series and Inger Palmquist topped the Auction club with 147 and 408. Stewart Schroeder had high boys' series with 492 and Delores Williams 160 was high game for girls.

The Canadiens swept their best-of-seven semi-final series from the Detroit Red Wings with a 4-3 victory Tuesday night as the incomparable Maurice (Rocket) Richard turned the three-goal "hat trick."

AMERICAN LEAGUE

By UNITED PRESS
The semi-final rounds of the American Hockey league play-offs will resume tonight with both the Providence Reds and the Springfield Indians favored to win on their home rinks.

Meanwhile, the Rangers whipped the Bruins, 5-2, to square their series at two games apiece. The remaining games are scheduled April 3, 5 and 8, all on Boston ice.

The Reds, who finished third during the regular season, have dropped all three games to the pennant-winning Hershey Bears and must win tonight to remain in contention for the best-of-seven series.

April Fool Calls Too Much for "Brain"

Portland—April Fool's Day humor was too much even for an electronic brain. Harassed personnel at the Portland zoological gardens—remembering last year's flood of 700 telephone calls for Mr. Fox, Mr. Lamb, and Mrs. Lion—this year installed an automatic telephone answering device. But after an hour the calls even had the electronic brain in a neurotic condition. Its message cylinder was filled and its recorded voice went dead in mid-sentence.

A ship in full sail on Chicago's seal is emblematic of the approach of the white man's civilization and commerce.

D'Olivo Gets Mound Call For SOC Diamond Opener Five New Regular Players

By RICH SCOTT
Ashland—Dave D'Olivo will be on the mound for Southern Oregon college in its opening baseball game of the season against Humboldt State Thursday at 3 p.m. here.

McAbee to left. Jones at short. Willie Jones, veteran from last year's squad, will start at shortstop and will team with Jim Dietz at second base for the keystone combination. Larry Maurer gets the position at first base.

The Raiders meet Humboldt State in a three game series with the single game Thursday and a doubleheader scheduled for Friday beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Coach Ted Schopf will start Jack Brown on the hill in the first game Friday and either Jim Eggers or Kermit McElmore in the second. If Eggers is needed in relief in the first game McElmore will get the call to start.

The outfield and catching line-up is still somewhat uncertain according to Schopf. Opening catching chores will go to Phil Sword or Ron Maurer.

Beginning with this series, the Red Raiders have seven non-league games before meeting Oregon Tech, April 19, in a doubleheader at Ashland to open Oregon Collegiate conference.

New RVCC Links Pro Arrives

Ron Caperna arrived yesterday to assume duties as golf professional at Rogue Valley Country club. He will succeed Al Williams as head pro. Williams has resigned to devote his time to a private manufacturing business here and leaves RVCC May 1.

Parrish Tells Toronto Choice

McMinnville—Ron Parrish, star quarterback for Northwest conference football champion Linfield, said today he had decided to play professional football with Toronto of the Canadian league.

Caperna comes here after serving as pro at Astoria Golf and Country club for eight years. He has been succeeded at Astoria by Ed Oldfield, ex-Medford high athlete. Oldfield has been head

Parrish of Prineville, had been drafted by the Los Angeles Rams. He has asked to delay signing until after the college baseball season.
