Wasco Rancher Named To State Road Commission

Salem — Kenneth N. Fridley, 46-year-old Wasco rancher, was appointed to the State Highway Commission Wednesday by Gov. Robert D. Holmes.

Fridley, who operates a 1500-acre wheat, grass and livestock ranch in Sherman county, succeeds Charles H. Reynolds, La Grande. The new commissioner joins Robert Chessman, Astoria, and M. K. Melver, Portland, on the commission. Reynolds' three-year term expired Monday.

"I am a firm believer," Fridley said, "in maximum development and utilization of our water potential—power and transportation—and in the maximum development of highways which would serve as feeders."

Linfield Graduate
A native of Wasco, where he was born Nov. 5, 1912, Fridley is a past president of the Oregon Wheat Growers league. He is a graduate of Linfield college. He is a vice president of the Columbia River Development association and general manager of the newly organized Columbia Ports Traffic Bureau at The Dalles.

The new commissioner is a member of a pioneer Oregon family. His great grandfather, Jacob Fridley, came to Oregon from Ohio in 1845 to homestead on the present site of Oregon State college in Corvallis. His grandfather, George C. Fridley, homesteaded in Sherman county in 1883.

Fridley, also active in politics, is a former chairman of the Sherman County Democratic Central Committee.

Train Derailed In Collision

Lodi, Ohio — The Baltimore & Ohio's 15-car Capitol Limited, bound for Chicago from Washington at a 75-mile an hour clip, was derailed early today when it was rammed by a tractor-trailer loaded with coal at a crossing near here.

The truck driver, a passenger, and 10 persons aboard the train were injured. Seven of the 200 train passengers were treated at the scene while three others were treated at Lodi hospital and released.

James Burt, 21, LaGrange, Ohio, driver of the coal truck, was admitted to Lodi hospital with possible internal injuries and severe head injuries. He was listed in serious condition.

Among the passengers was Fran Allison, of the Kukla, Fran and Ollie TV puppet show. She was due to appear on a show in Chicago this morning.

The impact of the derailment tore up a half mile of tracks as the cars jack-knifed to the side of the line. A length of steel rail was driven up through one of the 11 pullman cars, missing a sleeping passenger by a foot.

All of the train passengers, including the injured, were taken to Willard, Ohio, for transfer to another train bound for Chicago.

'Flying Watchmaker' In Rio De Janeiro

Rio De Janeiro — Peter Gluckman, San Francisco's "flying watchmaker," arrived here Wednesday in the single-engine plane in which he hopes to fly by way of Africa to London.

Gluckman plans, with the aid of extra gas tanks, to fly his Bonanza plane direct from London to New York on the return trip.
