

Ashland 6-3 Winner Over Black Tornado

Piling up all their runs before the Black Tornado could score, the Ashland high Grizzlies trimmed Medford 6 to 3 in a non-league baseball fracas at Ashland yesterday.

The Tornado was held down by the four-hit hurling of Bob Johnson. The Grizzly twirler, however, yielded two runs in the seventh inning and Coach Snuffy Smith sent in Alan McKinnis, who retired the last two batters.

Ashland cashed in for two runs in the first frame on four bases on balls, a hit by Harley Dickerson and an error. Two more got home in the second stanza on a single by Dave Graham, a walk, error, wild pitch, passed ball and two stolen bases.

In the fourth inning Jim Matteson got on base on an error, Graham singled and Matteson tallied on a double steal. Billy Maurer doubled in the fifth inning. He then raced for third and came home on an overthrow. Maurer reached third in time to be credited with a swipe.

Tough Days For Campy

Glen Cove, N. Y. — These are tough days for the Los Angeles Dodgers' most ardent rooter.

Roy Campanella, who should be there in San Francisco running things behind home plate for the Dodgers, instead lies in a hospital bed here and listens to his team's opening games in California on the radio—and a second-hand "recreated" broadcast at that.

But no fan out in Los Angeles is rooting any harder for the Dodgers than the star catcher who has been partially paralyzed since he broke his neck in an auto accident on Jan. 28.

Sends Telegram

Glen Cove Community hospital made that plain Tuesday when it announced that Campy was anxiously waiting for those radio broadcasts to begin.

Campy made it plain himself. He sent a telegram to his teammates and Manager Walt Alton read it in a hushed dressing room just before the start of the season opener against the Giants:

"Although I am unable to be there, I'm still with you. Here's hoping today's opening game will start a great team off to a most successful season, signed Campy."

The Dodgers didn't win that one, but Roy is still rooting.

And all the fans are still rooting for him.

For Medford in the sixth inning, Ron Peery got on base on a miscue and Dale Shaw singled. A wild pitch figured in the scoring of one run. For two counters in the seventh, a two-bagger by Lowell Dean followed an error, walk and fielder's option.

Pete Stemple picked up the other hit for Ashland and Dick Durante safetied for Medford.

Johnson struck out five Tornado batters and walked six, McKinnis chalked up one strikeout, Medford tosser Larry Brown was tagged for three hits in three innings. He gave six bases on balls and whiffed two Lithians. Pat McLaughlin gave two safeties over the rest of the distance. He struck out one batter and did not walk any.

Red Raiders Divide Chico Doubleheader

By RICH SCOTT

Ashland — Larry Maurer lined a home run down the left field line to give the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon college a 5-4 victory and a split in the baseball doubleheader against Chico State here yesterday.

Maurer's four bagger came in the final inning of the second game with nobody on base to break a 4-4 deadlock and hand Chico State its first loss of the year in 12 starts.

Maurer was the big stick all through the second game. In the fourth inning he singled with the bases loaded to put the Raiders in front 4-3. Chico came back to tie it up in the seventh inning by scoring one run. That set the stage for Maurer's big blast.

Accounts For Four

In all Maurer accounted for four of the five runs scored. He knocked in three runs and scoring two.

Chico State came from behind to win the first game of the doubleheader. The Wildcats were down 3-2 going into the fifth inning where they scored four runs to sew up the victory.

Aided by two Raider errors and a double by John Rickard and a single by Loren Barthoff the visitors ran up a 6-3 count which lasted to the final out of the game.

The Raiders picked up their lone three runs in the first inning. Chuck Nevi lead off with a walk and moved to second on an infield out. Jim McAbee singled Nevi in for the first run and Phil Sword came through with another single that sent McAbee all the way around to score.

King Leads Hitting

Leroy King got the third consecutive single to move Sword to third. Eldon Francis followed with a sacrifice fly which scored Sword with the third and final run of the game for the Raiders.

Leroy King was the leading hitter for Southern Oregon, getting three singles in three
