

Jack Harshman's Relieving Helps Orioles Into First Spot in Loop

By MILTON RICHMAN

United Press Sports Writer

Everyone thought Paul Richards slipped his clutch when he dealt for a pitcher with a slumped disc, but that same pitcher—southpaw Jack Harshman—enabled the Baltimore Orioles to slip quietly into first place in the American league today.

Harshman, whose back was such a question mark that he didn't sign a formal Baltimore contract until last week, vindicated Richards' judgment Thursday night with a nifty relief performance that earned him the victory in a 4-0 triumph over the Washington Senators.

Wearing a special corset for support, Harshman came to the rescue of rookie Milt Pappas in the fourth inning with two men on and one out. He limited Washington to one single the rest of the way to gain his first win for the Orioles since they obtained him from the White Sox last Dec. 2.

Home runs by Gus Triandos and Brooks Robinson helped the Orioles to their second straight victory which left them the only unbeaten team in the league.

Yanks, White Sox Win
The Yankees defeated the Red Sox, 3-1; the White Sox edged the Tigers, 4-3, and the Indians edged the Athletics, 3-2.

Oregon's 1957 Deer Kill Totals 116,589

Portland — Oregon deer hunters did it again. For the fifth year in a row more than 100,000 deer found their way into the hunter's deep freeze during the 1957 season according to statistics recently completed by the game commission.

Final computations of Oregon's big game harvest show a grand total of 116,589 deer taken by 221,960 hunters during the 1957 season. This is 9,211 less deer taken than during the 1956 season. The heavy kill was made despite a curtailed deer season of only three days as compared to nine days the previous year and some 12,000 less deer hunters than in 1956.

The general deer season produced 114,515 animals which included a whopping total of 80,111 bucks. Controlled seasons accounted for 1,894 deer of which 568 were bucks, and archers took 180 deer, which was the second highest number for the bow and arrow artists since records have been kept. The grand total shows 80,747 buck deer taken and 35,842 antlerless animals during the general and controlled hunts.

Hunters enjoyed a success ratio of 51.6 per cent during the general season which was an increase in the hunter success over the previous year. Some 4,300 controlled deer tags were issued for a success ratio of 44.0.

Klamath Leads
Klamath county again led the state in the number of deer killed with 11,946 animals reported taken. This is a decided increase over the 10,227 the previous year. Grant county followed with 11,263, and Lake county moved into third spot with 10,954. Deschutes county produced slightly more than 8,000 deer, Baker more than 6,500 and Harney more than 6,100 animals. Low county was again Multnomah with 73 deer reported by some 294 hunters.

Klamath county also experienced the heaviest pressure with some 19,300 hunters in the area during the season. This was followed by Deschutes with 17,887, Grant and Lake with close to 17,000 and Lane with slightly more than 14,600.

For the second year in a row Baker county led in hunter success. There 73.3 per cent of the hunters bagged an animal. Wallowa county was close on the heels of Baker with 72.7 per cent of the hunters successful. Other counties where success was high include Gilliam with 67.3, Grant with 66.4, Malheur with 65.7, and Lake with 65.0. Wheeler, Morrow, Harney, and Klamath counties all had hunter success of better than 60 per cent. Low county where Hood River with only 22 per cent of the hunters successful and Clatsop county where only 22.2 per cent of the hunters were successful.

Marlene Hagge Defends Toga

Beaumont, Tex. — Marlene Bauer Hagge, who seems to catch the winning golf habit when the ladies PGA tour hits Texas, started in search of her third straight Zaharias Open golf tournament title today.

The 24-year-old blonde, who has whipped her game into shape for victories here the past two seasons after just-so performances on the winter tour, has been here for 10 days honing up her game on the short, but exacting Beaumont Country club course with its par of 73.

The lightly-regarded Cubs bounced to the top of the National league standings with a 4-3 victory over the Cardinals; the Giants beat the Dodgers, 7-4, and the Braves defeated the Pirates 6-1, in the only other games scheduled.

Johnny Kucks of the Yanks held the Red Sox to seven hits and blanked them until the ninth when Jackie Jensen unloaded his third homer of the season. Pete Runnels collected Boston's other hits.

Mickey Mantle's first hit of the season was a towering homer off loser Tom Brewer in the fifth inning. Ted Williams made his first appearance as a pinch hitter in the eighth and grounded out.

Early Wynn chalked up the White Sox' first victory of the season, although Gerry Staley was called in to check the Tigers from the seventh on. Ex-Tiger Bubba Phillips drove in what proved to be the winning run in the sixth after Al Smith had driven in a pair of runs for Chicago earlier in the contest off loser Frank Lary. Ren0 Bertola homered for Detroit.

Mickey Vernon's pinch double drove in the two runs in the ninth that gave the Indians their first victory of the season over the A's. Duke Maas, aided by Bob Cerv's homer, nursed a 2-1 lead until the ninth when singles by Roger Maris and Preston Ward along with Vernon's two-out double proved his downfall. Rookie Jim Muecat Grant went the route for Cleveland and yielded eight hits.

Second Victory
Dale Long's sacrifice fly, following singles by Walt Moryn and Bobby Thomson in the eighth inning, scored the run that gave the Cubs their second victory in a row over the Cards. Chicago manager Bob Scheffing used three pitchers, starter Glenn Hobbie winding up with the victory. John Goryl homered off loser Lindy McDaniel. Stan Musial had a homer and a single, thereby breaking Mel Ott's National league record for total bases. Musial's two hits increased his total bases to 5,046. Ott's record was 5,041.

Rookie third baseman Jim Devenport rapped out four hits in the Giants' triumph over Don Newcombe of the Dodgers. Newcombe, charged with San Francisco's first five runs, left the game in the fourth inning because of a pulled muscle in his back. Southpaw Johnny Antonelli started for the Giants but the victory went to Curt Barclay, who relieved him in the fourth. Gino Cimoli homered for the Dodgers while Bob Schmidt connected for the Giants. The game drew only 12,500 fans at Seals Stadium compared with the crowds of better than 20,000 which witnessed the first two encounters.

Eddie Mathews continued his spectacular slugging for the Braves, driving in five of their runs against the Pirates with his third and fourth homers of the year. Lew Burdette, meanwhile, held the Pirates to seven hits in chalking up his first victory.

Squaw Lake To Be Open To Anglers This Season

Squaw lake will be open to fishermen this season. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harr, lake owners, said that the lake will be open to anglers on Saturday, April 21, through Thursday, April 24, by telephoning Spring 9-022.

The Harrs had previously announced, giving various reasons, that the lake would be closed this season, except for special parties.

Squaw lake has always been an opening day Mecca of fishermen. With no trout fishing permitted in the Rogue river and its tributaries until May 24, even heavier pressure on the lake is anticipated in the early season.

Bill Rigney In Hospital

Oakland, Calif. — Manager Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants was recovering in Peralta hospital today from what his doctor diagnosed as indigestion and possibly a touch of flu.

Rigney retired from the dugout during Thursday's game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers in Seals Stadium and went to his office. After the game an ambulance brought him here.

Garry Schumacher, publicist for the Giants denied vigorously Rigney was suffering from a heart attack or stomach ulcers.

The 38-year-old manager was not expected to be in Los Angeles for the opening of major league ball in the Coliseum. However, he is expected to resume charge of the Giants Saturday or Sunday.

HOCKEY

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Montreal — The Montreal Canadiens, powered by Maurice "Rocket" Richard's clutch overtime goal, were only one game away from winning their third straight Stanley Cup today.

The "big" goal by the Rocket, a typical Richard effort, came at 5:45 of the extra session and gave the Canadiens a 3-2 victory over the Boston Bruins and also a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven finals. The sixth, and perhaps final game, will be played in Boston Sunday night.

Record Crowd Predicted For Los Angeles Opener

By SCOTT BAILLIE

Los Angeles — The Giants and the Dodgers moved their feud into Memorial Coliseum today, which should make some of the pitchers and all of the club owners happy, even if the hurlers do have to contend with a 250-foot barrier in left field.

A record-shattering crowd of 90,000 was anticipated for the afternoon tilt as major league baseball made its bow in the land of make believe.

While there has been some speculation that the Coliseum would be a hitter's paradise, there is reason to believe that the pitchers will like it better than the San Francisco park.

For Seals Stadium, where San Francisco defeated Los Angeles, 7-4, Thursday to take the series by a 2-1 margin, seems to be a bad place for established hurlers.

Antonelli Yanked

Johnny Antonelli, the Giants' southpaw, from whom manager Bill Rigney is expecting great things this year, didn't get past the fourth inning and was jerked after giving up six walks, five hits and four runs during the three and two-thirds frames he worked.

Don Newcombe of the Dodgers also checked out during the fourth with a pulled shoulder muscle. He was charged with the loss as well as five runs on four hits. Three of these tallies were un-

LA Dodgers Greeted by Festivities

Los Angeles — Major league baseball arrived in Los Angeles today and the City of the Angels embraced the Dodgers as their home team with an outburst of festivities rivaling that staged three days ago when San
