The Ways of The Lord

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve — I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey — I asked for help that I might do greater things — I was given infirmity, that I might do better things — I asked for riches, that I might be happy —

I was given poverty, that I might be wise. I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life — I was given life, that I might enjoy all things. I got nothing that I asked for — but everything I had hoped for. Despite myself, my prayers were answered. I am, among all men, most richly blessed.

HAPPY EASTER

Eisenhower's Plan Of Reorganization Given Little Chance

Washington — (U.P.) — Congressional military spokesmen today wrote off President Eisenhower's drastic military reorganization plan as dead at birth. Some openly suggested he compromise on measures for streamlining the nation's military establishment.

The President proposed giving the secretary of defense a most complete authority over military strategy, manpower, weapons and money.

Evident in first remarks by key legislators was the long-standing fear of a "Man on horseback" running the Defense Department and of losing Congress' jealously guarded "power of the purse." This was seen in critical comments on a key feature which would concentrate great power in the secretary of defense, including authority to shift appropriated funds from one purpose to another.

Hearings Planned — The House Armed Services committee will begin hearings on reorganization plans when Congress returns from its 10-day Easter recess. Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.), who rules his committee with an iron hand, was not immediately available for comment. However, he has never made any secret of his opposition to building up the defense secretary's power.

A bipartisan group of congressional leaders already has introduced a reorganization plan which would eliminate many of the civilian assistant secretaries in the office of the defense secretary. This bill, contrary to the President's plan, would enhance the position of the Army, Navy and Air secretaries instead of concentrating power in the defense secretary's hands.

Wallace Questions Act by Governor — Portland — (U.P.) — Lew Wallace, Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, Thursday questioned legality of preventing an increase in employers' contributions to the unemployment compensation trust fund by a $14 million federal loan.

Gov. Robert Holmes Tuesday said he had applied for the loan to keep 12,000 employers from paying a 2.7 percent rate instead of .6 percent rate into the fund in a move to help ease the recession.

Wallace claimed that the 2.7 percent rate was fixed for all employers for the second quarter when March 31 found the fund below the floor of $31,500,000. Mrs. Cecilia P. Galey, chairman of the Unemployment Compensation commission and an attorney, defended the move.
