Plastic Diving Rod Finds Water

Norwood, Ohio — Tom Anderson, sometimes farmer, railroad laborer, and water diver, claims his plastic diving rod is better than the old fashioned peach twig for finding underground springs.
Anderson, 71, who can't remember bringing in a dry well since he started dowsing for water during World War I, uses a Y-shaped plastic stick with a small vial of water clipped to the tip.
Holding each of the two short ends in his hands, he walks back and forth with the stick's tip pointing skyward. When the tip suddenly pulls toward the earth, he knows he has struck water.
In his earlier years, Anderson experimented with wire forks, peach branches and hazel twigs, but he now says the plastic stick is best because it cannot be affected by any other underground substance.

Skowron, Banks Set Torrid Pace

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
If they handed out most valuable player awards for the spring training period, Bill Skowron of the Yankees and Ernie Banks of the Cubs would walk off with the plaques hands down.

Grants Pass Trips Medford, 5-4, 6-3

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Grants Pass	2	0	1.000
Ashland	1	1	.500
Crater	1	1	.500
Klamath Falls	0	1	.000
Medford	1	1	.000

First baseman Pete Proctor drove home the tying and winning runs in the sixth inning and Pitcher Jim Smith bore down in the two closing frames to retire six men in order to give the Grants Pass high baseball team a 5 to 4 Southern Oregon conference victory over Medford here Friday.
By the victory, the Cavemen assumed lone possession of the conference leadership. Grants Pass, unblemished in two loop frays, got help from Crater which handed Ashland its first league loss 7 to 2 also on Friday.
Making a clean sweep of its afternoon rivalry, Grants Pass was winner by 6 to 3 in the non-counting second scrap of the doubleheader. The Black Tornado outbait the Cavemen in each game but didn't get sufficient extra aids like bases on balls, errors and sacrifices to help put runs across. And Medford's defense did not match its effectiveness of previous games. GP was errorless.

Bad Hop Single

Grants Pass lagged 3 to 4 going into the sixth inning of the league struggle. First man up, Smith, drew a base on balls. Lee Holmes laid down a bunt and was safe on Pitcher Dennis Barr's poor throw to first base. Both runners advanced on Dick Hayes's ground out and Proctor slashed a bad hop single through shortstop territory to score both runners.
After Barr yielded another safety to Gary Honeycutt, he was relieved on the hill by Tom Laurance. The reliever walked one batter to fill the bases but fanned the next two to retire the side.
George Ice, first batter to face Smith in the sixth canto, grounded out. Then Smith struck out the next two Tornadoes and followed up with three straight whiffs in the seventh.
Smith had 14 strikeouts and walked one and hit one batter in the tussle.

Jensen Triples

The Cavemen got their first marker in the game in the second inning without a hit on two bases on balls, a hit batter, a sacrifice and a sacrifice error combination. Medford tied the score in the second. Ron Peery singled, stole second and went to third base on a passed ball. Ken Jensen poked a fly into right field. It hit fair and got a long roll for a triple, scoring Peery.
GP went on top 3 to 1 with runs in the fourth inning. The Cavemen utilized a hit batter, base on balls, single by Dan Wolke, a fielder's choice, an error and a sacrifice flyout by Proctor.
Medford compiled three runs in the fifth inning. Ray Konopasek was hit by a pitch and moved to second on Ken Durkee's single. Lowell Dean hit to score Konopasek. Then Peery slammed a long fly which bounded to the tennis courts for a three-bagger.
Lowell Dean with two singles and Peery were the only

Busso Halts Boardman

Boston — Tough Johnny Busso looked for bigger game today after providing to 620 ringside fans and a national television audience that his win over one-time lightweight contender Larry Boardman 10 months ago was no fluke.

In his first bout since a seven-week hitch in the Army, Busso nearly ended it in the opening stanza when he knocked Boardman down twice within the first minute. He had Boardman down three times in the fifth and twice in the ninth.
"I'm interested in Ralph Dupas next if he'll give me a shot," Busso said, referring to the third-ranked contender from New Orleans.
The win gave Busso a 32-5-1 record. Boardman suffered his seventh defeat after 36 victories.
