

Meyner Prestige Bolstered With Election Victory

Newark, N.J.—Democrat Harrison A. Williams Jr. bolstered Gov. Robert B. Meyner's national political prestige today by winning New Jersey's bitter U.S. Senatorial primary in a photo-finish that overshadowed Rep. Robert W. Kean's close victory in the Republican race.

Williams, endorsed by the governor, won the Democratic nomination over Hoboken Mayor John J. Grogan and Joseph E. McLean, state commissioner of conservation and economic development, by a scant 10,000 votes.

Kean edged Bernard M. Shanley, former appointments secretary to President Eisenhower, and Robert Morris of Point Pleasant in Tuesday's balloting.

Unofficial returns from 4-118 of the state's 4,184 districts in the Democratic contest showed: Williams, 149,513; Grogan, 136,404, and McLean, 60,961.

With 4,128 districts in the Republican side, the three-way fight gave Kean, 155,698; Shanley, 128,552, and Morris, 72,359.

Nominations for 14 congressional seats were decided along with numerous municipal and county offices in the election, which also saw a comeback by the regular Hudson county organization ousted from Jersey City control last May by a "victory ticket" faction of the party.

Approximately 700,000 of the state's 2,700,000 registered voters participated in the tight senatorial election.

More Suspensions Of Licenses Given

Drivers whose licenses were ordered suspended during the period beginning April 2 and ending April 8 were announced by the state department of motor vehicles.

Length of suspension varies depending on charges involved, recommendation of court, discretionary action by the department or requirements of Oregon law. Some of the licenses involving financial responsibility and court recommendations may have been reinstated after suspension was ordered.

The department warned drivers that all police agencies receive copies of this report. The penalty for driving while suspended is a jail sentence of not less than two days and up to six months in addition to a fine up to $500.
