REMOVE WASTE- NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's a secret millions have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the wonderfully different chewing-gum laxative.

FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food! FEEN-A-MINT does not work in the stomach, where food is being digested. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy.

Doctors know that FEEN-A-MINT works chiefly in the lower bowel...removes mostly waste, not good food! And it's non-irritating, too.

So to feel like a million, chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT, 16 tablets, 35¢—also small and economy sizes.

EASTER EGGSMOBILE John Dukes McKee

Directions: Make all the pieces shown above and mount them on cardboard. Bend the Eggsmobile body, radiator, and gas tank as shown in the sketch. Paste them together at front and back of the Eggsmobile. Put two empty spools through the hollow spaces that are formed and paste the wheels to the spool ends. Now bend the arms, legs, and backs of the Egg family, as shown, and set them on their Incubator Six. Then send them on their Eggscursion.

Funny Bunny Jane McHenry

After the Easter egg hunt, seat your friends or family in a circle and ask them to pass an Easter egg from one to the other as fast as they can, until you (or someone chosen as leader) calls "Stop!" Whoever has the egg is a "Funny Bunny," and he has to pass the egg under one leg before giving it to the next person. If one is unlucky enough to be caught twice, he has to wiggle his nose like a rabbit before passing the egg under one leg and on to his partner. Each time a player is caught, a new variation must be added. By the time several players are going through all these contortions, the game is lots of fun. Set a time limit for playing, and give an extra-handsome egg to anyone who has avoided being a "Funny Bunny."
