

Proudian - Buffington Rites Held in Lutheran Church

An event of April 6, Easter Sunday evening, was the wedding of Miss Sallee Joan Buffington to Andre Pierre Proudian at St. Peter Evangelical church. The ceremony was read at seven o'clock by the Rev. Kenneth F. Korby, and about 80 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford H. Buffington, 1123 West Ninth street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vahe Proudian, Cairo, Egypt.

Mr. Buffington escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of traditional white satin designed with long sleeves and an overskirt of imported Italian lace covering the skirt and medium-length train. Her short veil was held by a coronet of pearls and she carried calla lilies.

Miss Billee Buffington was her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Miss Margery Dinubilo and Miss Betty Lou Rupp, both of Fresno, Calif. Miss Buffington wore a white taffeta sheath frock with overskirt of pale green net and the bridesmaid's gowns were pink sheaths with matching overskirts. They carried carnations.

Little Paulette Simmons was flower girl. Her dress of pink taffeta and net fashioned similar to those worn by the bridesmaids.

Gilbert Khachadourian, Fresno, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Byron Dwellie and Edward Koumrian.

Mrs. Richard Smith was organist, and Mrs. Lois Miller Windsor, Ashland, sang.

The reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. George Broussard, Fresno, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Assisting and pouring were Mrs. Riemer Peterson, Mrs. J. G. Wolff and Mrs. Edward Rupp. Mrs. G. W. Simmons took charge of the guest book.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a chemise-type suit of melon pink with brown orchid corsage.

Easter lilies stood on the church altar and baskets of pink snapdragons, calla lilies and spirea completed the decorations.

Mr. Proudian and his bride are making their home in Fresno where both are students at Fresno State college. The bride, attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college before enrolling in the California school. Her major is English literature.

The bridegroom attended Lycee Francais d'Alexandrie in Egypt and the Sorbonne in Paris, France, before coming to the United States to study. His major is nuclear physics.

Auxiliary Elects Officers

Miss Laura York was re-elected president of the Medford unit, American Legion auxiliary, at a meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Earl Bigalow.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Harry Leuty, first vice president; Mrs. Clark Walker, second vice president; Mrs. Gladys Francis, secretary; Mrs. Ross Minnici, treasurer; Mrs. Ellis Capps, sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. Bert Staats, assistant sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Herbert Gifford and Mrs. Bigalow were elected as members of the board.

Also elected at the meeting were delegates to attend the annual state auxiliary convention at Astoria in June. They included Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Bigalow, Mrs. Leuty, and Mrs. Howard Goldsmith. Alternates were Mrs. Nettie Ellenberg, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Keegan Townsend and Mrs. Merle Jarmin.

The group voted to send contributions to the Crusade for Freedom and the Oregon Association for Retarded Children. It was announced that an American flag had been presented to a Brownie group.

Members of the auxiliary have aided in the decorating of wheel chairs for floats that will participate in the Wheel Chair parade at Camp White this afternoon.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Leon Haskins and Mrs. Ellenberg at the close of the meeting.

Ghana Residents Visit in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rutter and their three sons, Jeremy, Stephen and Matthew, arrived in Medford Thursday to spend two weeks here with Mr. Rutter's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Rutter, 1033 Queen Anne avenue.

The visitors make their home in Accra, Ghana, where Mr. Rutter is deputy chief of mission for the United States embassy.

Returns

Mrs. R. W. Swartsley has returned to her home at 1122 East Main street after spending the past three weeks in Salem with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Swartsley. Mrs. Swartsley made her home in Salem for many years, and was honored at a number of parties during her stay in the capital city.

Luncheon Planned By OSC Mothers

Medford Couple Returns to City

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thorn-dike have returned to Medford after a winter vacation of several weeks. The Thorn-dikes left here December 26 for Florida, stopping first in Tucson, and in Fallbrook, Calif., visiting a sister of Mr. Thorn-dike in the latter city.

In Florida they took an apartment on Treasure island near St. Petersburg, and "waited for the good weather." The Thorn-dikes report that the unseasonable cold not only caused large losses in crops and cattle, but also destroyed some of the state's finest gardens.

En route home the couple stopped at The Cloisters, a Sea island resort off the coast of Georgia, and in Vicksburg, Miss. They visited the Civil War battlefields. Returning through Arizona they made stops in Phoenix, and Yuma and report that heavy rains resulted in an unusually heavy bloom of desert flowers.

Medford Couple Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O. Morton, Old Military road, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda, to Kenneth L. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Myers, 1101 Woodrow lane, Medford.

Miss Morton is a senior at Medford High school. Mr. Myers also attended Medford High school and served with the United States Navy. He is employed by the U. S. postal service in Medford.

No date has been set for the wedding.
