Following the ceremony a reception was held in the recreation center at the church.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pattner chose a light blue lace frock with matching accessories. Mrs. Tucker wore an orchid colored lace dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

The newlywed couple are making their home in Corvallis following a wedding trip to the Oregon and Washington coasts.

Players Rehearse Comedy

Footlighters will open their spring drama season at the Fairgrounds theater Tuesday, April 15, with a five-night run of "Here Today," by George Oppenheimer.

Featured players in the sophisticated three-act comedy are Miss Jeraldyn Jerome as "Mary Hilliard," a charming playwright, and Robbie Robbins as "Stanley Dale," her collaborator in both writing and matchmaking. According to Frank Buchter, who is directing the show, convincing to persuade the ever-so-Bostonian "Mrs. Windrew," played by Mrs. Helen Ashley, to accept Mary's ex-husband into the Windrew family has hilarious—and surprising—results.

Others in the cast are Miss Beverly Nelson, Curt Butterfield, Charles Tucker, and Al Reiss. The scene is Nassau, in the Bahamas, where the Windrews have taken a house for the winter season. The set was designed and constructed by Stage Manager Bernard Roberts and Mr. Buchter, assisted by Clyde Wheaton. Footlighter President Leslie Boardman is bookholder.

Tickets are available at Purucker's, Swem's, and from members of the cast. They will also be on sale at the box office on performance nights. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.
